Attention!

THE HOME GUARDS are hereby notified to meet THIS (WEDNESDAY) EVENING, at half past 7 o'clock, in IRVING HALL.

Per order.

☞ A young man in the Navy, one of 16 young men from this city now in one U. S. ship, asks us if he and they cannot have a Bounty as well as those on the land. He states that some persons in the same ship from other towns in New Hampshire have received bounty from their towns.

No bounties are offered by the United States to sailors. The chances of prize money are supposed to be an equivalent.

We were not before aware that any town had given a bounty to seamen,—and presume now that the cases must be few and exceptional.

☞ The 10th Regiment, on Monday, broke up its camp in Manchester, and departed for Washington. The officers of the Portsmouth Company, "G," are George W. Towle, Captain; George E. Hodgdon, 1st Lieutenant; Simon R. Marston, 2d Lieut.

☞ Capt. Betton's Company of Volunteers, from this city and vicinity, were mustered into the United States service on Saturday last. Six were rejected by the Examining Surgeon, and one hundred and seven accepted.

THE ROCKINGHAM CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION held its meeting in Newburyport, at the Court street Church, on Tuesday.—This body comprises the Christian Societies in some twenty towns in Essex county, Ms., and Rockingham, with a few in Maine.

☞ Commander George Henry Preble, who has been summarily dismissed from the naval service for "permitting the armed steamer Ovieto to run the blockade," is one of the most intelligent and capable officers in the navy. He is a nephew of the late Commodore Preble, one of the naval heroes of the war of 1812, and has been in the service since 1835. He was born in Maine, from which State he was appointed, but is now a citizen of Massachusetts. During the 27 years that he has been in the service, he has been unemployed only a little over three years—a fact which testifies to the high appreciation in which his services have been held. His vessel is one of those which run the gauntlet of the forts below New Orleans, and he has rendered efficient services to the Government upon the Mississippi river.

☞ They tried to put the hackmen in a pew which had been erected for their accommodation at the steamboat landing in New Haven, last week, but the hackmen declined to obey orders, and the order being insisted upon, they skedaddled in procession, leaving strangers and others to find the hotels as best they could.

☞ The Corporation of Harvard College have nominated Rev. Thomas Hill, D. D., for President. The Board of Overseers, on Friday, appointed a committee of five to consider the nomination, and to report a week from Monday next.

☞ The Prince of Wales shocks the English courtiers by his warm expressions of sympathy with us in our contest with rebellion. So says the English correspondent of the N. Y. Post.

☞ "Perley" telegraphs to the Boston Journal that a majority of the officers and civilians in Washington, endorse the President's Emancipation Proclamation, although some agree with the National Intelligencer, that it will be void of practical effect.

☞ Miss Nightingale, who has during the Summer been hard at work upon the plans for the future training of hospital nurses, has been obliged to cease her labors for the present, because of ill health.

☞ In South America, they punish a criminal by sewing him up in a green hide, and putting him in the sun to dry; so the hide shrinks and pinches, and pinches and shrinks, till the fellow dies.

☞ Mr. Sweat, the congressman elect from Maine, 1st district, has been set down as a loyal, or war democrat,—but on the contrary, the Saco Democrat claims and approves him.

When are kisses sweetest?—When they are stolen, not obviously obtained.

Of course.—To learn music properly it is necessary to have an accomplished tooter.

THE WIDOW LAGRILL.

Over the way, by the window sill,
Hiding her wrinkles under a frill,
Sitting alone is the widow Lagrill

Forty and fair, and a little fat,
Looking out sharply this way and that,
Now after Simkins, and then after Pratt.

She has a few thousands in her till,
And if Jacky won't, some other will Propose in behalf of the widow Lagrill.

She's not a widow to wilt and pine
Or sit and weep when called to dine,
Or dinner herself without dessert and wine.

She does high church, and her ways are still,
But a man who gets a hook in her gill
Must be something more than the late Lagrill—

Taller a foot, and larger of limb,
With a spirit high and with natural vim,
Or widow Lagrill will none of him.

She's waiting now, and is every day,
At her window-sill just over the way,
For somebody coming her bills to pay.

Oh! who will bombard the widow's sill
And cause the secession state to fulfill
Union forever, with widow Lagrill?

A QUEEN OF HEARTS.

Strong enough to captive Jove,
Playing the eagle; her clear brow
Is a comely field of snow.
A sparkling eye, no pure a grey
As when it shines it needs no day.
Ivory dwelleth on her nose;
Lilies, instead of the rose.
Have made her cheek the nuptial-bed;
Her lips betray the virgin red,
As they only blush for this,
That they one another kiss. —Shirley.

☞ York, at a meeting called for the purpose on Monday, the 15th inst., voted a bounty of $200 for each drafted or volunteered 9 months' man. Its first quota of 31 is filled, and the second quota, 67, is partly filled by volunteers.

☞ Thirty-six rebel steamers have been destroyed or captured on the Mississippi and its tributaries. The Western flotilla, which has been maintained by the War Department, will be turned over to the Navy Department on the 1st of October.

☞ Mathews' Arnica Hair Gloss is an infallible remedy for all diseases of the scalp. It allays and removes inflammation, and speedily cures all sorts and classes of eruptions. 1md

☞ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

A REQUEST.—Each and every person who is indebted to The Chronicle or The Gazette office, for newspapers, advertising or job printing, is hereby desired to settle the same as soon as convenient. And all having claims, to present them.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE!

A Sure Relief for the Sufferer!

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 16th century by Dr. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James' army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day; and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor. The Salve is used for the following diseases:—Burns, Bruises, Felons, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Boils, Scurvy, Sore Lips, Sore Eyes, Swelled Neck, Ulcers, Lame Joints, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Ringworms, Sprains, Fresh Wounds, Erysipelas, Scalds, Stings of Venomous Insects, Piles, Bunions, Frozen Limbs, Nettle Rash, Sore Breast, Wens, Eruptions, Festers, Shingles, Cancers, Whitlows, Hives, Sitfast, Salt Rheum, and Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature, without leaving a scar. It will also cure pimples on the face, and beautify the skin.

There are thousands who are suffering for months and even years in consequence of Sores and wounds that might be cured in a short time by the use of this great external salve. It has never failed to effect a speedy cure when properly applied. This Salve has none of the irritating heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand, for it will save them trouble, suffering and money; and in many cases it has saved life itself. The manufacturer receives testimonials daily, from some of our most distinguished citizens, expressing benefits derived from its use. This Salve is warranted to give perfect satisfaction in every disease that it professes to cure; if not, the money will be refunded.

M. S. Burr & Co., 26 Tremont street, Boston, wholesale agents. All orders addressed to this firm or the manufacturer, will receive prompt attention.

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

The Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Dani Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENKINS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, which he prepared, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since.

CAROLINE B. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.

SIMEON SWETT.

Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.

HANNAH ROWE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1838. Dr. SWETT:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; thereofre, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."

WM. F. LEAVITT.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing for exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pindar, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the best in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 25 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Rice, and others.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the undersigned, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me HIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made twenty-nine rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at hi, office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr. D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
April 7—1y 3taw.

CAUTION
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated on new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate cases are cured under six days, the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to the profession that he chooses, and private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—Will forward medicine on receipt of four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
April, 1862—1y 8aw

CERTAIN CURE
In all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
☞ Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1, and a red stamp.

THE REBELLION.

Dispatches to the Associated Press state that information received from a servant, who deserted from the rebels, shows that their loss in general officers in the late battles was greater than ours. Gen. Wright of Georgia was wounded in two places; Gen. Branch of North Carolina was killed; Gen. Longstreet was wounded; Maj. Gen. Anderson, commanding a division, was wounded; and Gen. Colquit of Georgia was killed. The rebels admit their loss to be 20,000 since they entered Maryland.—It is reported that the enemy are still in considerable force in the vicinity of Williamsport, and that heavy skirmishing is going on on both sides of the river. The military authorities at the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac feel fully satisfied that the whole rebel army is still on the opposite side of the Potomac. Gen. Lee is also there. Harper's Ferry is in our possession. We stand in a position to check a recrossing to re-commence offensive operations. Our army, moreover, is not still.—Large columns were in movement on Tuesday.

The Richmond papers give a dispatch from Gen. McKowan, stating that the Federal forces evacuated Cumberland Gap on Thursday night, the 18th inst., and that Gen. Stevenson was pursuing them. The rebel papers do not regard this news as favorable, as it was supposed by them that the Federal forces at the Gap were completely hemmed in.

Dispatches from Fortress Monroe state that news had been received that there had been an active movement of the troops at Richmond towards Petersburg, and that over 10,000 passed down the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad last Saturday.

A dispatch from Mobile dated the 16th, states that Gen. Price had driven our forces in the direction of Eastport and was still pursuing them. (Doubtful.)

Leesburg, Va., and vicinity are in possession of our forces, under the command of a fighting General. The division of Gen. Stahl, late Gen. Schenck's, of Gen. Sigel's corps, has been ordered to Centreville to occupy that place.

The N. Y. Times' letter from Williamsport, Monday evening, says none of our troops have crossed the river there, and it is not likely that they will at present.

Gen. Schofield has arrived at Springfield, Mo., and is preparing to check the rebels advancing from Arkansas, under Hindman and Rains.

There is nothing later, of importance, from Louisville. Active preparations were still being made to receive the rebels.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

Co. D—Frank Atwood, wounded in thigh.
Co. F—S. C. Waters, D. M. Fiske, killed.
Co. H—Ezra C. Grace, killed. Wounded—Samuel C. Row, wrist; James Kneeland, in thorax; Alpheus Pinkham, in arm; John Gafferty, face.
Co. I—Geo. M. Sherman, in thigh; Corp. Albert Smith, breast slightly.
Co. K—Sergt. Rand, killed. Wounded—Symon E. Richardson, in arm and shoulder; Menville Powers, in thigh and side.

—— The Camp Meeting at Lebanon, closed on Saturday, the 13th inst. It was decided to hold the meetings in future on the same ground, and with this in view, an association has been formed, called the White River Junction Camp Meeting Association.

—— A member of the 11th Regiment, in a letter to the Exeter News-Letter, says :—

Among our visitors is Col. Marston, looking finely, in good spirits, with the best of courage, although he has but a handful of men. There is a greater rush to see the Colonel than there would be to see the President and all his Cabinet. We had to show them almost any one, telling them it was the Colonel, to keep him from being run over. He stands big in the army, is spoken of by almost every one we meet, and they wish to stop and shake hands with any one that is acquainted with him, so great is his popularity.

☞ The N. Y. Republican State Convention met at Albany on Wednesday. A dispatch says that on the test vote the anti-Greeley men appeared to have the majority. The attendance is large. Hon. Alex S. Jhobnson, of Albany, is temporary chairman.

☞ Poindexter, the notorious guerilla leader in Missouri, who was lately captured, has been allowed to escape by his custodians.

A NEW CHAPTER OF BIBLICAL HISTORY.—The Portland Argus favors the public with the following item of information about Joshua :—

"Joshua, after collecting his forces, had them all circumcised, and when they were whole, supplied them with trumpets of rams' horns to be sounded around the walls of beleaguered cities, while himself, spear in hand, and mounted upon an ass, led them forth to battle with the uncircumcised."

The old fashioned bible tells of seven ram's horns, sounded by seven priests, but Joshua's ride on the ass appears as original in the Argus, not being in the bible account ;—and that account does not furnish the forces with any such horns, except these seven blown by the priests at the siege of Jericho.

☞ The Catholic Telegraph of Sept. 10, printed at Cincinnati, which was then threatened by the rebels, publishes a batch of bad news,—and then says :—"Nevertheless, our faith in the Union cause is not yet so much as staggered. It is told of Berkeley, that he tried his theory of artificial growth on a lad of 16, prematurely lifting him up in the neighborhood of eight feet, when unfortunately, the young giant "vamoosed" from this world! We look on all this sturdy, spasmodic expansion of the young giant of the South, as a grand Berkeley experiment in politics, which may likewise end in prematurely kicking the bucket."

☞ "Perley" telegraphs to the Boston Journal that it is understood that President Lincoln was induced to issue his Emancipation Proclamation through assurances that unless he did so, Jeff. Davis would forestall him, and that the sympathies of Europe would be with the section which first adopted this measure.

☞ A Coroner's Jury is now engaged in investigating the circumstances attending the fearful explosion and loss of life at the United States Arsenal at Pittsburg, Pa., on the 18th inst. From the evidence taken on Friday, it would appear that gross and criminal carelessness was exercised with relation to the manner in which powder was handled in and about the arsenal.

☞ At West Fairlee, Vt., a few nights since, a man named Wilson was treated to a ride on a "wooden horse," for expressing Secession sentiments. The next day he went to Bradford village to obtain legal redress, when the captain of a company of volunteers stationed there compelled him to cheer the American flag. The captain then ordered him to carry the flag all the afternoon, but he refused, and tore the flag and broke the flagstaff, whereupon the soldiers gave him another ride on a rail.

☞ The draft in New York will take place on the 10th of October. Volunteer regiments which have not reached the minimum number are to be consolidated immediately.

The draft takes place in Philadelphia on Thursday.

THE MERRIMACS.—While there is a trio of iron-clad steamers lying above Fortress Monroe, with steam always up, and crews on the qui vive for Merrimac No. 2, which is expected down from Richmond, Capt. Wells is preparing to raise Merrimac No. 1, which may possibly be used against the rebels. Divers report that her hull is sound, and that her engines were apparently uninjured by the fires kindled by the rebel crew when they left her. It is also proposed to raise the Cumberland, which is said to be but little injured.

☞ In Portland, on Tuesday, a portion of the Cumberland house and a stable 100 feet in length, were burnt. The local papers state that upon the building and stable there was an insurance of $2500 in the Rockingham Mutual—which it is believed will nearly cover the loss A tannery adjoining was much injured; $30 of the insurance upon it was paid by the Piscataqua office.

☞ Thanks to our old friend and "neighbor, over the way," from our counting-room, Mrs. Hodgdon,—for a plate of the most superb Bartlett pears we 'ever went anywhere.' They were six in number, as apparent from counting in the usual proxy way; but as each pear was a pear, and as large as a pair, usually—that makes twelve, doesn't it? At any rate we are thankful enough to make up for a dozen common pears.

OUR NEW TROOPS.—The Washington Republican understands that General McClellan's force which took the field to drive the rebels out of Maryland, contained originally 25,000 of the new levies to which additions may have been made. It is the universal report that the new regiments have fought admirably.

☞ The town of Chilmark, Martha's Vineyard, appropriated a bounty of $100 for recruits—fourteen being its quota. Seventeen men volunteered in a body, (three more than were required) and every one of them refused to take the bounty!

☞ The New York Herald states that among the wounded in the battles of last week, was Corporal Richards, Co. F, 2d Regiment, U. S. Sharpshooters.

MECHANIC AND INDUSTRIAL FAIR.—At the request of gentlemen interested in the Fair's success, the following explanations are given of several articles on exhibition.

MAP OF JEDDO.

Jeddo is the capital of Japan and is situated on the northern shore of the great bay or gulf of Jeddo, which is almost a square of about 25 miles on every side, and connected with the ocean by a strait nearly ten miles long by six wide. The city is said to be 17 miles long from east to west, by 13 wide from north to south. Some of the streets are ten miles in length. Mr. Harris, the American Minister, who has resided in Japan for five or six years, states that the Japanese estimate the population of the city at three millions, and he thinks, after the most careful inquiries he could make, that this is no exaggeration. The large circle nearly in the centre denotes the Imperial Citadel, which is a dozen miles in circuit, and surrounded by a deep moat and strong walls. The princes of the empire and their families reside in the citadel about half of the year, numbering with their servants above 60,000 souls. The places marked by a red color indicate temples and temple grounds, which are almost innumerable. The white circle in the centre of the Imperial Citadel denotes the locality of the palaces of the emperor and his son, the successor to the throne. A full description of the city would make a respectable volume.

MARTYRS IN COCHIN CHIA.

These two pictures were painted by a native of Cochin China three or four years since, in the midst of the horrible scenes painted on the canvass. The artist was a convert of the Catholic missionaries, who, when they were driven from the country by persecution, escaped to Hong Kong in China, taking their convert and his pictures along with them, and here it was obtained. Cochin China is said by the European Catholic missionaries who have long resided there, to contain a population of twenty-seven million souls. The first Catholic mission was established in 1615, five years before the arrival of the Pilgrims at Plymouth. According to the statements of the missionaries, their success has been most signal, as they claimed five hundred and thirty thousand living converts a few years since. A violent persecution commenced about thirty years ago, which raged till the last year, when the French, who had invaded the country, compelled the Cochin Chinese to make a treaty by which liberty was secured to both the Catholic missionaries and their convets. Five French and Spanish bishops were beheaded, with many European priests and native priests and converts without number, while others were sent into exile, and others still fled to the forests and caves, and lived in the dens of tigers and bears. The picture represents the scenes of their arrest in these retreats, their march through the country under soldiers and officers, the scenery of the country, the trial of the converts before the judges, the execution, and the great princes and mandarins mounted on elephants and gazing with the poptace upon the scene. The form, stature and dress of the Cochin Chinese are given to the life.

YEH, GOVERNOR GENERAL OF CANTON.

This portrait was painted by a Canton-ese artist who had often seen Yeh, and is said by all the Chinese to be remarkably true. Yeh was Governor General of Canton for several years, when the rebellion broke out and raged around Canton.—When the rebels were taken prisoners, they were immediately hurried to Canton and put to death, the most by beheading, but some by crucifixion, and others by being cut in pieces alive, and some by other tortures still. It is computed that he put to death in Canton one hundred thousand individuals. Indeed Mr. Endicott, a native of Salem, Mass., who has resided above twenty years in Canton and Macao, and who had often witnessed the executions, told the writer of this note that he was convinced they were nearer two hundred thousand! Sometimes 500 were marched to the execution ground in a body, when they were made to kneel in rows, the executioners, with drawn swords, standing at the end, and the mandarin in front, and at a signal given by him the work of death commenced, a head falling at every strike. The writer of this note succeeded in finding the execution ground in a lane in the outskirts of the city, where the clotted blood was so thick in the grass, which was nourished by it, that he dared not tread upon it. Yeh was taken prisoner by the French and English when they captured Canton, and carried to Calcutta, where he died in 1859, and his body was carried back to Canton for interment at the end of that year.

☞ The time to acknowledge the Confederacy, if at all, was when Anderson pulled down the flag of Fort Sumter. That time has gone by forever!

The hoop-skirt was one of the Empress Eugenie's caprices, and a most beneficial one, too. It has furnished employment to thousands and thousands, enjoyment to millions and millions, and inconvenience to billions and billions.—Boston Post.

DR. BATCHELDER'S CASE.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

The imprisonment of Dr. Nath'l Batchelder of Epping, by the United States Marshal, on charge of discouraging enlistments, &c., has been noticed in the newspapers.—We give below an important decision of Chief Justice Bell, affecting his case, and of much interest to the public:

On the eighth day of September, Dr. Batchelder applied to the Hon. Samuel D. Bell, Chief Justice of New Hampshire, for the writ of habeas corpus. His petition sets forth that he was unlawfully imprisoned on the 29th day of August, and is still detained at Fort Constitution, by Jacob H. Ela, Esq., that he had applied to Mr. Ela for a copy of the warrant upon which he was arrested, and had received the following and none other:

To the United States Marshal for the Distrct of New Hampshire:

You are hereby directed to arrest and imprison Nathaniel Batchelder of Epping, in our county of Rockingham, Physician, evidence having been offered to me of repeated violations by him of the Order of the War Department of the United States, dated August eighth, A. D. 1862, signed Edwin M. Stanton Secretary of War, in regard to "persons who are engaged in discouraging volunteer enlistments or in any way giving aid and comfort to the enemy."

Witness my hand and seal this 28th day of August, A. D. 1862. N. S. BERRY, [L.S.] Governor and Commander-in-Chief of N. H. Volunteers.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Epping, certify that Dr. Nathaniel Batchelder of Epping, is a person who is discouraging enlistments in the service of the United States.

That about one year ago he paraded a company of about twenty through the streets of this village, and that he made a speech in which he publicly stated in a loud voice that he had rather live under the administration of Jeff. Davis than under Abe Lincoln; that Jeff Davis could not be put down, and that he was bound to succeed. He also at the same time uttered a great deal of abuse against the Government of the United States, its officers and all those who are engaged in sustaining the Government and enforcing the Laws, and that he and his company thereupon gave three cheers for Jeff. Davis, marched through the streets, and passing near the Post Office, over the door of which there was a United States flag, one of the company discharged a musket at the flag. They afterwards marched to the Post-Office again, tore down the flag and carried it away.

That since that time on many occasions he has expressed sentiments inimical to our Government, and in favor of the success of Jeff. Davis, and the Confederate States. That he has publicly exulted over the success of the forces of the rebels, and the adversity of our own people; and that to a class of people who are not in the habit of reading the papers, he has perverted our success into defeats, thus causing them to believe that we were generally unsuccessful in our enterprises, and discouraging them from enlisting.

The he has been thus continually acting and doing from the breaking out of the rebellion to the present time. That at a recent meeting of the inhabitants of said town, for the purpose of encouraging voluntary enlistments in the present war, he was present and made a speech, saying among other things, that three-fourths of these volunteers would be killed and go to Hell, that they did not go from patriotic motives, but for money, that they had always been whipped, and in his opinion they always would be, and that no support would be rendered to the families of any of those volunteering, by the town, and many other things of a like character. And we sincerely believe that the peace of the community would be promoted and the public service benefitted by his arrest and detention.

MERRIMACK SS. August 28, 1862.—Personally appeared Daniel Dow, Jr., one of the above-named signers to the above certificate, and made oath that the matters and therein stated is in his belief true. Before me,

B. F. PARSONS, Justice Peace.

Whereupon the prisoner prayed that the lawfulness of his imprisonment might be inquired into and that he might be discharged.

The writ of habeas corpus was promptly granted by Judge Bell, and was served on Mr. Ela on the ninth of September. On the 17th, no return having been made, Dr. Batchelder filed with the Chief Justice a motion for an attachment against Mr. Ela, to compel obedience to the writ. He accompanied this motion with an affidavit, stating that he was still in confinement at the fort, that his practice as a physician and other business is suffering by his imprisonment, and that his health has become seriously impaired by the confinement and exposure to the chilling winds of the ocean, to which he has not been accustomed. He further declared that the charges contained in the paper signed by G. G. Durgin and others, are wholly false, that he has not discouraged enlistments, nor been guilty of any disloyal practice against the State or the United States, nor of any offence except the free expression of his opinions on political subjects.

On the nineteenth of September, before any action had been taken by Judge Bell upon this motion, Mr. Ela appeared at Manchester, with Hon. Daniel Clark as his counsellor, to make return of the writ. Albert R. Hatch, Esq., of Portsmouth, being present in behalf of the petitioner, Mr. Ela offered a return, setting forth, in substance, that immediately after the service of the writ upon him, he consulted the Secretary of war, at Washington, and that he had received the following directions:

Judge Advocate General's Office,
September 13th, 1862.

Hon. Jacob H. Ela, United States Marshal, Rochester, N. H. Sir:—

Your telegram to the Secretary of War, under date of the 10th inst, relative to the writ of habeas corpus issued in the case of Nathaniel Batchelder, arrested for disloyal practices, has been referred to this office for reply.

The Secretary of War directs me to inform you that, by an order issued under the authority of the President of the United States, a printed copy of which is enclosed, the writ of habeas corpus has been suspended in all cases of arrests for "disloyal practices," to which class of offences that of Nathaniel Batchelder manifestly belongs. The Secretary instructs me to say, that to the writ of habeas corpus issued by Chief Justice Pell (Bell) you should return these facts as your warrant for holding the prisoner in custody. Should any attempt be made, after the return, to release the prisonor by the civil authority, which is not anticipated, the Secretary directs that you appeal for support and protection in the discharge of your duties, to the military force of the United States in your vicinity. Very respectfully,

Your obedieut servant, J. HOLT,
Judge Advocate General.

The return also set forth the order of the Secretary of War, dated August 8th, 1862, which prohibits citizens liable to be drafted from travelling, and directs the arrest of such as attempt it, and declares that "the writ of habeas corpus is hereby suspended in respect to all persons so arrested and detained, and in respect to all persons arrested for disloyal practices."

To this return, Mr. Ela added the order of the Secretary of War, dated August 8th, 1862 which directs all United States Marshals, and Superintendents or Chiefs of Police, in any town, city, or district, to arrest persons "who may be engaged by act, speech or writing in discouraging volunteer enlistments, or in any way giving aid and comfort to the enemy, or in any other disloyal practice against the United States." He also added a copy of the statement of G. G. Durgin and others, above recited, and of an order of L. C. Turner, Judge Advocate, dated Sept. 3, directing Mr. Ela, to "keep said Batchelder in custody at Fort Constitution till further orders."

In the return Mr. Ela took no notice of the warrant of Gov. Berry, and his counsel evidently did not consider it as of any validity.

Upon the reading of the return, Mr. Hatch renewed the motion for an attachment against the Marshal, insisting that the return is insufficient and evasive, because it does not submit the case to the determination of the Judge, and because the prisoner was not personally brought up, according to the statute and the command of the writ.

After argument by counsel, the Chief Justice said that it seemed to him inexpedient, and useless to the prisoner, to issue an order for an attachment which could not be enforced; that the Government of the United States had plainly expressed their determination to resist by force any attempt of the civil authority to deliver the prisoner and that he received this not as a threat, but as the announcement of a settled resolution, which, with the vast armies under their control, they had the ability to execute against any power which the State can command for the enforcement of the law. He therefore declined to take further action in the case.

Thus the Judiciary of New Hampshire yields to the threat of an armed power, and the State, for the first time since the formation of the Constitution, finds herself unable to protect the lawful rights and liberties of her citizens!

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest!

The Best!

The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

☞ Mr. John H. Moran of this city, has three sons in the Union army; and a fourth has served his time out. If they are all as good shots as the father, rebeldom must have suffered some from them. Mr. M. has also a brother in the service, who volunteered, according to promise, as soon as he knew that his nephew and namesake,—one of the above young men,—had been wounded in battle. Mr. J. H. Moran has been presented, by the partner of his joys, (if we recollect aright the census report of last year,) with a baker's dozen of responsibilities—a family as large, we believe, if not larger, than any other in this city. He is at present Chief Engineer of our Portsmouth Fire Department; and employed in the machinists' division of our Navy Yard; and we know would not be loth to serve Uncle Sam in a more warlike capacity—but we think his better-half urges with some reason, that they have furnished their quota, and that somebody must take care of things at home.

Though emphatically one of the City fathers, and so no longer to be counted among the b'hoys; yet "his eye is not dimmed, nor his natural strength abated," and he is no doubt yet a "dead shot," and good for a bag of rebels

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE!

A Sure Relief for the Sufferer!

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 16th century by Dr. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James' army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day; and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor. The Salve is used for the following diseases:—Burns, Bruises, Felons, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Boils Scurvy, Sore Lips, Sore Ears, Swelled Nose, Ulcers, Lame Joints, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Ringworms, Sprains, Flesh Wounds, Erysipelas, Scalds, Stings of Venomous Insects, Piles, Bunions, Frozen Limbs, Nettle Rash, Sore Breast, Wens, Eruptions, Festers, Shingles, Cancers, Whitlows, Itch, Stiles, Lame Wrist, and Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature, without leaving a scar. It will also cure pimples on the face, and beautify the skin.

There are thousands who are suffering for months and even years in consequence of Sores and wounds that might be cured in a short time by the use of this great external salve. It has never failed to effect a speedy cure when properly applied. This Salve has none of the irritating heating properties of other remedies, but cools coolness and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand, for it will save them trouble, suffering and money; and in many cases it has saved life itself. The manufacturer receives testimonials daily, from some of our most distinguished citizens, expressing benefits derived from its use. This Salve is warranted to give perfect satisfaction in every disease that it proposes to cure; if not, the money will be refunded.

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal. No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen yearsago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain; and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, which he prepared, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since.

CAROLINE B. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.

SIMEON SWETT.

Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.

HANNAH ROWE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomiting all of my food immediately after taking it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. E. LOVD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1858. Dr. Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."

WM. P. LEAVITT.

From Elder I. Chesley, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA AND HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I consider your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may28o

THE GREAT PINE.*

BY GEORGE OSGOOD.

The lofty tree, whose trunk is torn,
Whose giant limbs are rent away,
Rears grandly against the sky of morn,
As glow the clouds with coming day.

Its shadow stretches down the vale,
Where flocks o'er-track the early dew,
Its leaves wave in the gentle gale,
That comes from yonder mountains blue.

The Indian, last of all his race,
Who mourns o'er chiefs and warriors gone,
May move with slow and silent pace,
And weep that he is all alone!

And could'st thou make, thou aged tree,
On all the changes of the past,
While watching over land and sea,
In summer's heat or winter's blast,—

Thou too would'st muse and weep like him,
In all his loneliness and grief,
Whose limbs are old, whose eye is dim,
The last and noblest woodland chief!

Of all the trees on hill and plain,
Which saw thee lift thy sapling head,
No old and mossy forms remain,
For all are lying with the dead.

The shade-trees by the mansion gray,
The orchards on the gentle hill,
Arose and bloomed and passed away,
Yet thy tall head is waving still.

The dusky banter of the wild
Has often rested in thy shade,
While on his manly form has smiled
His forest flower, his dark-eyed maid.

The †slave who bask'd beneath the palm,
In his far home across the brine,
Has often, in the noon-tide calm,
Sat at thy feet, thou ancient pine.

The ‡fisher, rocking on the sea,
Amid the billows' swell and foam,
Would turn with earnest eye to thee,
The landmark that could guide him home.

The §Pastor more than fifty years
His people watched with care and love,
And blessed them, in their joys and fears,
With hopes of happier lives above:

And when his faithful hand, no more
Could guide them on, from day to day,
Thy form, which watched the landscape o'er,
Might point for them the heavenly way.

The ‖Soldier, through his years of war,
Where'er his changing course might be,
In field, or march, or camp, afar,
Oft turned his thoughts to home and thee.

He knew, that when the strife should close,
His feet, again would seek thy shade,
Again, his weary limbs repose,
In scenes, where he in childhood played.

When spring-gales thro' thy branches blew,
Thy fair and tender buds were seen;
Thy summer leaves of deeper hue,
Waved darkly o'er the hill-side green.

How glorious seemed thy ice-clad form,
When radiant with the sunset's glow,
How gloomy, when the raging storm
O'er swept the hills of drifted snow.

At last, there came the day of doom,
To bow thy proud and lofty crest,
When hung the gathering clouds of gloom,
Where often shone the purple west.

Like chief in front of battle line,
Amid the clouds of smoke and flame
Arose thy head, thou brave old pine,
E'en when the fatal death shot came.

Tho' lightnings twice thy trunk have torn,
Though thy high crest is brown and dry,
Yet rising in the sky of morn,
Thy form shall glad and cheer the eye.

* On the western slope of a hill in Kensington, N. H. and about 100 rods easterly from the Union meeting-house, stands the noble and massive trunk of a gigantic old pine, dating far back beyond the white man's advent here. On a late visit to the spot, the writer of this note admired the majestic old tree, and obtained a copy of this poem for publication.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and tea-urn heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pindar, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE,
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

MATHEWS'
VENETIAN LIQUID
HAIR DYE.

☞ MATHEWS' VENETIAN HAIR DYE.—This celebrated Dye was first prepared in 1845; since that time it has been used by THOUSANDS and in no instance has it failed to give PERFECT SATISFACTION.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is ONLY FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains DOUBLE THE QUANTITY OF DYE, contained in those usually sold for ONE DOLLAR.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the safest composition of its class. It is WARRANTED NOT TO INJURE the hair, or the scalp, in the least.

THE VENETIAN DYE works with RAPIDITY AND CERTAINTY. It causes no annoyance or trouble to those who use it.

THE VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired,—one that will not fade, crock, nor wash out,—one that is as permanent as the hair itself.

THE VENETIAN DYE does not, in any manner, interfere with the NATURAL SOFTNESS OF THE HAIR,—it neither scorches nor dries it.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the best, cheapest, safest, most convenient, most successful, and most permanent Dye ever used.

Daily Morning Chronicle

VOL. 21. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. FRIDAY, SEPT. 26, 1862. NO. 49.

The Chronicle.

"Government is actually trusting Gen. Pope with artillery, cavalry and infantry again—four regiments and a battery. 'No bases of supplies' or 'lines of retreat' were included."—Boston Post.

Gen. Pope was brought from the West, (on whose suggestion we know not,) and placed in command over Gen. McDowell, Banks and Fremont. The latter named, knowing Pope to be a bitter personal enemy as well as an inferior officer, declined to serve under him. Banks being wounded, has been doing duty near Washington, and McDowell has now no command.

Pope has some good qualities as a fighter, and it is hoped he may be useful at the West. It will hardly do for us to throw away every General who has been defeated, or who has had to retreat with great loss. If we did, we must decapitate almost all,—excepting Fremont who was superseded on the eve of a battle in which he might have been defeated, and whose army was retreated at once by his successor,—but not excepting those with the largest commands. The case of Gen. McClellan is exactly in point. After great reverses in the Peninsula, and the retreat of our large army from that quarter, he was trusted with another large army in Maryland, partly his old command, and has been successful in causing the rebels to retreat into Virginia again.

His soldiers, at least a portion of them, were gratified with his resuming command,—and the results as justified their confidence, and benefitted him and the country.

Nothing is more foolish, more suicidal, than causeless disparagement of officers,—unless it be bickering and jealousy of the officers among themselves.

We need all our generals, and all our soldiers, in the field this Fall,—to reinforce every command, strengthen every post, and push forward every expedition strong handed.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made no less rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

Louisville is considered safe. On the 21st, three regiments under McCook drove 8000 rebel cavalry out of Munfordsville without any Federal loss. The rebels lost a Colonel and Lieut. Colonel. Gen. Buell arrived at Louisville on Wednesday. Gen. Nelson issued an order permitting a general resumption of business on Thursday, the issuing of passes to loyal citizens, and the discharge of all enrolled citizens from military duty. Our forces had slight skirmishes all along the road, capturing 1500 rebels and 24 wagon loads of provisions. The enemy seem to be concentrating at Bloomfield. About 12,000 of them were seen on Wednesday morning beyond Salt river, on the Bardstown creek.

A fight took place on the 20th inst. at Shirley's Point, ten miles northwest of Carthage, between an Indiana regiment and a force of 6000 rebels. The enemy were put to flight with an estimated loss of sixty killed.

A reconnoissance was made on Saturday evening as far as Ashby's Gap by Col. R. B. Price with a brigade of cavalry and two pieces of artillery. A force of the rebels were met and defeated with a loss of one man. The rebel loss was four killed and several wounded.

The rebels are reported to have concentrated their forces at Winchester, which place they are fortifying. Much of their cavalry is in the vicinity of Richmond.—Refugees state that great apprehensions of a famine prevail among the lower classes in Richmond, the price of provisions already being so high as almost to place them beyond their reach.

A letter from Sharpsburg to the Philadelphia Inquirer says: "It has been semi-officially stated that our loss in the battle of Antietam was 9220 in killed, wounded and missing; and the loss of the enemy, judging from the appearance of the battle-field, must have exceeded 15,000."

A surgeon who was taken prisoner, but has been released, states that one of Gen. Pope's officers was deliberately shot at Richmond, and is reported to have died of congestion of the brain. Between 3000 and 4000 rebel soldiers were under guard upon charge of attempted desertion.

A Cincinnati dispatch to the N. Y. Herald says Gen. Morgan has not evacuated Cumberland Gap. He is amply provisioned for two months, and will hold out to the last.

Surgeon Gen. Hammond, recently from the Bull Run battle field, reports that our people have buried 3000 rebels, left on the field, although the rebels held the field after the late bloody engagement. 600 more rebel corpses were yet to be buried. As the rebels undoubtedly buried many others before leaving for their brief campaign in Maryland, there can be little doubt that the number of their killed in that battle far exceeded ours.

MARTIAL LAW FOR SEMI-TRAITORS. On Wednesday, Sept. 24, President Lincoln issued a Proclamation, in which he states that some "disloyal persons are not adequately restrained by the ordinary processes of law from hindering" enlistments and drafts, and from giving aid and comfort in various ways to the insurrection, and, therefore, he orders:—

"1st, That during the existing rebellion and as a necessary measure for suppressing the same, all rebels and insurgents, their aiders and abettors within the United States, and all persons discouraging volunteer enlistments, resisting militia drafts, or guilty of any disloyal practice affording aid and comfort to the rebels against the authority of the United States, shall be subject to martial law, and liable to trial and punishment by courts martial or military commission.

"2d. That the writ of habeas corpus is suspended in respect to all persons arrested, or who are now or hereafter during the rebellion shall be imprisoned in any fort, camp, arsenal, military prison or other place of confinement, by any military authority, or by the sentence of any court martial or military commission."

There is said to be considerable activity among officers in the army and navy, who are about to test legally the question whether the Secretary of War, or the Secretary of the Navy, or indeed the President himself, has the power to dismiss officers from the service without resorting to a court martial. The court martial is called the soldiers' habeas corpus, and it is argued that its suspension in recent cases is unparalleled and unlawful.—Boston Journal.

In Gen. Jackson's day, when he sat in the White House, word was brought to him that a certain lieutenant in the army had been engaged in a duel. Strike his name from the roll of the army, said Jackson—and it was done.

☞ It is stated that the lady of the house in Hagerstown where Gen. Lee and his staff had their headquarters, said she heard Lee instruct his officers to see that no depredations were committed by the soldiers while in Maryland, but when they entered Pennsylvania they might destroy and pillage everything on their route.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— James Derby, of Exeter, has invented a vessel to be propelled by water pressure, and has applied for a patent for the principle on which it is constructed. A model steamer has recently been put into one of the circular ponds in front of Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Mass. It moves along as steadily as a clock, and makes a circle of sixty-nine feet regularly, every three-quarters of a minute. The visitors to see this new invention are numerous.

—— On the passage of the U. S. steamer Delaware from Key West, Almos N. Woods, of the 7th New Hampshire regiment, died of dysentery, Sept. 6. He was on his way home from the Tortugas. His body was buried within the rebel fort at Otter creek, Gen. Terry reading the service over his grave. Deceased was but 17 years of age. From Port Royal we learn of the death of private Andrew J. Campbell, Co. H, 3d N. H., Sept. 7th; private Charles H. Brown, Co. G, same regiment, on the 8th; private David H. Ripley, Co. C, 7th N. H., on the 9th.

—— Corporal J. W. Lathe, of the 9th Regiment, writes that "that Regiment has done more fighting than all the other N. H. Regiments, except the 2d and 3th and 6th, and has covered itself with glory. It will be recollected that this Regiment had been in service only three weeks. In one engagement they rushed through a corn-field and up a hill under a hot fire of the rebels, and drove a whole brigade out of the woods. It was a horrible sight to see the rebels that covered the ground. We killed as much as ten to their one."

—— It is said that more than forty of the men in the 10th regiment were missing when it started for Washington. Some of them have since been arrested, among them one who enlisted at Derry, and who received the town bounty of three hundred dollars. It is said that he has enlisted in several regiments in this State and Massachusetts since the war commenced, running away from each as soon as he had received the bounties and advance pay.

—— The Manchester American says:—

"We stated a few days ago that the 4th Regiment was disbanded by order of the Governor and Council, on the condition that the General government would consent to the arrangement. We understand that the United States government will not agree to any such arrangement,—consequently the 4th "still lives."

—— The Manchester Mirror of Wednesday says:—

"Not for many years in the month of September, have the pastures been so dry and parched up, in this State, as now.—Ordinary brooks have ceased to run; flowed, wet meadows are passable as uplands; corn has ripened suddenly, and even now some farmers are cutting it, that they may turn their cows into the fields. Unless rain comes soon, hay and grain will have to be fed out to the cattle, sheep and horses, to keep them in good condition. Wells are giving out that have not failed before since they were made.

—— Previous to the departure of the Tenth New Hampshire Regiment from Manchester for the seat of war, horses were presented to the field officers by their friends; and pistols, etc., apparently to almost every commissioned officer in the regiment.

—— The Manchester Mirror says that Amos H. Gerry, of that city, has an apple tree that has blossomed four times this year, and produced fruit from three of its blossomings. Its last floral exhibition can now be seen, along with the matured fruit of the first.

—— Mr. Gardner Gilman, one of the most honorable, energetic and wealthy young men of Exeter, the Ballot says, left last week, went to Boston and enlisted in the Cadet regiment, for a nine months' campaign in rebeldom.

—— The 12th, 13th and 14th regiments are now in camp in Concord, full and nearly organized. Probably all will go in the course of next week.

—— George W. Everett, Major of the 9th Regiment, has resigned on account of ill-health, and Capt. J. W. Babbitt of Keene (Co. I) has been appointed in his place.

—— Of the company of about 100 men that left Exeter on the 12th inst., for the 13th regiment, about 30, after reaching Concord, were induced to go into old regiments.

—— No State bounties are paid to those who have enlisted into new regiments since August 31; nor to those enlisting into old regiments since Sept. 15.

—— Miss Mary C. Patten has in her garden at Kingston Plains, a dahlia plant more than nine feet high, on which are sixty flowers.

—— Among the promotions in the N. H. Battalion of Cavalry are J. L. Thompson, Lieut. Colonel, and S. R. Swett, Major.

—— The 12th regiment is to leave on Saturday.

THE REBELLION RECORD, published by G. P. Putnam, New York, has reached the 22d part. It is an admirable compendium of the events of the war, invaluable for reference. The present number is illustrated with the portraits of Gen. Heintzelman and Ben McCulloch.

For the Chronicle.

FREEDOM of action, says Uncle Toby, is the instinctive desire of every human being; and this is shown, even in infancy, when the child is offended at the refusal of a larger child to have his playthings taken away by the little one. As the child expands into youth and man, he learns from many conflicts, that no one human will can be fully carried out in action, because it is met by opposing wills, and counter actions.

If the man be wise, he will improve this learning by the reflection, that our Creator never designed the will of any one man to be the paramount law over all other men—and that true and rational freedom is not a lawless indulgence of one man's appetites, passions, and whims, regardless of the right of his neighbor to his share also, of life, liberty and happiness.

A disregard of these plain principles, led some tyrants to claim "the divine right of kings" to do what they pleased; and led their tools to say "the king can do wrong." On the other hand, a recognition of them by Mr. Jefferson, led him to adopt them in his preamble to the Declaration of Independence, and to predict that the system which made lords of the few and slaves of the many, would produce such men and such events as we see to-day.

Freedom of speech, also, though much indulged, yet has its limits of truth and propriety, prudence and safety—and it is sometimes wise to be silent. Uncle Toby is refreshed and edified by the supposition of some, that the rebellion and civil war came out of too great latitude of tongue and pen,—because he remembers well the gaglaws and the mobs, the mail robberies and the murders, in the vain effort to stifle speech and stop printing against slavery. He remembers who did these things, and what papers approved them. And he thinks it highly probable that if the words of Jefferson and Franklin could have been blotted out, if John Quincy Adams and Horace Mann could have been gagged—if the pulpits of the free states had been silenced, and their printing presses all burnt,—if A. Lincoln and S. A. Douglas had been sold into slavery at Charleston,—and if the people of the free States had submitted quietly,—then Breckinridge and Floyd, Jeff. Davis and Mason might have ruled after the most approved plantation fashion.

But the undertaking was too large—the enterprize was impossible: and the people of the free states, when fairly waked up, as now, are not likely to do without pulpits or presses or talkers, all in their proper places. But they can do without "the peculiar institution;" and though a large majority never before wished to destroy it, yet a very few only remain now, who would not rejoice over its fall.

MEETING OF GOVERNORS.—The Governors of nearly all the loyal States met at Altoona, Pa., on Wednesday, at noon, according to agreement. The Governors of the following States were present:—Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Iowa, Maine, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Ohio Maryland, New Hampshire, Virginia, Illinois, Indiana.

Kentucky, Missouri and Vermont were represented by proxy. Governor Ramsey of Minnesota, was unable to be present on account of the Indian war.

The greatest unanimity of feeling prevailed with regard to the President's proclamation, and an evident disposition was manifested to support him in all measures calculated to suppress the rebellion by making use of all the power under his control.

☞ There were more murders by the Sioux in the town of Richmond, Min., on Monday. The inhabitants are flying to St. Cloud, leaving the town to the ravages of the Indians. A message from Fort Abercrombie, Minn., received at St Cloud., on the 21st, reports the fort safe. The Indians have abandoned the siege. Forty or fifty Chippewa chiefs have offered their services to Governor Ramsey to fight the Sioux, but they were not accepted for the present.

☞ President Lincoln was serenaded Wednesday night, and on appearing on the balcony was enthusiastically cheered. He made a brief and modest speech and retired amidst the hurrahs of the crowd. Secretary Chase was also honored by a similar visit, and made an address, warmly supporting the recent proclamation of the President.—Cassius M. Clay and Gen. Bates were called out and spoke briefly.

☞ The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that but one license is required for a person who practices medicine, surgery; and dentistry also that ship building is not a manufacture, nor liable to taxation as such, most of the materials being the results of previous processes, are assessed as manufactures.

☞ The great meeting of the Governors of the loyal States, at Altoona, was called by Gov. Tod, of Ohio, a loyal democrat,—"to take measures for the more active support of the Government."

☞ Judge Black, ex-U. S. Attorney General, had his pocket picked of $3000, one day last week, while journeying from Washington to Philadelphia.

☞ The Republican State Convention of Michigan, nominated the present State officers for re-election, excepting the Lieut. Governor, Auditor and Attorney General. Parson Brownlow addressed the convention. The State Fair is being held at Detroit, and promises to be more than usually successful. Parson Brownlow is to deliver the annual address.

☞ The New Era, published at Key West, states that the mortality from yellow fever among the troops stationed there is fearful, nearly one-fifth of the New York 9th regiment having died.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest!

The Best!

The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

"The Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE!

A Sure Relief for the Sufferer!

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 16th century by Dr. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James' army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day; and was regarded by all who knew him as little short of a miracle. The Salve is used for the following diseases:—Burns, Bruises, Felons, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Boils Scurvy, Sore Lips, Sore Ears, Swelled Nose, Ulcers, Lame Joints, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Ringworms, Sprains, Fresh Wounds, Erysipelas, Scalds, Stings of Venomous Insects, Piles, Bunions, Frozen Limbs, Nettle Rash, Sore Breast, Wens, Eruptions, Festers, Shingles, Cancers, Whitlows, Itch, Stiles, Lame Wrist, and Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature, without leaving a scar. It will also cure pimples on the face, and beautify the Skin.

There are thousands who are suffering for months and even years in consequence of Sores and wounds that might be cured in a short time by the use of this great external salve. It has never failed to effect a speedy cure when properly applied. This Salve has none of the irritating heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand, for it will save them trouble, suffering and money; and in many cases it has saved life itself. The manufacturer receives testimonials daily, from some of our most distinguished citizens, expressing benefits derived from its use. This Salve is warranted to give perfect satisfaction in every disease that it professes to cure; if not, the money will be refunded.

M. S. Burr & Co., 26 Tremont street, Boston, wholesale agents. All orders addressed to this firm or the manufacturer, will receive prompt attention.

☞ Among the contributions at the Fair in Jefferson Hall, Rev. Messrs. Gage, Barstow and Wood have a number of rare paintings and engravings; and there are beauties, curiosities and monstrosities sufficient to delight almost anybody for hours. The show of flowers alone is well worth going to see; and the ladies say there has never been an exhibition of their fancy work in the State, equal to this. At all events, this is the best and only Fair we shall have in the County this year; and it becomes all who would encourage such commendable enterprises, to aid as best they can—and at least to visit it.

About sixty premiums and diplomas were awarded, by a committee of three gentlemen, on Thursday afternoon, for various articles exhibited at the Fair.

☞ In Board of Aldermen, Thursday evening, the committee appointed to go to Washington, with supplies for the volunteers, presented their report, which was accepted and referred to the Mayor.

Mr. Wm. S. Gallagher applied for authority to recruit volunteers for nine months. Ref. to Mayor.

Permission was granted to place a gaslight at corner of Water and Jefferson sts.

Report was made that the Aqueduct Co. would introduce water into the enginehouses, at $3 per year for each engine.

The Blacksmith shops on what was formerly Rindge's Wharf, at the North End, have been taken down and the dock is being filled by means of a gravel train, out to an abutment walk, outside of which piles are to be driven. The operations seem to be on an extensive scale, and it is stated that much business will be done on this wharf in unlading vessels whose cargoes are destined for the interior. The name of the wharf has been changed to "Railroad Wharf." The stone for the abutment walls is brought from a quarry two miles above Concord.—Ballot.

☞ Among the reported wounded in the battle of Antietam, was Mr. Daniel J. Vaughan, of this city, Co. C, 57th New York Regiment,—in the upper jaw.

Mr. Robert Henderson, son of George Henderson, Esq., a member of the Boston Artillery, is also reported to have been wounded in the thigh, in one of the recent battles.

GOOD FOR GOSFORT.—We learn from the Assessor who made an official visit a few days ago to Star Island, that the applicants were not only ready for their licenses, but drew their wallets and paid the amounts on the spot, and had more left. He also found the people loyal and patriotic, and was informed that should a rebel dare invade Star Island, they would take him for fish-bait.—Ballot.

☞ Lt. Stillman, U. S. Marine Corps, who has recently been stationed at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, has been ordered to the U. S. steam frigate Colorado.

Lt. Stoddard, U. S. Marine Corps, has reported for duty at the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

☞ Capt. Betton's company of volunteers,—Co. K, of the 13th regiment,—returned to this city from Concord on Thursday evening, on a furlough extending until Monday evening next.

☞ It will be seen by the advertisement that Mr. Stephen Hull will give a series of Assemblies at Union Hall, commencing on Monday evening next. Music by Lamprey & Haines's excellent quadrille band. Tickets only 50 cents.

☞ The big reservoir at the Navy Yard has been excavated eighteen feet from solid ledge. It is to be built capable of holding 140,000 gallons of water.

☞ Mr. Frank F. Hastings, of this city, has been appointed Acting Assistant Paymaster in the United States Navy.

☞ San Francisco dispatches of the 23d inst. state that the steamer Pacific has arrived from Oregon with $8400 in gold.—The mountain ranges in the upper country of that State are said to be as rich in the deposits of the precious metal as any place yet discovered north of California.—A sword worth $2000 is to be presented to Gen. Hooker.

☞ The New York Republican Convention nominated James S. Wadsworth for Governor on the first ballot. L. Tremain is nominated for Lieut. Governor, and Oliver Valdue for Canal Commissioner.

☞ A Washington dispatch states that in all cases of the infraction of the law against the use of postage stamps as currency, coming to the knowledge of the Post Office Department, the parties will be prosecuted, as it is a grave offence. This, of course, does not refer to the special designed stamp currency.

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace-heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above.

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is

THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

RYE, N. H., Feb. 28, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by eating, which he prepared, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since.

CAROLINE B. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.

SIMEON SWETT.

Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.

HANNAH ROWE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1838. Dr. Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."

WM. P. LEAVITT.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I cheerfully recommend one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

Morning Chronicle.

AN OUTRAGEOUS LIAR.—Gen. Tilghman, recently released from imprisonment at Fort Warren by exchange, is now at Jackson, Miss. He addressed the citizens of that place, and, according to a correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch, stated that at Fort Warren, Gen. Buckner and himself were thrown into a dungeon thirty feet under the ground, and for four months and a half were excluded from the light of day, and not permitted to change a word with any living soul.

☞ When Baton Rouge was first settled, there was growing on the spot a cypress tree, the bark of which is of a red color, of immense size and prodigious height, entirely free from branches, except at its very top. One of the settlers playfully remarked this tree would make a very handsome cane, whence the place has since been called Baton Rouge—that is, "the red staff or cane."

☞ A Paris letter says a gentleman just returned from a tour up and down the Rhine, having halted a week at the pleasant university town of Bonn, found there a solitary American student, belonging to the aristocratic Poindexters of Carolina. Like many of his fellow knightserrant in Europe, he was guiltless of funds, but his celebrity as a duellist had induced the student-corps to which he belonged to maintain him.

☞ Gen. Hooker is reported to have said, when he was wounded, last Wednesday, that he would rather have been shot in the head at the close of the battle, than in the foot at that time. Just like him, whether he said it or not.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior, broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pindar, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE,

MATHEWS'
VENETIAN LIQUID
HAIR DYE.
☞ MATHEWS' VENETIAN HAIR DYE.—This celebrated Dye was first prepared in 1846; since that time it has been USED BY THOUSANDS and in no instance has it failed to give PERFECT SATISFACTION.
THE VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is ONLY FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains DOUBLE THE QUANTITY OF DYE, contained in those usually sold for ONE DOLLAR.
THE VENETIAN DYE is the safest composition of its class. It is WARRANTED NOT TO INJURE the hair, or the scalp, in the least.
THE VENETIAN DYE works with RAPIDITY AND CERTAINTY. It causes no annoyance or trouble to those who use it.
THE VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired,—one that will not fade, crock, nor wash out,—one that is as permanent as the hair itself.
THE VENETIAN DYE does not, in any manner, interfere with the NATURAL softness OF THE HAIR,—it neither scorches nor dries it.
THE VENETIAN DYE is the best, cheapest, safest, most convenient, most successful, and most permanent Dye ever used.
SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Daily Morning Chronicle

VOL. 21. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. SATURDAY, SEPT. 27, 1862. NO. 50

The Chronicle.

☞ A piece of blue granite, three-eighths by one-eighth of an inch in circumference, and about a quarter of an inch in thickness, has been removed from the eye of Pascal P. James of Northampton, Mass. Mr. James is a stone-cutter, and has carried the fragment in his eye for fifteen years. The wound was never probed, and the orifice where the stone entered had healed.

☞ Professor Wyss, of Zurich, has discovered an interesting old manuscript, a Zurich chronicle of the fifteenth century, which contains an exact description of the battle of Sempach. The document confirms the patriotic deed of Winkelried, the truth of which has lately several times been questioned. As this is the oldest record known on the subject, its statements are of historical value.

A young lady in one of our "rural districts," was once escorted home from an evening party by a young man to whom she was not particularly partial. On taking his leave he remarked: "I guess I'll come and see you again, next Sunday night." "Well, Bill Smith," replied the lady, "you can come as a friend but not as a feller." Bill didn't go either way.

A new machine for propelling vessels, differing from the screw and side-wheel, has been invented by Mr. James S. Townsend of Newburyport, which in theory is superior to the machinery now in use, and if practically it shall prove so, will be a valuable invention. The idea of the machine is borrowed from the first principles of navigation, the propulsion coming precisely as it is obtained from rowing.—Herald.

☞ By the Army Register, for September, 1862, just published, it appears that our regular army consists now of nearly 40,000 men. There were, until 1861, ten regiments of infantry, one of mounted riflemen, two of dragoons, two of cavalry, and four of artillery, making, all told, some 20,000 men.

☞ When Mr. Whiteside finished his five hours' oration on Kars, Lord Palmerston replied that the honorable gentleman's speech was highly creditable to his physical powers.

☞ An autograph of Moliere was recently sold in Paris for $100.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1857.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but there is no other one in the country advantageous for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on which he has obtained Patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all who prefer to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

It is evident that the rebels have not left the line of the upper Potomac, but are injuriously operating on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, between Harper's Ferry and Cumberland. They recently, it is believed, destroyed some of the important bridges west of Martinsburg, including that over Black river.

The armies of Buell and Bragg left Lebanon, Tenn., and Carthage respectively on the 21st, Buell following the arc and Bragg the chord of a circle. Our army traveled 361 and Bragg's 206 miles. Buell got into Northern Kentucky one day ahead of Bragg, notwithstanding the immense excess of our transportation over that of the enemy.

It is rumored that the President will at once call for an additional draft to increase our army to one million.

Though successful in dispersing the cavalry guard recently holding Ashby's Gap, Col. R. B. Price, of the 2nd Penn. cavalry, failed to accomplish the main object of the expedition, the destruction of the wagons of Lee's army, known to have been at the time three miles beyond the Gap.

The N. Y. Herald has extracts from rebel journals relative to the late battles.—The Richmond Enquirer claims the battle of Antietam as a great rebel victory. It was directed by Gen. Lee in person, with 60,000 men in his command. It is admitted that our artillery was used with fearful effect, and that upon the whole the battle was the most severe of the entire campaign. Two rebel Generals were killed—Stark of Mississippi, A. Branch of North Carolina, and six others were wounded.

The Petersburg Express makes the significant admission that all hopes of Maryland uniting her destinies with the South must now be banished. The experiment to rouse her people to follow the fortunes of the rebel army is proclaimed to have been a dead failure.

Able army officers estimate our loss in the battle of Antietam at 1200 killed and 6000 wounded, and the rebel loss at 5000 killed and 15,000 wounded. All our wounded are being brought away, and all our dead buried. Seven standards and 20,000 to 30,000 stand of small arms fell into our hands.

☞ Parley telegraphs from Washington as follows, under date of Sept. 26th;—

A Committee of the Governors from the Convention held at Altoona, Pa., will wait upon the President to-day, and present an address, which, it is understood, was adopted exactly as drafted by Gov. Andrew, and signed by all present except Gov. Bradford, of Maryland.

The pretended reports of this important meeting that have been published, are pronounced false by those who participated in it, especially the assertion that the merits of Gen. McClellan or Gen. Fremont were discussed. The meeting is believed to have been harmonious. Gov. Tod, of Ohio, presided.

A Washington dispatch of Friday afternoon states that the Governors had an official interview with the President at noon, and presented their address. It expresses a determination, under all circumstances, to support and maintain the President's Constitutional authority; pledges their aid in all measures to crush the rebellion; congratulates him upon the emancipation proclamation, and refers to the movements of the soldiers who have fought our battles.

☞ There is no law against the use of postage stamps as a currency,—but there is a law against using defaced stamps,—whether chemically restored or otherwise. Postage stamps are a currency, and will be so, until the new stamps come along in quantity; and they will be good after that, as they have been ever since they were made.

☞ A dispatch from Harrisburg says that Gov. Curtin of Pennsylvania, has arrived at that place and proceeded immediately to Washington, where there is to be another meeting of the Governors.

☞ The Press states that a little girl in Portland, fell while running, and her slate pencil which she had in her dress pocket, penetrated her clothing, and about two inches of the pencil passed into her left side. She was not seriously injured.

☞ Gov. Stanley having transacted his official business, will immediately return to North Carolina. It is understood that the relations between himself and the Government are entirely harmonious.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says that the gas company in that city, will not only pay the government tax without increasing their rates, but will probably reduce their price to $3.50, or a shade below.

☞ Washington letters speak of an accumulation of siege guns and light artillery, such as had not been seen before in the Union armies.

Thomas Carlyle lately made the following characteristic utterance with reference to the American war:—"It is," said he, "the dirtiest chimney that's been afire this century, and the best way is to let it burn itself out."

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Royal Commission—Abraham Corbett.—The government of Massachusetts were continually making encroachments, not only by extending their jurisdiction, but by granting lands within the boundaries of New Hampshire. Mason and his heirs complained of this conduct, and Robert Mason made a representation of it to the King, who, in 1665, appointed Colonel Richard Nichols, Sir Robert Carr, knight, George Cartwright and Samuel Maverick, Esquires, Commissioners, with full powers "to visit the several colonies in New England, to examine and determine all complaints and appeals in matters civil, military, and criminal; provide for the peace and security of the country, according to their good and sound discretion, and to such instructions as they should receive from the king, and to certify him of their proceedings." The government of Massachusetts regarded the appointment of these commissioners, with such powers as they were invested with, as a violation of their charter, and would not submit to their authority. The Commissioners, excepting Colonel Nichols, came here in June, and were more favorably received than they had been in Boston. There were many, besides those attached to Mason's interest, who were disaffected to the government of Massachusetts, and cheerfully embraced the opportunity of effecting a change: others were strongly opposed to a separation. The Commissioners examined into Mason's claims, but came to no decision respecting them. They informed the inhabitants of this town, that they would release them from the government of Massachusetts, whose jurisdiction did not extend here.—They appointed Justices of the Peace, and other officers of government, among whom was Abraham Corbett, who undertook to act by virtue of this appointment, but, never having been commissioned by government, the General Court declared his offence to be a high misdemeanor, fined him five pounds, and committed him until it was paid. Corbett was irritated by these proceedings, and, at the instigation of the Commissioners, drew up a petition, which he prevailed on a number of the inhabitants to sign, in which they complained of the usurpation of Massachusetts, and prayed to be released from it. Those, who had refused to sign the petition, applied to the General Court for advice and assistance.—The Court appointed a committee of three persons to inquire into the subsisting difficulties and report to them, that they might redress the grievances. The committee came to Portsmouth, assembled the inhabitants, and inquired into their complaints. The majority of the people denied that there was any cause for complaint, declared the fullest confidence in the government, and their satisfaction with its administration.

The General Court issued a warrant, which was signed by the Secretary, against Corbett "for his tumultuous and seditious practices against government;" upon which he was apprehended, and being examined before the Governor and magistrates, "was adjudged guilty of sedition, and of exciting others to discontent with the government and laws, and of keeping a disorderly house of entertainment, for which offences he was sentenced to find sureties for his peaceable behaviour and obedience to the laws: he was prohibited from retailing liquors; disabled from holding any office in the town or Commonwealth, during the pleasure of the Court; and obliged to pay a fine of twenty pounds, and five pounds for the costs of prosecution."

☞ The U. S. sloop-of-war Constellation, Commodore Henry K. Thacher, Aug. 22d, was at Smyrna, and salutes were exchanged between her and the batteries.—Commodore Thacher and his officers were presented to Mehemet Reschid Pasha, the Governor General, by our consul Mr. Bing, and they were received with great honor. Subsequently the Governor General, with Capt. Hussein Bey, commander of the Turkish ship of war, the Scheriff Numa, and a distinguished suite, visited the Constellation, and were hospitably received by her captain. Consul Bing was also present. On leaving, the Governor was honored by a salute of nineteen guns, which was responded to by the Turkish vessel. The Constellation remained about ten days at Smyrna—and was to sail on the 29th, on a cruise.

☞ It is said in naval circles in New York that the decision as to the location of the new navy yards will be made public on the first of October. The officers have visited New London, Narragansett Bay, Bristol, and will be through Philadelphia, it is thought, in a week. At New London, vessels drawing thirty feet of water could enter and depart all through the year. At Philadelphia, in the vicinity of League Island, in one place at least there are only eighteen feet of water, which is less than the Saline draws.

☞ The difficulties with the Chippewas in Minnesota have been adjusted, but it is feared that the trouble with the Sioux in the same State has only just commenced and that it will be of long continuance.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. Ryder of Dunbarton, has testimony to the truth of the following account of the murder of his brother-in-law at Genevieve, Missouri, some months ago; James R. Cochrane of New Boston, N. H., had been in Missouri several years, engaged in teaching. He had been to Genevieve nearly a year in the same occupation. One day a rebel by the name of Andrew Burnett met him and asked him to swear allegiance to the Confederate government, and on his refusal threatened to shoot him. "Shoot," says Cochrane, with patriotic determination; "I shall never acknowledge allegiance to that government." Burnett drew his pistol and killed him on the spot.

—— A correspondent, who was with the division of Gen. Sturgis at the battle of Antietam, gives the following:—

In Gen. Nagle's brigade and Sturgis' division was the 9th N. H. Regiment, Col. Fellows, one of the most experienced Colonels in the army. It was a handsome sight to see him put his regiment into action.—When the clear, sonorous order came from Col. Fellows, "Charge bayonets!" every eye gleamed in the "Bloody Ninth," as the brigade now call the regiment. Every man threw away his knapsack, blanket and haversack, and leaped over a stone wall six feet high, with a yell that fairly sent terror through the rebel ranks opposite. With eyes gleaming with joy and determination, and every bayonet fixed, they charged up the hill and through the cornfield at double quick with a perfect yell of triumph. Col. Fellows and Lieut. Col. Titus astonished the veterans in the service by the manner they brought the 9th into action. It was a grand and magnificent sight, and one seldom seen in battle. The rebels fled before them, and every rebel regiment broke and run. Gen. Reno fell beside the 9th New Hampshire and 35th Massachusetts about dark, just in the moment of victory.

—— The 9th regiment lost in the battle of Antietam, the following, in addition to those already published:—

Killed. Co. D—Joseph Bachelder; Co. F—Corp. C. M. Noyes; Co. G—G. W. Russell; Co. I—G. W. Tore.

Wounded. Co. A—B. Wadleigh, John McDermott; Co. B—J. H. Aldrich, H. Doe, Jerome Gay, R. W. Twain, M. P. Tennant; Co. C—Serg. T. J. Richards, Millet W. Roberts; Co. D—Corp. Henry Boothley, Chas. T. Hall, Edward Flannigan, James Doherty, Moses D. French, J. M. Quimby, Samuel Page; Co. F—G. E. Hubbard; Co. G—Capt. S. A. Whitefield, A. J. Fletcher, H. G. Kendall, Frederick Boyce; Co. H—John Thompson, Michael Hester, Serg. H. Baxter, Corp. Mark G. Staples, Wm. Howard; Co. I—Lieut. Jacob Green, Wm. Reason, L. W. Aldrich, Geo. W. Cluer, E. H. Streeter, W. C. Aiken, W. H. Hartwell, E. W. Messenger; Co. K—Capt. J. R. Cooper, Samuel C. Meader.

Missing. Co. A—L. H. Chase; Co. D—Edward Flannigan; Co. E—Albert H. Taft, Fancis O. Riley, W.W. Humprey, J. H. Humphrey; Co. G—J. W. King, Horace Ellenwood, Amos Bradford, Caleb M. D. Bradford, John A. Peaslee, G. R. Peaslee.

—— The Boston Journal says:—

"The New Hampsire Sixth regiment has proved itself one of the bravest corps in the army. It suffered much at Bull Run on the 29th of August last, and was engaged at Chantilly on the first of September instant and lost nearly one-half of its number in killed and wounded. At Sharpsburg the regiment led the advance of Gen. Burnside's division, and charged over the bridge on the extreme right of our line in company with the gallant Massachusetts Twenty-first—never giving away an inch but holding to every foot of ground so hardly won. The N. H. Sixth was highly complimented by Gen. Burnside for their bravery and firmness. A correspondent writes us saying that, on the morning after the battle, finding a large number of men wandering about, he reprimanded them for their misconduct, when some one present inquired concerning the position of the New Hampshire Sixth. The General, who overheard the enquiry, replied 'Its away up in front there doing picket duty, and has been there all night (this was Thursday morning) although it led the advance yesterday. That regiment does not scatter or run. There is only about a good company of them left to support the tattered flag they carry with them, but I can depend on them under all circumstances. If all men were of the same stamp we should whip the rebels without difficulty; for their duty is their pride.' This compliment the regiment appreciates very highly. The correspondent alluded to furnishes a list of the killed and wounded of the regiment in the action at Sharpsburg, Sept. 17th, and as it corrects some names, and adds, unfortunately, one or two to the list of casualties, we publish it.

Killed—Privates G. H. Fisk, Co. F; S. C. Waters, do.; Ezra C. Graves, Co. H; sergeant Howard Rand, Co. K.

Missing—S. O. Woodbury, Co. G.

Total—Killed 4; wounded 13; missing 1.

—— The Band of the 4th regiment, Walter Dignam leader, returned to Manchester on Wednesday.

—— Mr. A. L. Buzzell, a musician in the 12th regiment, was accidentally shot at Concord, on Wednesday, with a revolver in his own hand. The wound is severe and may befatal. He belongs in Meredeth.

—— A Conference of Churches and Ministers will be held at the Universalist Church at Atkinson, on Wednesday, Oct 3—public services commencing at 10 o'clock.

—— The American states that Lieut. Col. S. G. Langley, of the 5th N. H. Regiment, is at present seriously unwell at Washington. He has for some years been troubled at times with a lung complaint, and it has been greatly aggravated by the campaign of the Chickahominy. He was utterly unable to take any part in the battles in Maryland. It is feared that he will be compelled to resign.

The Absurdities of Prejudice.—Inconsistency is a weakness of human nature, as unreasonable as it is absurd and indefensible. Many people, for instance, have a horror of purchasing anything that is extensively advertised, no matter what may be its merits. Advertising is, in their opinion, a gigantic game of speculation, or a medium of puffing worthless goods. The Sambucu wine is largely advertised, because the proprietor, Mr. A. Speer, is desirous that the public become acquainted with it. He does not, however, expect people to purchase it solely on his recommendation. He wishes them to judge for themselves, and he has instructed his agents and all who retail his wine, that if it should not prove equal to what he claims for it, to return the money. All he wants is to give it a trial. Nothing can be fairer than this. The Sambucu wine is a pure, unadulterated juice of the Oporto Sambucus grape, now being cultivated in this country by Mr. Speer. It is valuable for family use, and for its tonic and invigorating properties. It gives tone to the stomach and invigorates the system. In fashionable circles it has become the favorite table-wine.—[Intelligencer.

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!
The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.
"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE!

A Sure Relief for the Sufferer!
This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 16th century by the celebrated WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James' army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day; and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor. The Salve is used with the following diseases:—Burns, Bruises, Felons, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Boils, Scurvy, Sore Lips, Sore Ears, Swelled Nose, Ulcers, Lame Joints, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Ringworms, Sprains, Fresh Wounds, Erysipelas, Scalds, Stings of Venomous Insects, Piles, Bunions, Frozen Limbs, Nettle Rash, Sore Breast, Wens, Eruptions, Fosters, Shingles, Cancers, Whitlows, Itch, Sties, Lame Wrist, and Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature, without leaving a scar. It will also cure pimples on the face, and beautify the Skin.
There are thousands who are suffering for months and even years in consequence of Sores and wounds that might be cured in a short time by the use of this great external Salve. It has never failed to effect a speedy cure when properly applied. This Salve has none of the irritating heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand, for it will save them trouble, suffering and money; and in many cases it has saved life itself. The manufacturer receives testimonials daily, from some of our most distinguished citizens, expressing benefits derived from its use. This Salve is warranted to give perfect satisfaction in every disease that it professes to cure; if not, the money will be refunded.
M. S. Burr & Co., 26 Tremont street, Boston, wholesale agents. All orders addressed to this firm or the manufacturer, will receive prompt attention.

☞ The Portland Press has no "doubt the support—constrained and reluctantly given though it has been,—of such papers as the Saco Democrat and Portland Argus, and such politicians as endorse those papers, has done much to throw suspicion upon Mr. Sweat, representative elect from the 1st Maine District; but of his real, heartfelt loyalty, we have not permitted ourself to doubt. ☞ A letter from the 3d regiment, at Hilton Head, S. C., to the Manchester Mirror, says:—

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

RYE, N. H., Feb. 28, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, which he prepared, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since.

CAROLINE B. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.

SIMEON SWETT.

Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.

HANNAH ROWE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dyspepsia at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1838. Dr. Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved: therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."

WM. F. LEAVITT.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our home in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26d

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE,
PURE AND FOUR YEARS OLD,
OF CHOICE OPORTO FRUIT.
For Physicians' Use.
FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS, INVALIDS.
SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL,

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE, celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.
AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs, very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.
SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefiting ladies and children.
A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich, peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.
The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pinder, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Simpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the
MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE,

MATHEWS'
VENETIAN LIQUID
HAIR DYE.
☞ MATHEWS' VENETIAN HAIR DYE.—This celebrated Dye was first prepared in 1846; since that time it has been USED BY THOUSANDS and in no instance has it failed to give PERFECT SATISFACTION.
THE VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is ONLY FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains DOUBLE THE QUANTITY OF DYE, contained in those usually sold for ONE DOLLAR.
THE VENETIAN DYE is the safest composition of the class. It is WARRANTED NOT TO INJURE the hair, or the scalp, in the least.
THE VENETIAN DYE works with RAPIDITY AND CERTAINTY. It causes no annoyance or trouble to those who use it.
THE VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired,—one that will not fade, crock, nor wash out,—one that is as permanent as the hair itself.
THE VENETIAN DYE does not, in any manner, interfere with the NATURAL SOFTNESS OF THE HAIR,—it neither scorches nor dries it.
THE VENETIAN DYE is the best, cheapest, safest, most convenient, most successful, and most permanent Dye ever used.
SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

☞ Letters from the Army Hospitals say that apples would be very useful and acceptable.—If some responsible man in Portland, and similar men in Concord, Portsmouth and Boston, would undertake to forward barrels of apples, many hundred barrels would be given by orchardists, and this want of sick and wounded northern soldiers would be supplied at once.

☞ Gen. Mitchell, the new commander of the Department of the South, says his instructions permit him to do pretty much as he pleases, and that he shall omit no opportunity of giving his troops active employment.

☞ A correspondence is said to be in progress between Gen. Halleck and Sigel, occasioned by statements of the former that there are serious charges against the personal courage of the latter. The difficulty is unfortunate.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, which cannot be, from its immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that such is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of precedentions and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond competition, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse"
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

A dispatch from Louisville announces the seizure by the rebels of Salt's Salt River distillery building, though most of the stock had been removed to Louisville. The distillery is but thirty miles from Louisville.

The Philadelphia North American gives an absurd rumor that three thousand of the new Union troops in Missouri have joined the rebels.

Reports from Apalachicola say that two rebel iron-clad gunboats are nearly ready for sea, under the command of Catesby Jones, who says he will sink every gunboat on the Gulf coast.

Advices from New Orleans give an order of Gen. Butler requiring each neutral foreign resident in the department to report to the nearest Provost Marshal for registration of himself and family. The order says in the course of ten days it might become necessary to distinguish disloyal from loyal citizens and honest neutral foreigners. All false or simulated claims of foreign alliance Gen. Butler threatens to punish severely.

Gen. Williams, of Gen. McClellan's staff, says that we captured from thirty-five to forty thousand stand of arms, sixteen cannon and thirty-five stand of colors, in the late battles in Maryland.

It is reported that the rebels have sent a large force to protect the salt works in the Kanawha Valley, which they propose enlarging in order to obtain their full supplies of salt.

Later accounts show that the victory of Gen. Rosecrans over the rebel Price was of more importance than heretofore stated. Price had at least 15,000 men, and his design was to join the army of Bragg, who was marching on Louisville. The encounter at Iuka resulted in a rebel loss of nearly a thousand men, besides five hundred prisoners and six entire batteries, or thirty-six field pieces. The rebel General Little was killed, and his associate, Gen. Whitefield, wounded and taken prisoner.

SUBSTITUTES IN HARTFORD.—It appears by the following from the Hartford Courant of Saturday, where a draft has been made, that there is no difficulty in procuring substitutes at a cheap rate in Connecticut:—

"Don't be in too great a hurry about obtaining a substitute. Plenty are on hand ready to go. They can be had now at almost any price, and are coming in so rapidly that the supply will shortly more than equal the demand. We doubt not that they shortly may be obtained for $50. Not so many of the rich men were drafted as these men expected; consequently, instead of the high prices they expected to obtain, they will have to take even less than the bounties which they have offered."

At the same drafting, it was officially stated that Justices of the Peace are not exempt from draft.

☞ Some idea of the amount of ammunition required to supply an army such as Gen. McClellan's, during a heavy fight like that of Wednesday, may be gained from the fact that thirty-eight tons of ammunition were forwarded to Gen. McClellan on Wednesday, from Washington, via Baltimore, Harrisburg and Hagerstown. An eye-witness of the battle states that he counted at four different times during the day, the number of discharges from our artillery, and found that they were made at the rate of 78 to the minute.

☞ Secretary Welles has disposed of Lieut. Barrett's treason case. A court of inquiry, consisting of Commodores Merwin, Canover and McKean, after seven days' session, report that throughout the investigation not a particle of evidence was elicited calculated to impair the high-toned loyalty of the accused, as testified to, not only by the witnesses of the accused, but those of the Government. And further the Court, in justice to Lieut. Commanding Barrett, recommend that some satisfactory testimonial from the Department be given him.

☞ The Tribune's Washington dispatch says:—"Honorable Eli Thayer's scheme for colonization of the Southern States by armed men, meets with much favor from the President, Secretary of War, and other Secretaries. It has been discussed in Cabinet meetings, and will probably soon receive formal official sanction. Mr. Thayer promises, if allowed power to carry out his plan, to bring Florida into the Union as a free State by the 1st of February next.—Texas and Virginia are suggested as others to be colonized."

A SINGULAR CIRCUMSTANCE. — The Worcester Transcript says that Mr. Josiah Conant, of Gardner, lost a cow last week by death, and upon examination a twelve penny nail, three inches and a quarter in length, was found in her heart. It entered at one side and worked its way through, so that it came out at the opposite side, making a hole through the heart larger than a man's finger.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Statesman says that although it must be ten years since Hon. Matthew Harvey, Judge of the U. S. District Court, removed from Hopkinton to Concord,—yet to this day all his correspondence from Washington is addressed to Hopkinton, and is remailed for Concord. Repeated requests to have his address changed on the Department records have had no practical effect.

—— The 11th Regiment is brigaded under the command of Gen. Briggs. It has the right of this brigade, which is the first in Casey's new Division. About a week since the 11th was provided with eighty-five thousand rounds of ammunition, and the regiment has a prospect of immediate service.

—— A CONFERENCE of Churches and Ministers will be held at the Universalist Church at Atkinson, on Wednesday, Oct. 8—public services commencing at 10 o'clock.

—— At a meeting in Newport, recently, Mr. W. F. Ladd offered $25 to the first man who should enlist. Edward Nettleton accepted the offer, and then tendered the $25, together with the town bounty of $100, to the next five men enlisting.

—— Calvin May, jr., Esq., appointed Assessor of Taxes for the third collection district of this State, died at Keene last week. It is understood that Bolivar Lovell, Esq., of Alstead, sheriff of Cheshire county, has been appointed his successor.

—— The First R. I. Cavalry, in which is the N. H. Battalion, were in the force which left Harper's Ferry shortly before the surrender, and captured Longstreet's ammunition train.

—— Perley telegraphs that Gov. Berry, during his stay at Washington, visited the regiments from this State which are on the other side of the Potomac.

☞ A gunboat from the Gulf of Mexico brings the report that naval expeditions have been fitted out at Pensacola and Port Royal. On the 13th inst. the gunboat Winona, Lieut. Commanding Thornton, run under the fire of Fort Morgan, below Mobile, and opened fire on a rebel steamer lying inside, driving off her crew, and damaging her greatly by the explosion of a 11 inch shell in her bow. Fort Morgan opened a heavy fire on the Winona, but she escaped unhurt. On the 9th inst., the Connecticut captured the English schooner Rambler, laden with cotton, which had escaped the blockade at Sabine Pass.

☞ It is full time that some one in Wasington prevented the forwarding of dispatches purporting to express the wishes of the various Departments. It is now stated that the Navy Department does not desire that letters addressed to persons on board any vessel in the navy should be addressed to the care of the Navy Department, as stated in Friday's dispatches.

☞ Advices from Mexico state that great anxiety was felt for a convoy with one million dollars for the payment of the French troops at Orizaba, which had not arrived, though ten days overdue. It is presumed by well informed persons in Vera Cruz that the guerillas have captured it, as it is known that they were aware of its departure and of the specie conveyed.

☞ The War Department has issued an order directing the appointment in each State of one or more special provost marshals to arrest deserters and disloyal persons, &c. They are authorized to call on the military force, or citizens, or officers, to enable them to discharge their duties. The head of this corps is a Provost Marshal General of the War Department, having his headquarters at Washington.

"India, my boy," said an Irishman on his arrival at Calcutta, "its jist the finest climate under the sun; but a lot of young fellows come out here, an' they dhrink an' they ate, an' they ate an' they dhrink, an' they die; an' thin they write home to their friends a pack o' lies, and say it's the climate as has kill 'em."

☞ The 7th squadron Rhode Island cavalry, comprising a company of students from Dartmouth, Norwich, and Bowdoin Colleges, arrived at Providence on Friday, and will be mustered out of service, their term (3 months) having expired. They were among the cavalry which cut through from Harper's Ferry to Greencastle.

☞ The Portland Press says that the Rev. Mr. Boardman undertook to preach a war sermon at South West Bend, Me., Sabbath before last, but his audience being chiefly of the Copperhead order, withdrew as soon as the subject of his discourse became evident.

☞ Col. Jacob Hamilton, formerly a member of Congress from Texas, has escaped and arrived at the Southwest Pass, accompanied by six friends. Col. B. has been secreted in the mountains twenty-one days. He reports a strong Union feeling in the western part of Texas.

☞ There is said to be little or no yellow fever now at Key West.

For the Chronicle.

THE STATE OF NEW Hampshire is in rather a helpless condition, by the showing of the Concord Patriot, which gives a detail of Dr. Batchelder's case, which Uncle Toby has perused with much attention, as he has a warm sympathy with those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake. It is dreadful to think that a good patriot, citizen and physician, should be at once a martyr to his extreme loyalty, and a victim of tyranny, suffering dreadfully in his health, from the ocean chills at Fort Constitution in the first week of the month of September!

There are two questions raised by the article in the Patriot, viz. one of veracity,—and the other of conflicting governmental powers.

The article in the Patriot is valuable, as it gives at length the charges made against the Doctor, for which he is imprisoned.—If true, they afford ample ground for such punishment. But the Doctor's affidavit says, that they are wholly false—ergo, the men who signed the statement are a pack of gratuitous liars, who have thus maligned an innocent man, and borne false witness against their neighbor, going out of their way to do so. And it also says that he has only expressed political opinions, not any thing disloyal.

The reader may ask, then, who are the men that sign the statement?—and the answer is, two Selectmen of one party, and two Selectmen of the other; the present postmaster and the ex-postmaster, and six other persons, well known, twelve in all.—The whole of them are his townsmen—and their word is pitted against his. Any one who pleases, may decide between them.

In the conflict of power, the State of New Hampshire is represented by Judge Bell, who is not willing to aid in a contest with the United States; by Dr. Batchelder, and by Mr. Hatch, who as Dr. B.'s counsel, urged Judge Bell to issue an attachment against the Marshal, which the Judge refused to do.

The United States are represented by Gov. Berry, the Marshal, the Secretary of War and Judge Advocate Holt, the two latter being old school Democrats.

The relations of the parties are somewhat complicated,—for while the Governor of this State is on the side of the Union, or General Government,—Mr. Hatch, who moves the attachment against the Marshal, is a United States officer, viz. Clerk of the District of New Hampshire.

But no bloody conflict is coming out of it—for the new military proclamation shows Judge Bell's wisdom in not rushing headlong into the battle.

THE QUESTION OF PERSONAL LIBERTY.—An important case has just been before the Supreme Court of New Hampshire, which shows in a strong light the perilous nature of the times in which we live. * * On the 27th of August, twelve citizens of Epping signed a certificate which asserted that "about one year ago," Dr. Nathaniel Batchelder, of that place, "made a speech, in which he stated publicly, in a loud voice, that he had rather live under the administration of Jeff. Davis than under Abe Lincoln, and that Jeff. could not be put down," &c. * * And the writ of habeas corpus having been tried in vain, Dr. Batchelder is still held in confinement, upon the affidavit of Daniel Dow, one of the signers of the certificate, without trial, during such time as may suit the Secretary of War or the President.

Mr. Conway, in his new abolition paper, the Commonwealth, has an article boldly charging that some high functionary of the government at Washington is guilty of treachery, and has prevented the defeat and destruction of the rebel armies. Indirectly and by implication he charges Mr. Seward, the Secretary of State, with being the traitor. Is not this disloyalty to the government and its officers and discouraging enlistments, calling, like the disloyalty of Dr. Batchelder, for the interference of the U. S. Marshal?—Boston Traveller.

☞ The Lewiston Journal says a gentleman was recently married in Buxton, and immediately set out on a wedding tour to Boston. Arriving at Berwick Junction, he safely ensconced his bride in the cars and went out to see some friends. So intent was he on telling his good fortune that he failed to notice the departure of the train, till on coming out of the depot, he saw the train steaming round a distant curve, bearing away the pink of his affection. Fortunately another train soon passed along on the lower road, and the luckless fellow reached Boston a few hours later.

☞ Washington Bartlett, of New York, denies that his daughter, of "diamond wedding" notoriety, has separated from old Oviedo, her husband, or lives unhappily with him.

☞ It was near Sharpsburg and not at Bull Run, that Surgeon Gen. Hammond reports the burial of 3000 rebel dead.

☞ The vomito is making dreadful havoc at Vera Cruz, and the French war vessels are suffering severely. Many physicians have died, and only two are left in the whole fleet.

GEN. CHARLES P. STONE.—Nothing has caused more general astonishment to the public than the release from Fort Lafayette, without trial, of Brig. Gen. Stone.—We have some good reason for the opinion that the offence of Mr. Stone was not strictly one of military misconduct, or of treasonable communication with the enemy, but the use of language and opinions unbecoming an officer of the army. It may be that he declared the belief that the action of Congress, the abuse of the army and its officers by intemperate newspapers, and the popular intolerance of all that he deemed wise and prudent in the conduct of the war, were preparing the country for anarchy, the complete overthrow of the government and the establishment of a military despotism. These were his views and he expressed them.—Concord Statesman.

☞ It is stated that at the recent meeting of the Governors of the loyal States, it was agreed to suggest an army reserve, after the quotas already called for shall be filled, of not less than 100,000 men, to be drilled and disciplined at home, and to be called out in cases of sudden emergency, and to be mustered into service for twelve months unless sooner discharged.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.
"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.
The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.
The Port has a fine flavor and body; and
The Port is excellent because it is pure.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE!
A Sure Relief for the Sufferer!

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 16th century by Dr. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James' army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day; and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor. The Salve is used for the following diseases:—Burns, Bruises, Felons, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Boils Scurvy, Sore Lips, Sore Ears, Swelled Nose, Ulcers, Lame Joints, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Ringworms, Sprains, Flesh Wounds, Erysipelas, Scalds, Stings of Venomous Insects, Piles, Bunions, Frozen Limbs, Nettle Rash, Sore Breast, Weak Eruptions, Festers, Shingles, Cancers, Whitlows, Itch, Stiff Limbs, Lame Wrist, and Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature, without leaving a scar. It will also cure pimples on the face, and beautify the skin.

There are thousands who are suffering for months and even years in consequence of Sores and wounds that might be cured in a short time by the use of this great external Salve. It has never failed to effect a speedy cure when properly applied. This Salve has none of the irritating heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand, for it will save them trouble, suffering and money; and in many cases it has saved life itself. The manufacturer receives testimonials daily, from some of our most distinguished citizens, expressing benefits derived from its use. This Salve is warranted to give perfect satisfaction in every disease that it professes to cure, if not, the money will be refunded.

☞ Mr. Thos. O. Hoyt, who has so successfully run a Stage Line between Portsmouth and Kittery Point, for several years past, has sold out his interest in the business to Mr Stephen Hull of this city; and Mr. Hoyt has formed a copartnership with Mr. G. V. Rowe, as Sutlers of the 9th N. H. Regiment. Mr. Rowe is in the city buying a cargo of stores; and they leave for the Potomac next week.

Mr. Thornton B. Hoyt, of this city, we hear, has been appointed Sutler of the 13th Regiment, N. H. Volunteers.

THE WAY.—The new barque Moriah J. Smith was launched from the Ways of Tobey & Littlefield, on Saturday, in the usual neat way of doing such things on the Piscataqua.

For the Chronicle.

THE LATE MR. JAMES E. SEAVEY.—It is with the deepest regret we have heard of the death of Mr. James E. Seavey, of this city, a member of Co. K, 2d Regiment of N. H. Volunteers. For nearly three years he was Secretary and Librarian of this Mission Sabbath School, during which time he endeared himself to both teachers and scholars as a devoted christian and faithful laborer in this most interesting field of christian effort. At the commencement of the war he responded to the call of our country, and with the feelings of a true christian patriot, he went forth with our brave soldiers to rescue our Government and our Capitol from traitors' hands.

Resolved, That we will ever cherish grateful recollections of his self-sacrificing spirit and his untiring devotion as manifested in his efforts to benefit the children and youth in this School while associated with us.

Resolved, That we tender our warmest sympathies to his widowed mother and his bereaved brother and sisters, in this hour of their deepest grief and sorrow.

☞ The Fifth Annual report of the Concord and Portsmouth Railroad, for the year ending Oct. 2, is a very brief and satisfactory document. The stockholders number 234. The receipts, including a balance of $803.97, were $18,182.78; the expenditure $16,785.54, including 15,000 in dividends, leaving a balance of $1,397.10. During the year the Road has been extended to Rindge's Wharf in Portsmouth, affording facilities for a large freighting business.

☞ A large temporary wooden workshop has been erected at the Navy Yard to be used in getting out the iron work on the new iron-plated steamer to be built there. Immense lathes and other machinery for working the iron, are already in position. The machine shop is to be lengthened out forty feet to make room for machinery and workmen in this branch of ship building.

☞ A small boy, on Friday morning, while playing under the raised track recently laid for dump cars, near the wharf now building for the Concord Railroad, was run over by the train, the wheels severing one hand at the wrist and cutting off the fingers of the other.

☞ Mr. William W. Black, of this city, has been appointed Acting Master's Mate in the United States Navy, and ordered to report to Capt. Pearson, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

Edmund A. Dixon, Eliot, Captain; Joseph D. Parker, Kittery, 1st Lieut.; Dennis M. Shapleigh, 2d Lieut.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune states that Mr. Everett is in Washington, at the President's invitation, on business related to our foreign relations, in regard to which his views are understood to differ somewhat from Mr. Seward's.

☞ Rev. James H. Crooke, (colored,) of New York, was shot on Thursday at West Farms, by Mary Hodges, (colored,) whom he had seduced, and subsequently died. The woman is in custody.

☞ The report that the rebel Gen. Joseph E. Johnston had died of his wounds is contradicted by a letter to the Grenada Appeal, dated Richmond, the 8th inst.

☞ Out of a loyal population of not more than 150,000, Western Virginia has furnished over 16,000 Union volunteers for the war.

☞ It is reported that the confederates are buying and building numerous steamers in England, and are also building a ram in the Mersey.

WHAT COULD THEY DO BETTER?—Some twenty or thirty of the new Newburyport recruits have, within a few days, subscribed for the Herald to go into their families there, and then to follow them to the army. We do not say it because we have any personal interest in the matter, for we never urge people to subscribe for the Herald, and never send an agent to canvass for it; all of which however, would be proper enough if we did—but no better use could a soldier in the army make of three or four dollars, than to have a newspaper sent him regularly from the town where he belongs. When he gets away he will be glad to see anything that has the smell of home upon it, and the reading of advertisements even would be his delight. There is nothing that would be more pleasant or useful to a soldier than papers and letters from the places the soldiers have left, and their friends should see they are well supplied.—Herald.

The Friend of India says:—

The Island of Makian, formerly so fertile, has been completely laid waste by volcanic eruption. Not one of its 4000 inhabitants remain upon it, and there is not a blade of grass to be seen. The twelve villages which were to be found upon the island have been more or less destroyed. Some of them have been buried to the depth of 30 or 40 feet under the stones and ashes How many of the inhabitants have found their graves by this calamity has not been fully ascertained, but it is reported that out of Bohawa alone (a village of about 1000 souls) only about half made their escape. The bodies of 63 persons have been found under the rains of the mosque in the principal village, while about 60 persons were found suffocated in a cave.

☞ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is

THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Dan'l. Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his HUMOR WASH, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, which he prescribed, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since. CAROLINE B. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.
SIMEON SWETT.
Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors, Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.

HANNAH ROWE.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it. And all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1858. Dr. Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevents their rest by night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; thereofre, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."

WM. P. LEAVITT.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26g

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal taint impure blood, Inflammation, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, fright, Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr. D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the early and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the care of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

Excellent Wine for Females.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE, celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent Physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pindar, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The due or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

MATHEWS'
VENETIAN LIQUID
HAIR DYE.

☞ MATHEWS' VENETIAN HAIR DYE.—This celebrated Dye was first prepared in 1845; since that time it has been USED BY THOUSANDS and in no instance has it failed to give PERFECT SATISFACTION.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is ONLY FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains DOUBLE THE QUANTITY OF DYE, contained in those usually sold for ONE DOLLAR.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the safest composition of its class. It is WARRANTED NOT TO INJURE the hair, or the scalp, in the least.

THE VENETIAN DYE works with RAPIDITY AND CERTAINTY. It causes no annoyance or trouble to those who use it.

THE VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired,—one that will not fade, crock, nor wash out,—one that is as permanent as the hair itself.

THE VENETIAN DYE does not, in any manner, interfere with the NATURAL SOFTNESS OF THE HAIR,—it neither scorches nor dries it.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the best, cheapest, safest, most convenient, most successful, and most permanent Dye ever used.

ARTEMAS WARD ON ENLISTMENTS.—"Young man, inlist right off. Air you afeared it 'll spile your beauty? Let me tell you that the best and prittiest girls in this country are bereafter goin to be courted by fellows onlcratches who have done great things in the battle, and, you chaps who staid at home in your country's dark flour won't stand no more chance of gettin one of 'em than Jeff. Davis does of goin to heaven in a balloon! Enlist—enlist! In the language of Hamlet's daddy, 'list, oh! list!"—Vanity Fair.

☞ A collision took place on the Cumberland Valley Railroad on Friday, one mile above Harrisburg. One of the trains had a number of Pennsylvania militia on board returning home from Maryland. 10 or 12 soldiers were killed and about 30 wounded.

A correspondent writing of the Hospitals in Washington says:

It did not strike me as ludicrous, as I saw one six-foot Maine lumberman, with a breast as shaggy as a buffalo robe, arrayed in an embroidered chemise instead of a shirt.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished, by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not incearably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has every reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense business done by the office during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official documents, not to be found elsewhere.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here avoided.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twenty rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

The official figures of our loss in the battle of Antietam, in two corps, are as follows:—

Hooker's corps—Doubleday's division—killed 98, wounded 669; Rickett's division—killed 152, wounded 898, missing 137; Meade's division, Penn. reserves—killed 97, wounded 449, missing 23. Total for the corps 2619.

A letter from New Orleans states that an expedition to Pontchatoula succeded in driving the rebels out of the town but they soon returned with reinforcements and drove our troops out. Our loss is killed, wounded and missing was about 40. Our troops captured the rebel Post Office and contents; also the sword and trappings of the rebel Col. Jeff Thompson, presented to him by the rebels of Memphis. Gen. Sherman has arrived at New Orleans, to take the place of Gen. Phelps.

The rebels are reported to have burnt Augusta, Ky. The inhabitants and a small union force escaped into Ohio. Our troops have burnt Prentiss, Miss., guerrillas under Villipique, having fired from it upon our boats.

A portion of the rebel army, said to number about 12,000, under Hindman and Rains, is now at Granby Mills, Newton county, near the Missouri State line. Gen. Schofield is preparing to march against them, in person, having, at his own request, been relieved from his district command.

It is rumored that Gen. Lee has been been largely reinforced, and that he is apparently making preparations to re-cross the Potomac into Maryland.

The N. Y. Times' correspondent states that the advance of Gen. Sigel's corps reached Centreville the first of last week.—On Thursday afternoon Gen. Sigel made his headquarters at Fairfax Court House, and has with him the balance of his corps.

It is rumored that Gen. Buell has been relieved in Kentucky, and assigned to Indianapolis to organize paroled prisoners in to regiments.

For the Chronicle.

THE ELIOT ARRESTS.—Messrs. Editors:—In your issue of a few days ago you mentioned the arrest of two young men for girdling a number of trees and setting fire to a wood pile in the town of Eliot. We learn on good authority that the young men who were arrested, were conveyed in irons from Portland, where they were in camp, to Eliot, where they were brought before a magistrate, and on examination were discharged, there being no evidence against them. The young men enlisted in the service of their country long before the trees were girdled, or before the loose brush which was then, and is now, lying by the side of the road, was fired.

The citzens of Eliot were indignant when they knew that two of their most respectable and patriotic young men were thus treated without any cause whatever, and by one who prefers to remain at home giving utterance to his secession sentiments in this the time of his country's peril.

Yours, JUSTICE.

☞ Hon. James H. Butler, of Nottingham, was seriously injured, by being thrown from a carriage, on Friday evening, at Concord. He had hired a horse and carriage in the city, and was driving out towards West Concord, when, about 7 o'clock, as he was rapidly descending a hill in the darkness, the carriage came in contact with a leaded team which was ascending: the carriage was upset, the shafts were broken, and the horse escaped; judge B. had some ribs broken, and was otherwise injured.—He was cared for by the teamster, and lodged at a neighboring house, where surgical aid was soon secured.

We hear our old friend the judge is getting a little careless, after his long and wide experience in driving about—for last year he met with a severe accident at Epping, being thrown heavily from a wagon, in which he was standing and putting on an overcoat,—by the starting of his horse.

☞ Dispatches from Col. Sibley, received on Friday, state that a sharp engagement has taken place with the Sioux near Yellow Medicine. About 30 Indians were killed and many wounded. Our loss is five killed and 34 wounded. The Indians fell back toward Sagiparle, Col. Sibley following.

☞ Col. Robert Cowdin, of the 1st Mass., for distinguished conduct at Williamsburg, has been promoted to Brigadier General, on the recommendation of Gen. McClellan.

☞ The Union General Jeff. C. Davis shot Gen. Nelson at the Galt House, Louisville, on Monday morning, killing him almost instantly. It is said there had been difficulty between the parties for some time, and on that morning an insult from Gen. Nelson provoked the act.

☞ Gov. Berry has written a letter publicly denying the N. Y. Herald's report of the Governors' meeting.

SOLDIERS' AID COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The Committee appointed by the Mayor and Aldermen, and at the request of the High School School Committee, under whose call the goods were contributed for the relief of the sick and wounded N. H. soldiers in the hospitals in and around Washington, would report that they proceeded to Washington on the 8th inst., with two gentlemen who volunteered their services to accompany them. When we arrived at Bostof we were informed through Messrs. Jackson & Co.'s Express (to whom we are indebted for many favors,) that Messrs. Adams & Co. had informed them that it was useless to carry on the goods, as they were not wanted, and piles of such articles were then rotting in Washington.—We then called on His Honor Mayor Wightman of Boston, who had just returned from Washington, who gave us pretty much the same information. So we concluded to store the goods and go and see for ourselves. We left Boston that eve and reached New York the next day at 9 o'clock A. M. We were soon after en route for Philadelphia. Here we visited one or two hospitals, where we found some N. H. soldiers, who were pretty well cared for considering the large number of inmates. We made inquiries in regard to the superabundance of hospital stores, and were informed by the surgeon in charge that if Washington was so abundantly supplied, they would like for us to have the stores sent to them, for they were sadly in want of such articles.

The next day we left for Baltimore, and having some little time to spare, we visited some of the many hospitals in this city. We found some N. H. men who were convalescent, but we did not think the business was so well attended to at these hospitals, as in Philadelphia. We left on the same eve for Washington. Since our departure we have visited between 20 and 30 hospitals, each containing from 70 to 1500 inmates, and found the soldiers of N. H. in some cases receiving such care as could undoubtedly be bestowed when there are so many sick and wounded.

Arriving at Washington we proceeded to hunt up some quarters, and by the kind assistance of Col. Clements (to whom we return our sincere thanks for many favors during our stay,) we were safely quartered under the care of Friend Tenny, of the National Hotel. The same eve we called on Col. Marston, (who was in town,) who gave us a hearty welcome. One of the committee who had charge of the lists of the several boxes, gave them to the Colonel. He appeared much gratified and said, the boys will be glad to receive them, for they will know they are thought of at home. After enjoying the company of the Colonel for some time, during which he gave us some very interesting accounts of the several battles the regiment had been through, we bade him good night and returned home. The following day we visited the camp of the N. H. 2d, situated 2 miles beyond Alexandria. Co. K boys seemed glad to see us, and we were glad to see them looking in such good health generally.

After their many hard fought battles, the Second seems well known in Washington, and are there spoken highly of as the boys that never flinch. They have been through about every engagement, and are consequently not afraid of the smell of powder. They were in rather a bad condition as far as clothing went, not having had any new for some time; but they were in good spirits. We stayed at the camp about an hour and a half, when the setting sun warned us to depart.

The following day we commenced visiting the hospitals in the city of Washington, and continued visiting them each day between the hours of 12 M. to 6 P. M., to the time of our departure for home. In some of them we found some N. H. soldiers, who were wounded, but were confined to their bed only from the want of suitable clothing to enable them to get up and go out into the air. A great many wanted delicacies, etc., which by the kindness of John Goss, Esq., who placed at our disposal a large quantity of goods sent from the upper part of this State to him, gave us many opportunities for alleviating the sufferings of the sick and wounded. Each day we visited some hospital and ascertained the names of those from New Hampshire who were inmates, and which were from time to time published in the Chronicle.

On Wednesday the 17th inst., we again visited the camp of the 2d N. H., which had been removed to Fairfax Seminary, a much better location than where they were the previous week. We found them much in the same condition as they were on our last visit. We saw them on a Regimental line. They looked vastly different than when a year and a half ago we saw them march up Congress street, on the departure to the seat of war. Their ranks are sadly thinned. There were not two full companies we were informed in line. The boys were browned up well by their exposure and the battles of the Peninsula, but their appearance told us that the spirit of Molly Stark still lived among them. After taking dinner at the headquarters of Lieut. Sides, we bade them all good bye—to many probably for the last time, and started on our return to Washington. The stores which had been sent from Portsmouth did not arrive till the day previous to our last visit to the regiment, but they had already been disposed of as before stated. There were only three sick at the camp, but there are many of this regiment in the hospitals of Washington. Since our arrival home we have rec'd the following letter from Col. Marston, which was sent to Washington and has since been forwarded to us, which will explain what disposition he has made of the goods which had been left to his care previous to the departure of a part of the committee for home:—

2D REG. N. H. VOL., Sept. 17, 1862.

Messrs. Jenkins & Rider:—I have sent Mr. Durgin with two teams to Washington for the stores so bountifully provided by the citizens of Portsmouth.

The boxes for the Sanitary Commission will be sent to their rooms by the express Company.

Box No. 2 of articles sent by ladies of Universalist Society, to be sent to George Harrington, Ass't Sec. of the Treasury, for distribution in the hospitals.

Box No. 6 from G. H. S. to be sent to Mr. B. Goodwin, clerk in war department, for distribution to our soldiers in Washington. Also box No. 5 contributed by ladies of the Universalist Society.

The rest may be sent here for distribution to the various hospitals.

I hope you will come here to-morrow with the goods, that you may see how grateful our soldiers will feel for this noble benefaction. Yours very truly,

G. MARSTON.

While in Washington we attended by invitation, a meeting of the N. H. Association of that city, at the residence of Dr. Brodhead. This Association is composed of sons of New Hampshire, resident in Washington. We heard the report of the Executive Committee's doings for the previous week, and learned that there were in the hospitals then nearly 400 sick and wounded N. H. soldiers up to the date of the meeting. They are doing everything in their power for the relief of those needing it. But the field is large for their benevolent work, and there a considerable number of wounded who are not in the city, whom it takes a great deal of time to visit, and considerable expense; and it seems to us that the subject is one that demands the immediate attention of our State authorities, and we trust that arrangements may be made to relieve all their wants. In a report published last week it is stated that one of the committee received one hundred dollars for distribution to the needy soldiers in the hospitals, but we did not know any thing of the matter till we saw it in that report, so of course we can give no information what good was done through the liberality of the contributors.

We think if any more goods are sent, and there certainly should be more, they could be sent to John Goss, Esq., corner 1 and 9th streets, Washington, who receives goods at present for the N. H. Association, by whom they are distributed in the various hospitals in Washington to the sick and wounded New Hampshire soldiers.—By thus sending, contributors may know that their benefactions will certainly reach some if not all of those for whom we should use every endeavor to alleviate their necessities.

Your committee in closing their report would not forget to return their sincere thanks to M. H. Fernald, Esq., of Philadelphia, formerly of this city, to M. H. Goodwin and John Goss, Esqs., of Washington, and to all other sons of New Hampshire, residents of Washington, who aided us in our labors.

JAMES JUNKINS,
J. E. RIDER,
Committee.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE!

A Sure Relief for the Sufferer!

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 16th century by Dr. WM. GRACE, surgeon to King James' army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day; and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor. The Salve is used for the following diseases:—Burns, Bruises, Felons, Scald Heads, Salt Rheum, Boils Scurvy, Sore Lips, Sore Ears, Swelled Nose, Ulcers, Lame Joints, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Ringworms, Sprains, Fresh Wounds, Erysipelas, Scalds, Stings of Venomous Insects, Piles, Bunions, Frozen Limbs, Nettle Rash, Sore Breast, Wens, Eruptions, Festers, Shingles, Cancers, Whitlows, Itch, Stiles, Lame Wrist, and Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature, without leaving a scar. It will also cure pimples on the face, and beautify the Skin.

There are thousands who are suffering for months and even years in consequence of Sores and wounds that might be cured in a short time by the use of this great external Salve. It has never failed to effect a speedy cure when properly applied. This Salve has none of the irritating heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand, for it will save them trouble, suffering and money, and in many cases it has saved life itself. The manufacturer receives testimonials daily, from some of our most distinguished citizens, expressing benefit derived from its use. This Salve is warranted to give perfect satisfaction in every disease that it professes to cure; if not, the money will be refunded

JER'H JOHNSON,
JAMES F. SHORES, JR.,
JOS. HILLER FOSTER,
Committee.

☞ A few of the friends of Capt. Betton and Lieuts. Goss and Coffin of this city, have presented them with one of "Ball's combined army camp chests and stoves"—a great desideratum in camp, containing in the small pace of 12x15x34 inches, no less than sixty articles for cooking and eating use. The presentation was made to Capt. Betton by John H. Bailey, Esq., on Monday noon, at the store of Mr. H. S. Bodge, who is agent for Messrs. Ball, Black & Co., manufacturers.

☞ Capt. Betton's fine company of three-years men, left this city for the camp of the N. H. 13th at Concord, on Monday afternoon, after a short furlough. The Portsmouth Cornet Band accompanied them.

☞ Letters have been received in this city from Mr. Daniel J. Vaughan, of Co. C, 57th New York regiment. He was wounded in the face in one of the recent battles, and is now at the hospital in Chambersburg, Pa. It is thought by his friends here that his wound is not serious.

NAVY BOUNTY.—Sixteen Portsmouth boys write us from on board the U. S. receiving ship Ohio, asking if Portsmouth is going to give naval volunteers a bounty.—They say that they suppose they are to count as part of our quota, that other New Hampshire towns pay bounty in the navy and army alike, and they think it due them, too. We are glad when all our brave volunteers get due reward and notice; but we think the chance for naval prize-money, helps make up some inequality of bounty.

☞ Master's Mates Henry S. Lambert and Charles W. Adams, of this city, have been appointed Acting Ensigns in the U. S. Navy.

We understand that Mr. Lyman D. Spalding, jr., of this city, has successfully passed the examination for admission to the Naval Academy at Newport, R. I.

☞ Messrs. Waite and Dunyon, well known to the dry goods trade of this city, we understand, have taken the store of Messrs. Fisher Brothers, in Market street, and will open in a few days with a new stock of goods.

NAVAL.—The N. Y. Evening Post has the following:—

"There is an impression in naval circles, founded on an order issued by Sec. Wells, that the splendid steam frigate Colorado, 40 guns, of the Wabash and Niagara rank, has been ordered to the Mediterranean, and that two other ships-of-war are preparing for a like destination. It is certain that the Colorado is for foreign service, from the qvantity of stores she is taking in; and her great draught of water renders her almost useless on our seaboard."

The Boston Advertiser adds:—

"It is said that the steamer Colorado, 40, Capt. Bailey, is to be the flagship of the increased Mediterranean squadron. She has been overhauled with almost unexampled rapidity at the Portsmouth yard, and a crew and a guard of marines have been ordered to report for her."

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is

THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Danl. Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

EYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by medicine which he prepared, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since.

CAROLINE B. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.

SIMEON SWETT.

Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.

HANNAH ROWE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1858. Dr. Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest nigh and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."

WM. P. LEAVITT.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may20c

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Bubones, Orchitic Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of diseases, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr. D devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and terrible effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The mental effects on the mind are made to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and the best of fare for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving a description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

April 7—1y 8aw.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the action of his treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had a greater experience in the care of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

The Great Remedy for Bloody Affections, Rheumatism, Chronic Complaints

Excellent Wine for Females.

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE, celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent Physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefitting ladies and children.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James B. Pinder, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the best in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE,

MATHEWS' VENETIAN LIQUID HAIR DYE.

☞ MATHEWS' VENETIAN HAIR DYE.—This celebrated Dye was first prepared in 1840; since that time it has been USED BY THOUSANDS and in no instance has it failed to give PERFECT SATISFACTION.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is ONLY FIFTY CENTS, and each bottle contains DOUBLE THE QUANTITY OF DYE, contained in those usually sold for ONE DOLLAR.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the safest composition of its class. It is WARRANTED NOT TO INJURE the hair, or the scalp, in the least.

THE VENETIAN DYE works with RAPIDITY AND CERTAINTY. It causes no annoyance or trouble to those who use it.

THE VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired,—one that will not fade, rub off, nor wash out,—one that is as permanent as the hair itself.

THE VENETIAN DYE does not, in any manner, interfere with the NATURAL SOFTNESS OF THE HAIR,—it neither scorches nor dries it.

THE VENETIAN DYE is the best, cheapest, safest, most convenient, most successful, and most permanent Dye ever used.

VOL. 21. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. WEDNESDAY, OCT. 1, 1862. NO. 53

The Chronicle.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

From our Regular Correspondent.

HARLEM TERRACE, Sept. 28.

Dear Chronicle:—Tuesday morning after a daylight row of three miles at half past 5, and breakfast an hour later, finding that the morning copy of the Herald on the stoop published the President's Proclamation, (rather a stoop-endous affair by the way,) and a notice of the expected arrival of the "10th N. H.," your correspondent, after a delightful trip down in the steamboat which afforded him the regular ration of sea breeze and pure oxygen, and landed him at 8 A. M. in the city, started in search of his fellow-citizens of the Granite State and "clamshell corner" in particular.

Across the city at the point of debarkation of the Stonington line steamboats, I learned that two regiments were at the piers on the Jersey shore opposite; so concluding one of these to be the N. H. boys, I availed myself of the ferry facilities and soon found my suppositions verified.

The regiment had debarked and stacked arms upon the pier, and between and around them the men were grouped together, lolling in the shade, or seated watching what of interest was transpiring in the vicinity; and walking along the line the many familiar faces in Co. G arrested my attention, though previously unaware of their alphabetical insignia.

Here I found Laskey, Sanborn, Ball, Seavey, Gookin, Randall, Hodgdon and many others whose names I cannot at this moment recall, and after a hearty "shake-hands" all round, we improvised seats of planks, posts, barrels, boxes and knapsacks, and chatted on subjects of general and local interest. Home, its residents and surroundings, the theme, ripe with the richest fancies and lingered o'er longest by us all.

'Twas a pleasant hour I passed there with fellow-towsmen, old schoolmates, and after life companions, who are all as much credit to the regiment as is the latter to the State, on which point it is only necessary to add, —that it fully equals its illustrious predecessors,—well armed, splendidly equipped and composed of men of which other and more thickly peopled States might well be proud. The men were all in good spirits, and when Capt. Towle, in response to my wish for success remarked, "we're bound to have that, my friend!" he echoed the sentiments of his whole command.

I hear a bit of gossip of a marriage in high life, or as high as a couple hundred thousand elevates one,—the parties most intimately interested in which, were three weeks since utter strangers to each other, and rusticating at "Long Branch," and thereby like certain quarters of the cat, is pendant a narrative. One evening a ball was in progress at the hotel, and occupied the best part of the parlor, except the walls and ceiling, and of this fate the young lady in question was striving to obtain a glimpse through a window opening on the piazza, but being somewhat petite, could not reach the desired elevation without the aid of the then stranger gentleman's stool, which was gallantly offered. Later in the evening, (Wednesday) they were introduced by a mutual friend, and on the following Monday the gent had an interview with the parent of his to be affiance, and at the end of the three weeks, after many magnificent presents, (one of which was a bracelet valued at a thousand) the result is a "diamond wedding."

A most profound bow for that "accurate" compliment in my last. As you, not I, have the documents, I won't argue; but nothing is certain now-a-days but the correspondent telegrams to the New York papers, and the success of the C. S. A. However, considering the correspondence, I often wish you were "a-miss."

Among the "latest information" it is stated that a hungry brown dog resembles a bread manufacturer, inasmuch as—he is a bay-cur and kneads something to eat!—and that now the slaves are free, the next thing is for them to come North and freeze! Talk about your chocolate ice cream!

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1857.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street.
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and the other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but from its inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

Humphrey Marshall and Kirby Smith's forces on Sunday were reported to be at Cynthiana, Ky., 30,000 strong, moving towards Covington.

Brig. Gen. Quincy A. Gilmore has been assigned by Gen. Wright to the command of the District of Western Virginia, headquarters at Point Pleasant.

The Baltimore American states that on Saturday, Gen. McClellan's headquarters were removed to a point three miles nearer Harper's Ferry, which is now held in large force by our troops. At Williamsport there have been no active operations on either side. The rebels continue to picket the Virginia side of the river, whilst our troops do the same on this side. There, as elsewhere on the river, there is little or no firing between the pickets. There are reports that the rebels are fortifying Winchester and Martinsburg, but they are not generally credited in military circles.

A letter to the N. Y. Commercial, 28th, states that 27,000 troops left Washington, it is not stated whither.

A Maryland correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer gives an improbable rumor that the reason of the existing quiet in the armies on the Upper Potomac, is, that commissioners are on the way from the rebel Congress to propose terms of peace.

Gen. Halleck has issued a circular requesting the Governors of the loyal States, in order to fill vacancies, to promote non-commissioned officers and privates who have distinguished themselves. He well says—"without the hope of promotion there is no encouragement to a faithful performance of duty, and no stimulus to deeds of valor."

☞ A Washington correspondence in a New York paper says that Gen. Sigel asks to be relieved from his command because he has been placed under the command of a junior officer; because his command has been gradually reduced, and regiments raised expressly for him, have been assigned to others; because of the grossly abusive manner in which he has been treated by Gen. Halleck, and because of several other assigned reasons.

MANNING THE NAVY.—No European power can man war vessels so rapidly as we can now do. Hundreds of men who cannot be received, apply to enlist in the naval service. If a crew for a ship is wanted, Mr. Welles gives the order, and in twenty-four hours the required number of sailors and ordinary seamen are on board.

☞ Recruiting for the navy having increased in a marked manner of late, and a great number of large vessels having been reported ready for sea, the Secretary finds abundant resources at hand to keep up the usual strength of our naval fleets on the most important foreign stations.

There seems also to be an understanding that before many months the African and East India squadrons, which were alone reduced by the exigencies of the rebellion, will soon be placed on their old footing.

When writing for a daily paper, never use an adjective except in case of imperative necessity. Condense your sentences with a compound hydraulic pressure.—Portland Adv.

In the above four lines of advice, there are four adjectives, half of which are superfluous. We might say: Physician, heal thyself: but it is better to say, that a judicious choice of adjectives, and a proper use of them, are very important features in good writing. Moreover, this selection and use can hardly be taught by any rule, but must be governed by good taste. In the exercise of such taste, adjectives give beauty and strength to sentences which would otherwise be weak and insipid.

☞ By Cunard steamship Europa, from Liverpool 20th and Queenstown 21st, off Cape Race on Sunday afternoon, we have two days later news, which is however of very little importance. It is reported—not on good authority—that the steamer "No. 290" is off Holyhead. Jute has been found too brittle for a substitute for cotton and is losing its market value in consequence.—Cotton at Liverpool closed quiet at the late decline. Breadstuffs steady at a decline of 6d per barrel on flour and 2d per 100 lbs. on wheat.

☞ Late foreign advices give the following:—

"It is reported that three of the finest steamers on the Clyde—the Troona, Giraffe and Clydesdale—have been sold to the Confederates.

"The Liverpool Telegraph says:—'A large iron-plated ram is being constructed in the Mersey, without any attempt at concealment. It will be of the most formidable discription, and will attempt to run the blockade of Charleston. A vessel is lying at Liverpool with a cargo of iron plates destined for plating southern vessels.'"

☞ Canton and Macao have been visited by a violent typhoon. Immense damage was done. Forty thousand lives were lost.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A singular accident happened to the night train on the Northern Railroad, on Friday morning a short distance out of Lebanon. A bridge which had been carried off by the freshet, had just been reconstructed, but the temporary bridge by its side had not been removed. A rail which dropped from a freight train was lodged in such a position as to cause one end to project above the track, so that the locomotive could pass it, but so high as to strike the cars of the passenger train that came down at 2 o'clock. The baggage car was thrown from the track and the passenger cars terribly shaken up, though no serious injury occurred to the passengers. The false bridge which was left without any design, and was to be taken away at the first opportunity, saved the train from being thrown down an embankment fifteen or twenty feet. It was a wonderful escape.

—— A young man named Dodge had his arm and shoulder severely injured last Wednesday by being caught in the machinery at the Manchester Print Works, where he was employed.

—— Mr. C. G. Kelley, of Lower Gilmanton, had a fine dark brown mare stolen from the pasture near his residence on Monday evening.

—— Another good word for the 2d N. H. Regiment is found in the Statesman's Washington correspondence of Sept. 7. It says:—

"I have seen Col. Marston since commencing this communication. His regiment is at Alexandria. He is in command of the brigade. The bayonet charge which Col. Marston's brigade, led by the N. H. 2d, made near Bull Run, is said to have been the most terrific that has occurred on any field. Col. Cowdin, of the 1st Mass., in the same brigade, told me to day, that without hesitation he pronounced the New Hampshire Second Regiment the fighting men of this country, including their Colonel He knew me to be a native of Maine, and did not know I had any particular acquaintance with New Hampshire people."

—— Perley states that "Gov. Berry visited the New Hampshire regiments now encamped across the Potomac, and increased his well deserved popularity by his frank intercourse with officers and men, passing the night in camp that he might give all a chance to see him."

☞ Cincinnati and Louisville dispatches give some further particulars of the shooting of Gen. Nelson by Gen. Davis. It would appear that Gen. Davis was grossly insulted and lost command over himself. It is said that he is justified by those who know the facts. We do not learn that any attempt was made to arrest Gen. Davis.

☞ Fashionable ladies now, in Paris, carry small canes, with jewelled heads, when they promenade the public thoroughfares. In promenading our Fifth avenue about 5 P. M., on Sunday, says the N. Y. Sunday Times, American ladies also have sticks with them, very frequently, but their heads appear to be brazen, not gemmed as in the French metropolis.

☞ Three hundred and sixty-three disloyal citizens of Carrol county, Mo., have recently been assessed $11,000, for killing and wounding loyal soldiers and citizens, and for taking property belonging to said persons. The sums levied range from $2 to $1000 on each person. If the amount is not paid in ten days after notice, their property will be seized and sold.

☞ Letters from New Orleans say of taking the oath of allegiance, that the rich have held back to the last, but the most wealthy citizen of New Orleans, Mr. Milledon, took the oath not many days ago, and since that time, persons only less substantial in pecuniary matters have followed his example.

☞ The Rutland Herald mentions a company of Vermont sharpshooters just recruited for Berdan's Regiment, and says there is not a man in the crowd that would not hold up a shingle for his next friend to shoot at, at 200 yards—and all have that knowledge of wood-craft and hunting that especially qualifies them for the peculiar service of the sharpshooter.

☞ La Franca asserts that a majority of the Juarez Government has decided on proposing terms of capitulation to French Commander Forey, on the basis of the surrender of the City of Mexico and Puebla to the French.

☞ Gen. Hooker has postponed his visit to the North. He has asked and received twenty days' leave of absence for the members of his staff, who have been in service with him continuously since he was commissioned.

☞ The News Letter states that a Baptist deacon down in Maine, in less than fifteen months, buried one wife, married a second, was divorced from her, and married a third.

☞ The English physician sent to Garibaldi has reported favorably. He declares that the ball never entered, but struck and broke the inner ankle. The wound progresses favorably.

☞ Hon. B. F. Hallett died at his residence in Boston, on Tuesday morning, after a protracted illness. Mr. Hallett has been for many years a prominent and influential member of the Suffolk Bar. Under Buchanan's administration he held the office of U. S. District Attorney. In his younger days he took a very active part in politics, and for many years was regarded as one of the leaders of the Democracy in Massachusetts. He was sixty-four years of age.

☞ A bill is in the rebel Congress authorizing the Secretary of State to offer a reward not exceeding five thousand dollars for the apprehension and conviction of persons engaged in counterfeiting Confederate notes. In the House, a bill has been introduced establishing military defences along the banks of the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers to resist the advance of the enemy into Tennessee and Alabama, and for the construction of twelve gunboats for the protection of the said rivers and States.

THE NORMANDIE.—To the French belongs the honor of having sent the first iron-clad war vessel across the Atlantic.—The French iron-clad steamer Normandie reached Sacrificios, Mexico, on the 4th inst. It is said she made an excellent passage from Cherbourg. Her speed was fourteen miles an hour, under full steam; but she ordinarily was only permitted to make six or seven.

☞ On Wednesday night, a jewelry store in Belfast, Me., was entered, the safe opened and a complete sweep made of everything valuable, watches, silver ware, &c. False keys were used on the store and safe doors. The whole loss cannot be less than $4000.

DAKOTAH is to be represented in the next Congress by William Jayne, brother-in-law to Senator Trumbull, and not by Gen. Todd, brother of Mrs. Lincoln, who failed by 150 votes.

☞ The War Department is discussing the propriety of organizing flank companies of sharpshooters to each regiment, or attaching a battalion to each brigade.

A brother in a prayer-meeting prayed for President Lincoln, that he might be as wise as a serpent and harmless as a dove! The pastor was overheard saying, "the Lord forbid, but give him grace to hurt somebody."

☞ The Pensacola correspondent of Forney's Press, under date of Sept. 19th, writes that the steam frigate Susquehanna has been condemned and will proceed home at the first opportunity. The Iroquois has her machinery injured and goes home soon.

☞ Two sisters, named Munzia and Maria Granata, fought a duel at Naples a few weeks ago, from motives of jealousy. The combat took place with the national weapon—the knife—and one of the sisters was killed on the spot, while the other, who still survives, received as many as eighteen wounds.

The undersigned, by permission of the City authorities, have opened a Recruiting Office at

J. B. ADAMS' STORE,
No. 3 CONGRESS BLOCK,

For the enlistment of men for the period of nine months. It is intended to make this a first class company, and we call upon young and old to rally for their country, and help put down this Rebellion that is desolating our glorious Country.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE!

A Sure Relief for the Sufferer!

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 16th century by Dr. WM. GRACE, surgeon to King James' army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day; and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor. The Salve is used for the following diseases:—Burns, Bruises, Felons, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Boils Scurvy, Sore Lips, Sore Ears, Swelled Nose, Ulcers, Lame Joints, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Ringworms, Sprains, Flesh Wounds, Erysipelas, Scalds, Stings of Venomous Insects, Piles, Bunions, Frozen Limbs, Nettle Rash, Sore Breast, Wens, Eruptions, Festers, Shingles, Cancers, Whitlows, Itch, Sties. Lame Wrist, and Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature, without leaving a scar. It will also cure pimples on the face, and beautify the Skin.

There are thousands who are suffering for months and even years in consequence of Sores and wounds that might be cured in a short time by the use of this great external Salve. It has never failed to effect a speedy cure when properly applied. This Salve has none of the irritating heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand, for it will save them trouble, suffering and money; and in many cases it has saved life itself. The manufacturer receives testimonials daily, from some of our most distinguished citizens, expressing benefits derived from its use. This Salve is warranted to give perfect satisfaction in every disease that it professes to cure; if not, the money will be refunded.

☞ There are several questions yet unanswered, concerning "our quotas," or our "quoto," as about one half the people call it. Are they full in Portsmouth? Or must we draft for them? If so, when? And if the Naval recruits count in the quotas, are they not entitled to a bounty, as many other towns have voted? Who will answer these queries? and meantime who says our people are asleep? and who can wake 'em up, if they are?

☞ Dr. Perry of Exeter, examining physician for exempts in this county, is stopping at the Franklin House in this city, and has multitudes of callers. A very large per centage of all enrollments are exempts.

☞ In addition to the Agamenticus, ironclad, and the Nipsic, screw steamer, recently ordered to be built at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, there is a third,—a side-wheel steamer to be called the Sassacus.

RUN OFF THE TRACK.—The Mirror states that the train from Portsmouth to Manchester ran off the track on Friday night, just below the passenger station in that city, by the misplacement of a switch, which was set for the Lawrence train, which usually arrives first. The engine and baggage car were thrown from the track. The wood work of the engine was smashed, and the passengers had somewhat of a fright, but as the train was moving slowly at the time, all escaped without injury. The train was delayed but a short time.

McGREGOR'S PATENT
AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING
FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Dani. Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended in the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, which he prepared, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since. CAROLINE B. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.
SIMEON SWETT.
Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.
HANNAH ROWE.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWEETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. H. LOWD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1858. Dr Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."
WM. P. LEAVITT.

From ELDER I CRESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CRESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWEETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

Morning Chronicle.

☞ Another of the Old Stage Drivers has gone to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets. James M. Pike, Esq. of Epping, departed this life on Friday last, Sept. 25, in the 71st year of his age. He was in 1818, the driver of a Coach between Newburyport and Boston, belonging to the Eastern Stage Company. He was a careful and skilful driver. It used to be said of him and the other driver on the route, that "Pike and Brown would drive a coach and four horses round in a place where the coach could not be got round by hand." Mr. Pike was afterwards Agent of the same company in Boston, and was well known to the hosts of visiters at the then firmous Eastern Stage House in Ann-street. At a later period he was an Innholder on the road between Newmarket and Concord, and for many years past has resided at his fine mansion near Epping corner, whence he has been transferred to the better country.

Mr. Pike was a bachelor; but he was not lonely, for he made friends wherever he went: being friendly, kind, and hospitable, he was never without some relative or stranger to share his board: and his honesty and fairness were held in general esteem.

His burial took place on Sunday, when Rev. Mr. Goldsmith delivered the funeral discourse, and prayers were offered by the other resident ministers, Rev. Messrs. Newhall and Stearns.

—— The finest specimen of red tape we have ever heard of was purchased by Col. Marston, of the N. H. 2d. He wanted to make a requisition, and the camp was ransacked for a sheet of paper, but only half a sheet could be found. He wrote the requisition, and waited quietly for a response, which he received. It read about as follows:—"When Col. Marston has occasion to make use of a requisition upon this department, he will please make use of a whole sheet of paper. Very respectfully, &c."

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the!

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal for baking to an old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Findar, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the best in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

MATHEW'S ARNICA HAIR GLOSS

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter churningly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is retailed at only Twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

Burleigh writes from New York city to the Boston Journal, as follows:—

One of the N. H. 6th regiment boys had quite a cruise the other day. He came up from Bedloe's Island on one day's furlough. He had been quite sick with the typhoid fever and was very weak. Some one invited him into a saloon, where he drank and became excited. He took an omnibus and offered as fare two three-cent stamps. These the driver rejected. The soldier said he had no other money. The driver called him names—said he was an imposter—wore soldier clothes to deceive—and attempted to drive him away by punching him with the butt end of his whip through the money hole. The soldier drew his revolver, put it through the hole and shot the driver through the hip. The man was at once arrested and locked up in the tombs. Alone, sick, weak and friendless, it was suggested to send for Col. Frank E. Howe. He went at once to court and found Judge Barney, Wm. M. Evarts and Wm. Curtis Noyes trying a case together. Judge Barney, as a New Hampshire boy, at once offered services and money to the soldier, as did the other gentlemen. The soldier was bailed out, and more sinned against than sinning, he was let go, and the case will not go hard with him.

—— The Tenth New Hampshire met with an accident after leaving Baltimore on their way to Washington, an engine sent to aid their train around a curve striking the last car with such force as to throw from the platform James Baldwin of Co. D who had his right ankle broken. When almost at Washington, Sergeant Cole of Co. D, by some means fell from one of the cars and was caught under the wheels and dragged a long distance, throwing off one of the cars, which was dragged over the cobble stones for nearly a mile. The body was found horribly mangled beside the track.

—— The Manchester American has learned, by conversation with several farmers recently, that the potato crop is not remarkably large this year, and what is worse, in many localities there are indications of rot. Some fields which have been dug show a large per cent. of decayed tubers.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent-Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but from its location, inventors have advantage for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

The Charleston Mercury of the 25th inst. says that there are grounds for believing that the Federals are sending heavy reinforcements to Hilton Head, and along the shores of Broad river. Pinckney Island is now occupied by a large body of troops.

Gen. Morgan left Cumberland Gap with all his force about two weeks ago, and is now well on his way to the Ohio river.—On evacuating the Gap, Gen. Morgan sprung the mines, closing the passage through the mountains so completely as to make it entirely impassable. All the stores, artillery and munitions of war were either brought away or destroyed.

It is denied that Gen. Buell has been relieved of his command.

Gen. McClellan in his official report of the battles of South Mountain and Antietam estimates the whole rebel loss in killed, wounded and prisoners, at 30,000 of their best troops, 4000 being killed. At South Mountain our loss was 443 dead, 1806 wounded and 76 missing. Total 2325. At Antietam our loss was 2010 killed, 9416 wounded and 1043 missing. Total 12,469. Total in the two battles, 14,794. We took at least 5000 prisoners. The full returns will no doubt show a larger number. Of these about 1200 are wounded. From the time our troops first encountered the enemy in Maryland, until he was driven back into Virginia, we captured 13 guns, 7 caissons, 9 limbers, 2 field forges, 2 caisson bodies, 39 colors and one signal flag. We have not lost a single gun or a color. On the battle field of Antietam 14,000 small arms were collected, besides the large number carried off by citizens and those distributed on the ground to recruits and other unarmed men, arriving immediately after the battle. At South Mountain no collection of small arms was made, but owing to the hasty pursuit from that point 400 were taken on the opposite side of the Potomac.

☞ Surgeon General Moore reports that the number of rebel sick and wounded received in the Richmond hospitals since their organization is 99,508. Of these 9774 have been furloughed, 2341 have been discharged, and 7603 have died. At the Chimborazo hospital there were received 24,895, of which 2023 have died. At the Winter hospital the number received was 22,874, of which 1271 died. The whole number of sick and wounded received in the Petersburg hospitals was 11,170. Here, as in Richmond, the smallest number of deaths occurred in the hospitals superintended by the ladies.

A detachment from Gen. Sigel's corps was forwarded on Tuesday, to Warrenton where they captured 1200 rebels and large quantities of stores.

There were several important reconnoissances into Virginia on Monday.

A Port Royal letter says "the steamer Nashville is penned up in the Ogeechee river, and she cannot escape. John M. Mason, late her chief officer, was captured on a pilot boat. Charleston and Savannah are still being fortified. Gen. Mitchell is said to be maturing his plans for an attack on Charleston. Our force at Port Royal has been considerably increased. The Fingal, a rebel ram, is nearly completed at Savannah. The two others will probably prove failures."

☞ Washington correspondence states that the declaration of Secretary Seward to England concerning letters of marque causes a sensation among the representatives of Foreign Powers. They regard it as tantamount to an official recognition of the rebels as belligerents.

The same correspondence states that intelligence has been received that 15,000 tons of iron for plating vessels are on the way from England to the South.

☞ The N. Y. Commercial's correspondent, referring to the shooting of Gen. Nelson, says:

There was almost a duel here not many weeks since between two Generals high in rank, and the end is not yet. Gen. Nelson has had weapons levelled at him repeatedly by officers to whom he has used language of the most insulting nature and has recanted. This time his life has paid the forfeit.

☞ Col. Vance, the new Governor of North Carolina, delivered his inaugural at Raleigh on the 8th ult. It is moderate in tone generally, though when speaking of the treatment received by the North Carolina troops at the hands of the rebel government, his language is quite bitter and sarcastic.

☞ Henry Wait, a passenger on his way from Vermont to New York, while leaving a car in the Hartford depot on Saturday evening, had his pocket picked of a pocket-book containing $600 in bank bills, and twenty-five thousand dollars in drafts of various descriptions.

☞ Gov. Andrew has issued an order postponing the draft in Massachusetts, to the 15th of October, at nine o'clock in the forenoon.

THE ALTOONA CONVENTION — CARD BY GOV. BERRY.—New York, Sept. 29.—Having been requested to read the New York Herald of to-day, so far as it describes the purposes and doings of the late conference of Governors at Altoona, and happening to be the only member of that conference now in this city, I do not hesitate to say that the implications contained in the correspondence from Altoona are without foundation in fact.

The meeting was characterized by the most kindly feeling, harmony of sentiment, and unanimity of action, in support of the Government in a most vigorous prosecution of the war, for the suppression of the rebellion. (Signed) N. S. BERRY,
Governor of New Hampshire.

Gov. WASHBURN, of Maine, whose character for veracity needs no voucher where he is known, has just returned from the Governor's meeting at Altoona, Pennsylvania,—and in an interview with the editor of the Portland Press, "Gov. W. said he took pains, carefully to read the account of that meeting, as given in the New York Herald, from its "special" and "reliable" correspondent—which account was telegraphed to the Press—and, singular as it may seem, the only solitary truth contained in that account, was the statement of the naked fact that such a meeting was being held at Altoona. There was not the first element of truth in any other statement made in that famous dispatch."

Great pains have been taken by the N. Y. Herald and its echoes, to charge the loyal governors with some dreadful plot against the Union, the generals, and above all, of a plot against slavery. For the first two charges, Gov. W. says there is no foundation in truth. The last, no doubt, is true; for they endorse the President's proclamation of emancipation,—and Gov. Tod of Ohio proposed to tender congratulations to the President, and to express the hope that "as he had spoken the great word, he would follow it by striking the great blow; and to assure him that they, backed by their respective States, were ready, willing and anxious to help him."

A SINGULAR CASE.—A case somewhat remarkable in most of its features was heard before the Superior Court recently. A young lady, the daughter of a Baptist clergyman, in Amesbury, Massachusetts, was seduced by a man who was married, but, as was stated, the fact of his marriage was unknown to his victim at the time, and it was upon his promise to marry her that he succeeded in his design. In order to hide her shame from her parents, she left her home ostensibly for the purpose of visiting some friends in Maine. But taking a circuitous route, she passed through a portion of that State, went to several places in New Hampshire, and finally stopped at Francestown, and there gave birth to a child. After she had sufficiently recovered from her illness, she went in company with her seducer, to York, Me. In the night time she went to the house of a clergyman, carrying the child, and opened the hall door of his house, deposited the little one, and there left it.—Awakened by its cries, the occupant soon after went to the door, and found the child. The gentleman had no children, and upon consulting with his wife, concluded to adopt the little stranger.

The mother, without the knowledge of her parents, made several visits to the place and saw the child. At length the clergyman was called upon to fill a position as pastor in Cambridge, Mass. Here again, it seems, the mother saw and visited the child. Her father soon after dying, she could no longer conceal her desire to repossess her offspring. She related the whole story to her mother, who at once seconded her proposal to obtain possession of the child. A keen lawyer, a resident of Salem, was consulted, who obtained a writ of habeas corpus and had the child produced in court.

Here facts were developed, showing that the mother had before applied for the child, but the affections of those who had nursed and reared it, were so twined about it, that no inducement could be offered them to part with it. It is further shown that both the mother and grandmother, as well as those who adopted it, possessed ample means for its education, and for everything that could be desired. After the hearing of the arguments a recess was taken. When the Court came in, it was announced that its conclusion was, that when the mother left her child in the residence of its foster-parents, she made an implied contract with them to this effect, that if they chose to take the child they could do so; and they, upon consultation, concluded to accept that offer, and th econtract was complete. The child must be remanded to its former guardians. The counsel for the mother then asked that she might be allowed to take the child and keep it for some weeks, to which the court replied emphatically in the negative, but said that she might take the child for a reasonable time. When the decision was known, the anguish of the mother seemed unendurable; there was not a dry eye in the court room, but the decision of the court was admitted as in every sense just and proper.—Marlboro', Mass., Journal.

☞ The salt bill has passed the Virgina Legislature. ☞ Lucifer Matches are now made in which paraffine replaces sulphur as an inflammable coating to the wood. The injury inflicted upon articles of silver ware by the fumes of sulphurous matches, as well as the disagreeable odor, is thus avoided, and the paraffine matches are also very much less likely to become useless from dampness.—The cost of matches is not enhanced by the substitution.

ORDINATION.—Mr. James DeNormandie from the Divinity School at Cambridge, was ordained pastor of the Unitarian Church in this city, on Wednesday, Oct. 1, in the presence of a full congregation, after passing the examination of a very large ordaining council. The following was the order of exercises:—

Voluntary and Anthem. Invocation, by Rev. Dr. Lothrop. Reading the Scriptures, by Rev. H. W. Foote. Prayer, by Rev. Eugene DeNormandie. Hymn. Sermon, by Rev. Dr. Gannett. Original Hymn. Ordaining Prayer, by Rev. Dr. Peabody, late pastor. Charge, by Rev. E. E. Hale. Right Hand of Fellowship, by Rev. C. Y. DeNormandie. Original Hymn. Address to the People, by Rev. Dr. Briggs. Concluding Prayer, by Rev. Dr. Morison. Doxology. Benediction by the Pastor.

The services were appropriate to the occasion, and highly satisfactory to all concerned, introducing the new pastor to an important field of labor, and the people to a young minister of good promise, with the best wishes of the community for their prosperity.

The church was finely decorated with flowers. After the services, the ordaining council, with the ministers of the city, dined at the Rockingham House.

ONE OF DR. KANE'S COMPANIONS.—If any one going over to the Navy Yard will take the whale boat with a blue stripe, lying at the foot of Daniel street, he will be rowed over by one of Dr. Kane's companions during the memorable two winters spent in the Arctic regions. Mr. William Huzza is one of the few survivors of the sixteen who went out on the second expedition. He shipped under the name of Riley, and is so mentioned in Dr. Kane's volumes. He has a discharge from the Doctor's own hand. An interview with one who has passed through such scenes will be interesting doubtless to many of our readers. G.

☞ A correspondent says he went into the well known extensive Clothing House of Moses & Gerrish, on Market street, a day or two since, and it took not half so long as it did for him to write this ¶, for those popular clothiers to divest him of his old vest, &c., and invest him with a new vest, &c.,—which one garment referred to, &c., comprised a full suit,—in which he felt like making a conquest of all rebeldom, and a request of us to Chronicle the fact that this is one the best places to get a Fall and Winter outfit. This we willingly do, with the writer's endorsement; all the more readily, as he says he has never seen our commendations of this house, though for years one of the heaviest in the city in the business, and one of our most liberal advertisers. We can't say as to the fact of omission; but if our reporters have always skipped Moses & Gerrish, in making up their local trade records, it must have been because they thought the public knew them already, and that they "needed no bush." And we will add, that the fact that they have always taken every pains to keep their business before the people, is very strong evidence that they are posted up in their trade—as also, the same remark will apply to most others of the army of clothiers in this city, whose advertisements will be found in our columns. 1t

☞ A neat and handy place to get nice fruit, cake, beer, cigars, &c., is at Gerrish's Refreshment Rooms, Market Square, corner of Daniel street—and but for our fear of that Ballot fellow, we would say, that we were taken in there a few days since and done for. The old gentleman of the establishment has got more "music" in him yet, than half the young exempts and skedaddlers.

☞ Lieut. Commander H. C. Blake has been detached from the Sabine, and ordered to the temporary command of the R. R. Cuyler, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, vice Lieut. Commander Wm. C. West.

☞ The Fair at Jefferson Hall will be open to the public this afternoon and evening, at 2 and 7 o'clock. Admittance only 15 cents. tf

☞ The Boston Transcript gives the following extract from a private letter from Philadelphia, dated Sept. 29th, giving some further particulars of the wound received by Gen. Dana, who, it will be remembered, is a native of this city:—

Gen. Dana is here. The ball entered the side of his leg, about midway between the knee and ankle, cut through the muscles and lodged on the tibia, over which it was cut out on the field of battle. He did not dismount for the purpose, and rode for a long time after the operation. His first horse was killed under him, pierced by three balls. His wound has become greatly inflamed, to the extent of serious consequences, and to-day the surgeon reports that the fibula is probably broken; but it is nothing to his Cerro Gordo wound.

—— Perley states that Col. Marston, of the 2d N. H. Regiment, is to be promoted to a Brigadier Generalship.

☞ The Oregon Legislature has memorialized Congress for arms and ammunition for the defense of the State, and for an iron-clad vessel at the mouth of the Columbia.

☞ Commodore Vanderbilt is converting the steamship Vanderbilt, lately given by him to the Government, into a man-of-war. She will carry 12 guns of heavy calibre.

☞ The different fire companies of Philadelphia are preparing ambulances, in anticipation of the time when they will be intrusted with the entire conveyance of sick and wounded to the hospitals, should it be decided to accept their services.

A woman was convicted in New Haven last week as a "common scold," under an old statute. The law applies only to females.

☞ Thanksgiving Day in New York—Nov. 25th.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest!

The Best!

The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Rock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

"The Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Daul. Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1861. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by taking my stomach prepared by medicine which he prepared, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since.

CAROLINE B. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.

SIMEON SWETT.

Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for humors.

HANNAH ROWE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after taking it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWE.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1858. Dr. Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and I feel assured that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."

WM. P. LEAVITT.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may20o

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and cast iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelsig up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pindar, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use!

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

MATHEWS' ARNICA HAIR GLOSS

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

LIBERAL.—So far as sustaining the war, by means of money and men are concerned, Haverhill, Mass., cannot be charged with backwardness or indifference. The action of the town at the last meeting, in voting away $60,000 bounty money, for 300 nine months volunteers, when it was well-known that she had raised without them 98 men more than her quota on both calls at an expense of about $10,000 more,—making 400 men and an expenditure of $70,000 more than was required of her—shows a degree of liberality to which there are but few parallels.

☞ The venerable Rev. Dr. Waldo, of Syracuse, N. Y., was 100 years old, on the 10th day of September. On Sunday the 14th, he preached for Dr. Sprague of Albany, a sermon 35 minutes long, to a great audience, and on his return from church expressed his belief that he could preach three times on a Sabbath without any inconvenience. On the following day he visited the Female Academy, and after going up three flights of stairs, without the least indication of weariness, he offered prayer and made an address to the young ladies.

☞ An explosion took place at the Arsenal, Columbus, Ky., on Thursday, the 25th inst., by which one hundred thousand dollars' worth of ammunition was destroyed. No lives lost. This was a Federal loss. The immense gun factory at Rome, Ga., was totally destroyed by fire a few weeks since. Loss in machinery and unfinished guns, $75,000. This is a serious disaster to the rebel government.

☞ A newspaper correspondent states that one little fellow who was in Col. Miles' force at Harper's Ferry, before the surrender, used to say he never would surrender his gun. Monday put his courage to the test. When ordered to stack his gun, he said 'never!' and struck it furiously across a stump; the gun was loaded, and as he broke it, it went off, the charge entered his abdomen, and he died next day.

☞ W. A. Goodwin, of Portland, Me., who was deputed by the Lighthouse Board to visit the different stations on the Mississippi, where the rebels had destroyed the lights, states that fifteen lighthouses on the river were somewhat damaged by the rebels, but all can easily be repaired.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Also, Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not unquestionably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none OF MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast amount of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on none rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Pleasanton crossed the Potomac at Sheppardstown, on Wednesday, to make a reconnoissance. He came up with the rebels near Sheppardstown, and drove them to Martinsburg, from which place they were shelled out. The loss on both sides was small. The railroad bridge at Harper's Ferry is nearly re-built.

Lieut. Com'g Morgan, acting under orders from Com. Harwood, has blown up seven heavy, bomb-proof magazines of the rebels at Lower Shipping Point. A small body of dragoons, who appeared, were dispersed by a volley of musketry.

It is reported that the larger portion of Gen. Buell's army has moved toward the interior of Kentucky, in several columns and over different roads.

A letter from the Upper Potomac says the rebels have begun demonstrations on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Bridges, culverts and embankments are being destroyed, and the stock and sails carried off.

The New Orleans correspondent of the New York Express says that Baton Rouge is still held by our gunboats. The Federal troops have been withdrawn, but there is no rebel force in or near it. Nor has it been burned. A few buildings only were destroyed.

The Baltimore American says the Monitor has been towed up the Chesapeake, probably to Washington.

Another large side-wheel steamer, supposed to be the Hero, has escaped from Charleston. It is said the British steamer Lloyd arrived at Liverpool, 20th, from Charleston with 1775 bales of cotton.

☞ The N. Y. Post prints a letter—declared to be genuine—from the wife of a Virginia slaveholder, who is in the rebel army, to their former slave, now a freeman at Fortress Monroe, asking for provisions and money, as she is left without support for herself and children, and is "in need of everything." The letter is a curiosity. The woman says:

"I have no money of any kind that would pass. I want you to send me some bacon and sugar and coffee, and other things you can get that I want. I have no money to buy a thing with. You have had twelve months' freedom to make money in—it is time to do something for me and my children. They are in want of clothes, and the winter is coming on. If you do not send me some money they will perish with the cold, for wood is very high, and I am not able to buy any now to cook with. We have done all in our power for you until you left us, and can you hear of your master's children starving and you able to work and help them? No, I cannot believe it."

THE CASE OF MAJOR KEY.—The circumstances attending the dismissal of Major Key are said to be as follows:—

"An officer had reported that Major Key, in reply to the question why McClellan did not move on the rebels and crush them on the day following the great battle of Antietam, said: 'Because that was not the programme. The programme is to prolong the war until the next Presidential election, and then settle it with the rebels on the old Democratic principles.' The President summoned before him the officer who reported the language, also Major Key, examined the case, and gave Major Key his walking papers."

COCKCROW.—We always had a fancy for a lusty crow, and once wrote some verses on it, which we have never published and never may—unless we see fit to do so. Thoreau speaks a good deal better of it in his golden prose. "The merit of this bird's strain," says he, "is in its freedom from all plaintiveness. The singer can easily move us to tears or to laughter, but where is he who can excite in us a pure morning joy? When, in doleful dumps, breaking the awful stillness of our wooden sidewalk on a Sunday, or, perchance, a watcher in the house of mourning, I hear a cockerel crow far or near, I think to myself, 'There is one of us well, at any rate,' and with a sudden gush return to my senses." It is even so; this bird's brave note has no particle of melancholy in it; it is all fresh, healthy, and of the morning. We would not try housekeeping in the country a month, unless we kept one of these children of Nature at the door to remind us all the while that the Present is worth two of the Past, and always will be.—Banner of Light.

☞ The Philadelphia Press says:—"The armies of the republic are marshalling for the last time in the history of the great rebellion. The organization which exists now must remain to the end of this war. Soon an advance will be made very generally, in every direction and by every corps of the army. The day has been fixed, the leaders have been chosen and assigned to their positions, and the necessary orders have been written."

☞ Eli Thayer has received applications from upwards of 1000 persons desirous of joining his Florida colony. It is understood that the government delays the necessary papers because it is unwilling to call for armed emigrants until the States have filled their quotas of troops.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Jeremiah Young, of Wolfboro', a member of Co. H, 5th Regiment, committed suicide by hanging, Sept. 26th. He was wounded in the battle of Fair Oaks, and was discharged, but apparently was in a fair way to recover, with the loss of one eye. Within a few days he had expressed a fear that he should become insane. A few minutes before he committed the act, he was cheerfully playing with a little girl. He gave it to its mother, and went to the barn. His long absence was remarked by his daughter, who went to the barn, found the doors all fastened upon the inside, and upon looking through a crack in the door, saw her father suspended from the girt, his knees resting on the floor. She immediately gave an alarm, but life was extinct.

—— J. M. Lovering, Esq., Collector for the First District of New Hampshire, has appointed Mr. Nathaniel M. Jewell of Exeter a Deputy Collector for Rockingham and Strafford counties.

—— Mr. Charles W. Stephens, son of Elder Stephens of Exeter, has been appointed Assistant Paymaster in the Army and ordered to Louisville, Ky.

—— The Commissioner of Pensions has appointed Dr. William G. Perry, of Exeter, an Examining Surgeon.

—— The Manchester American states that quite a number of the citizens on Stark Corporation have been visited lately by burglars, who have entered their dwellings by night and taken various articles. One lady lost thirty-four dollars, which were taken from her trunk. Four or five houses have been entered, but most of the articles purloined were of small value.

—— A Manchester Company, of 94 nine months' volunteers, were to leave for camp at Concord on Thursday.

☞ Rev. Chas. Greenwood, of Westmoreland, has been unanimously cast out of the orthodox congregational ministry by a council who have had his case before them since March, 1859. The particular offence is not named in the document.

☞ Rev. Albert W. Fiske, formerly of Kittery, has resigned his pastorship at Fishkerville.

☞ The correspondent of the New York Times telegraphs from Washington that he has the best authority for contradicting the statement to the effect that Peace Commissioners had been sent here by the rebel Congress to propose a compromise.

At best life is not very long. A few more smiles, a few more tears, some pleasures, much pain, sunshine and song, clouds and darkness, hasty greetings, abrupt farewells; then our little play will close, and injured and injurer will pass away. Is it worth while to hate each other?

☞ At an enthusiastic German meeting in Philadelphia, one of the speakers denounced the statement that Gen. Sigel had resigned or was about to do so, as a mischievous falsehood.

☞ It is said the Vermont State Fair did not prove to be a paying affair, the receipts being only $2476, and the expenses $3500. This deficit will make quite a draft in the surplus on the treasury of the society.

☞ The Baltimore American says: The Union sentiment is ten fold stronger to-day in Baltimore and Maryland, than it was before the rebels invaded our State. American flags are seen in all directions.

☞ It has been said that "An Englishman is never happy but when he is miserable; a Scotchman never at home but when he is abroad; and an Irishman never at peace but when he is fighting."

☞ The Richmond Dispatch, in an article favoring a law for the removal of negroes from regions threatened by the Union army, says: "Whenever the Federals have advanced the negroes have been swept off as clean as the Eastern locusts sweep a field of grain."

☞ By a singular blunder in the tax bill the tax on silver plate is, according to the literal reading, imposed only on those owners who keep a "carriage, yacht and billiard table."

☞ An effort is making in Washington to establish in that city a circulating library for the free use of sick and wounded soldiers.

☞ The tax on the Chinese in California has been pronounced unconstitutional. The question has been brought before the Supreme Court, and determined.

A SERIOUS TROUBLE AHEAD.—If the threatened increased scarcity of change should occur, it is feared that even the Moon will find it difficult to make its quarters.

☞ Robert H. Newell, Esq., ("Orpheus C. Kerr," of the N. Y. Mercury,) was married about a week since to Miss Adah Isaacs Menken, the actress.

☞ The oldest mounted regiment in the Regular service is the First Cavalry—formerly called the First dragoons. It was organized in August, 1833. The Cavalry force of the Regular Army, as re-organized last month, consists of six regiments—7584 men and officers.

☞ It is remarkable that a settlement of Quakers near Mount Vernon have remained unmolested during the entire war, though alternately included within National and rebel lines. Their semi-weekly meetings have been regularly continued; sometimes a rebel picket pacing in front of the building, and perhaps a Union sentinel having the same beat the next week. They have remained undisturbed both in property and in person.

☞ A singular establishment exists in Russia—the imperial hotel for old, worn-out horses, built in the park of the Tsarkoe Selo, for the reception of animals employed in the service of the Emperor. A special cemetery is annexed to the building, and tombstones record the names of the horses buried, those of the sovereigns who have ridden them, as well as the battles and memorable events at which the animals have been present.

"The Chinese wall around the trade of the country," which we are told was erected by Congress in the passage of the present tariff, would seem to be pretty easily scaled or pretty easily penetrated. The "utterly prohibitory duties" do not seem to keep out the prohibited articles. The receipts into the New York custom house are enormous. The consumption of the articles formerly free, but now burdened with high duties, does not seem to have perceptibly fallen off. In fact the predictions of the free traders have been signally disappointed, and the expectations of those who framed the new revenue system as signally vindicated.—Providence Journal.

☞ It is stated that with comparatively few exceptions, no part of our army is more than one payment in arrears. The next steamer for the Gulf will probably take out money to pay our men in that department.

Regulations have been established for the collection of the taxes on the salaries of persons in the pay of the government.

☞ Geo D. Prentice, of Louisville, sustains a severe bereavement, in the mortal wounding of his son—a Lieut. Colonel in the rebel service,—at the battle before Augusta, Ky. He will receive the fullest sympathy of all his friends here and elsewhere. Such is one of the many instances of the unfortunate divisions of families in our civil war.

☞ The irrepressible Charles Henry Foster, whose claim as a member of Congress from North Carolina has been rejected two or three times, is again canvassing his district as confidently as ever. It is thought that at least two districts in the State will choose representatives at the usual election.

MATCHED AGAIN.—Robert Fillingham is matched for $2000 against General Butler, the former to go to harness and the latter to saddle, mile heats, best 3 in 5. It is a bona fide race and will excite much attention. The latter is a black gelding and has proved very fast. The trot will come off on Wednesday, the 8th inst., at New York.

☞ A boy died in Cincinnati, on Friday last, from inhaling ashes. It appears that by some accident he turned over a barrel of ashes, and swallowed so much of the fine alkaline portions of them which surrounded him that they suspended vitality, and death ensued in a very short time.

☞ The chime of bells in the tower of the Union Church, Portland, have been taken down, and are to be sold, and the proceeds appropriated towards the purchase of an organ for the church.

The San Jacinto will be ready for sea in two or three days, and it is rumored that she will join the North Atlantic blockading squadron.

☞ Hon. A. H. Rice, of Boston, publishes a letter unequivocally declining a re-election to Congress from the people of his District.

☞ A citizen of New York, now traveling in Italy, has presented to the Central Park an elegant gondola, made to order in Venice.

☞ It is estimated at the Navy Department that there are forty thousand enlisted men in the navy at this time.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!
The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see that they buy none other than these.
"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.
The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.
The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

☞ A few months ago, at least three of our city churches were without pastors—whereas now all are supplied. The Unitarian Church had been without a minister for about two years—from the removal of Rev. Dr. Peabody to Cambridge, till the settlement of Mr. DeNormandie, a day or two since. Their new pastor has two brothers in the ministry, both of whom were present and took part in his ordination, as before named.

☞ Who says it always rains on or about the 20th of September? And who recommends putting off the County Fair till Oct. 1st? "No doubt ye are the man, and wisdom will die with ye;" but the weather, like "white folks, is very uncertain"—the nigger is a sure thing, now, they say. "Go 'long, dar!"

THE RAVEL TROUPE.—The great Ravel Troupe, despite the inclemency of the weather, have drawn large and appreciating audiences, a third of the house on their opening night being ladies. The performances gave very general satisfaction, particularly the vocal and instrumental music. The performances of Zanfretta, the terpsichorean display by the other ladies, and the athletic feats of the Siegrist Brothers were applauded to the echo. We are requested to say that their last performance will be given this evening.

ROCKINGHAM REGIMENT.—There was a meeting at the Squamscott House on Monday of persons interested in raising a nine months' regiment in Rockingham Co.; but the meeting having been advertised in Boston papers only, the attendance was not large. Considerable disappointment was manifested because Portsmouth was not represented at the meeting, and we understand a committee was appointed to visit Portsmouth to see what can be done. We have no doubt an excellent regiment might be raised in the county if the State authorities would encourage the movement, and give the men interested the election of their own officers.—Ballot.

NAVAL MATTERS.—Paymaster Benjamin J. Cahoone has reported for duty at the Charlestown Navy Yard, relieving Paymaster John O. Bradford, ordered to the frigate Colorado.

The Boston Journal states that the frigate Colorado, fitting out at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, will become the flagship of Commodore Lardner, commanding the Gulf blockading squadron, and not be sent to the Mediterranean, as has been intimated.

☞ Perley states that Postmaster General Blair has left Washington to come to Portsmouth, N. H., for his family, who have been here some time on a visit.

THE AIR CURE.—Several surgeons who went out to our army after the late battles, have returned to Massachusetts,—and make the following statements, interesting to all, and showing two important things,—viz. the greatness of the battles, and the great value of plenty of air, in recovering from wounds.

There is a large number of wounded soldiers still at Frederick, and it is increasing daily. The churches, hotels and other public buildings are occupied as hospitals, and tents serve a similar purpose.

Among the invalid soldiers in Frederick, are upwards of two thousand sick rebels left by Jackson when he passed through Frederick. The wounded who are able to walk, or even sit up in ambulances, are brought hither from the army at the rate of from three to four hundred per day.

The operations on our wounded were mostly performed in the open air, the men being subsequently removed to houses, tents and barns. The threshing floors of the latter were filled with wounded lying side by side so thickly that it was difficult to pass between and not step upon them.

There was an abundance of straw, and the over-hanging eaves of the barns afforded a grateful shelter for the men. Those who lie in the open air recover the most rapidly while those who are confined in the barns do better than the men who are in house—air being the great restorer.

Two thousand wounded rebels were left on our hands at Shepardstown, attended by their surgeons, who were destitute of supplies.

CURRAN was arguing a case to a jury, before a judge who hated the barrister, and every now and then shook his head.—Fearing the effect these shakes might have on the jury, the witty lawyer stopped in his argument, and remarked: "You have noticed gentlemen of the jury, that his lordship has a habit of shaking his head. Persons unacquainted with his lordship would suppose that he shook his head in token of dissent from the positions I take. But I, gentlemen of the jury, who am intimately acquainted with his lordship, assure you that when his lordship shakes his head, there's nothing in it."

POVERTY.—Bulwer says that poverty is only an idea, in nine cases out of ten.—Some people with ten thousand dollars a year suffer more for want of means than others with three hundred. The reason is, the richer man has artificial wants. His income is ten thousand, and he suffers enough from being dunned for unpaid debts, to kill a sensitive man. A man who earns a dollar a day, and does not run in debt, is the happiest of the two. Very few people who have never been rich, will believe this, but it is as true as God's word. There are people, of course, who are wealthy, and enjoy their wealth; but there are thousands upon thousands, with princely incomes, who never know a moment's peace, because they live above their means. There is really more happiness in the world among working people, than among those who are called rich.

At the presentation of a pistol to a brave Connecticut corporal, the orator apostrophized as follows: "CORPORAL! My heart is full. These times try the souls of us all, as well as our pockets. My words must be few, and to the purpose. Take this weapon and go in. Give them Jessie—and John Charles also. Say you will. Resolve that it is a big thing, and that you can see it. Shoot at it. Smite them hip and thigh, and pay no regard to camphene or brickbats. But beware of Old Bourbon. Do your duty. John! Keep out of drafts. Don't go off half-cocked; and keep your pistol pointed from you." The Corporal on receiving the weapon, was too much affected to make a formal speech, but promised that the pistol should speak for him.

Mr. Thomas Millard, a native of Bath, now one of the Queen's bookbinders under the libraries at Windsor Castle, has discovered a method of splitting bank notes or any other sheets of paper. Specimens of the young man's ingenuity, consisting of a $5 bank of England note, newspapers &c., each of which have been split cleanly and cleverly into two parts without any rent or tear, have been exhibited. The engravings are brought out more clearly by the process, and when mounted on cardboard, present a strikingly improved appearance. The discovery is applied by Mr. Millard to practical use in print mounting and in repairing torn leaves of books, which he can so skilfully manage that the junction of the new and old paper can with difficulty be distinguished.

"At the Liverpool Assizes, Mr. Baron Wilde, before the Crown trials commenced, complained that some depositions, which had been prepared by the County coroner, were so badly written as to be quite illegible. His Lordship remarked that negligence of this kind amounted to contempt of court, as it interfered with the operations of justice. He should therefore fine the coroner ten pounds, ($50) and if the offence were repeated, a much heavier penalty would be imposed."—London Cor. Phil. Inq.

☞ Five sons of missionaries now, or late, in Constantinople, have enlisted in the armies of the Union. Several sons of other missionaries are also in the military service of the country. One of them is the oldest son of Mr. Lindley of the South African mission.

☞ Mr. Everett has written an article in the New York Ledger, to show that more has been done by our government in this war thus far, than England, with the aid of nearly all Europe, effected in twenty-three years' war with France.

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Danl. Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1845. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by medicine, which he prepared, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since. CAROLINE B. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.

SIMEON SWETT.

Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.

HANNAH ROWE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which quickly cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1833. Dr. Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."

WM. P. LEAVITT.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26y

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and tea iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pinder, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the best in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

MATHEWS'
Arnica
HAIR GLOSS

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is retailed at only Twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

ORPHEUS C. KERR UPON THE WAR.—The following is an extract from a late letter this humorous writer published in the N. Y. Sunday Mercury:—

If this war is to be prosecuted with vigor, my boy, we must repose unlimited confiden in the ability of the Administration and our Generals, resolutely frowning down all Jacobin demonstrations at home and suffer our leaders to be interfered with by no one but each other. If we permit civilians to manage matters, the country will be undone; but if, on the contrary, we trust everything to our Generals, the country will be "done"—brown.

Luckily for us all, the occupation of Accomac by the celebrated Southern Confederacy, is a part of the great plan of the General of the Mackerel Brigade to end this rebellion in one crushing blow, and as soon as the entire Confederacy shall have entered the Accomac in safety, the Mackerel Brigade will proceed to bag it.

You don't see exactly how that is to be done, eh?

There you go again, my boy, always meddling with what you don't understand, and presuming, in your civilian imbecility, to doubt the practicability—not to say the utility—of a covert invincibility, rendering it a futility on the part of the Southern agility, to take for weak debility what is really strategic facility, and pound, in great fertility of warlike inventibility and utter reliability, to turn all the foe's agility to a final accountability, that shall cause him, in a future humility, to treat us at least with civility.

This strategy's like some plan for again depending on a fall of rain, that, in less than a week, should the drought remain, 'twould ruin it altogether. It ponderetb blindly whether or no the opposite hosts will do so-and-so; and how it will end at last, you know, dependeth upon the "whether."

Yours, calmly, ORPHEUS C. KERR.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents on favorable terms, the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL. AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse"
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. G. W. Morgan, with his whole force from Cumberland Gap, has reached the Ohio River opposite Portsmouth.

The impression prevails at Norfolk, that the rebels are preparing to make a demonstration upon that place shortly, both by land and water. The rebel iron vessels at Richmond, according to intercepted letters, will be completed by the middle of October, and if they can drive away our fleet, which it is expected they will do, a large land force will co-operate with them. Government is reinforcing the troops at Norfolk, and Gen. Viele is keeping a sharp look out.

The rebel force in Missouri, is said to number 40,000 men, under command of Gen. Holmes. The rebels in all the camps indulge in confident expectations of wintering in St. Louis. The conscript act is in full force in Newton and McDonald counties. All the citizens of the requisite age are seized and compelled to enter the rebel service or leave the country. Many prominent citizens of these counties have fled to avoid the conscription. Gen. Hindman is under arrest, arising from misunderstanding between himself and Pike, the cause of which is unknown.

Refugees who have reached Washington from various points in Virginia, represent that the rebels are enforcing a general conscription of white men, who are marched off toward Winchester, while all the negroes, bond and free, are sent to Richmond to get them out of the way of the Union forces. Over six hundred white men have been taken from Fredericksburg to reinforce the rebel armies.

Gen. Hooker is reported to be so far recovered as to be in readiness to take the field again. Gen. Harney has been assigned to a command in the West.

There are 19 gunboats, of one and two guns each, on the Ohio river, at and above Cincinnati, under command of Com. Preble.

500 rebel prisoners, taken by Gen. Rosecrans, have arrived at Louisville from Middleton. Report says Gen. Rosecrans has had another engagement.

Rumors are circulating in regard to the President's visit to Gen. McClellan. One is that he intends to detach Gen. Burnside for an important movement. A Washington letter states that it is believed that very important dispatches have been sent abroad during the present week, including copies of an intercepted letter from Jeff Davis to Slidell, written about the time that Lee crossed the Potomac, announcing his intention to capture Washington and make it the capital of the Confederate States.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— In Plymouth is standing the old Court House, in which Daniel Webster made his first plea before a jury. It is an old one-story, unpainted building. When Mr. Webster last visited the State he recorded his name upon the walls of the building. The character of the house has not been maintained, for it is divided into three rooms, one of which is used in making carriages, one for a paint, and the other for a store room. Thousands of persons visit the old Court House annually, carrying off, if they can, a piece of shingle, or some bit of its wood.

—— On Monday last two men, masked, entered the house of Mr. Samuel Orr, in Goffstown, seized him in the entry, and after a furious scuffle tied him so securely that he was unable to move. One of them then ransacked the house, while the other held a pistol over him as he lay upon the floor. They took $26 from a pocket-book in a trunk, and went off. One of them, a Frenchman named Joseph Comfort, was subsequently arrested and bound over. Mr. Orr lives most of the time alone.

—— George Francis Train is expected to speak in Manchester next Thursday evening.

—— The 13th regiment is to leave Concord on Monday next for Washington.

—— The following officers for the 15th regiment, nine months'men, were appointed on Thursday. John W. Kingman, Esq., of Durham, law partner of D. M. Christie, Esq., of Dover, Colonel; William M. Weed, Esq., Clerk of the Courts in Carroll county, Lieutenant Colonel; George W. Frost, agent of the factories, Newmarket, Major; and Mr. Ira A. Moody, of Dover, carriage manufacturer, Quartermaster. On Thursday there were four hundred men for this regiment in camp at Concord, and two hundred more were expected to arrive on Friday.

—— Tarbell Winn, of Hudson, one of the U. S. Sharpshooters, was killed at the battle of Antietam.

—— The 10th and 11th regiments, at Washington, received marching orders on the 29th. They are both in Gen. Casey's division.

—— Wm. H. Hills of Plaistow, has been appointed Drafting Commissioner in Rockingham County in place of Amos Paul, of Newmarket, resigned.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

The Fort built in 1666—Commissioners—College.—In 1666, whilst the Commissioners were in Portsmouth, they received instructions from the King to have the harbours fortified; in consequence of which, they notified the inhabitants to meet and adopt measures to carry his Majesty's orders into execution. As soon as the Governor and Council were informed of these proceedings of the Commissioners, they sent two officers to New Hampshire to forbid the towns to meet on their peril, or to obey the Commissioners. But that they might not appear to dispute the Royal authority, the Governor and Council appointed a committee to examine the ground, and determine upon the most suitable place for a fort. They made their report, that the neck of land on the eastward of Great Island, where a small fort had been already built, taking in the Great Rock, and from thence all the easterly part of the island, was the most suitable place; which report was accepted. The fortification wasordered to be erected there. Richard Cutt, Esquire, was appointed Captain, and the men were taken from the companies at Great Island and Kittery Point, who were excused from all other military duty.

The Commissioners did not accomplish any one object of their mission in Massachusetts, or in this province. The government of Massachusetts openly opposed them, and they made an unfavorable report to the King of the treatment they had received. Colonel Niles was of a mild, pleasant disposition, and his courteous deportment gained him the affections of the people. He was Governor of New York, and, during his continuance in office, "Kept up a friendly correspondence with the Governor and Company of Massachusetts." The other Commissioners were of a very different character. Sir Robert Carr was very turbulent and arbitrary, and the difficulties which arose between the government and the Commissioners, were principally owing to him, and he was seconded in all his measures by Cartwright. The violence of their proceedings rendered them odious to the people. They were recalled by the King. Nichols remained in the country. Carr went first to Delaware, and thence to England. He arrived at Bristol the last of May, 1667, and died the next day. Cartwright was taken by the Dutch on his homeward bound passage. He had taken minutes of the proceedings of the commissioners and of the opposition they met with; but he lost all his papers at the time he was captured, and could never recover them, which deprived him of the opportunity of making so general a complaint as he intended. Maverick had resided in this country from its first settlement, and had always been in opposition to government. He went to England with complaints to the King, and solicited the appointment of commissioners to settle the disputes. He was entirely subservient to the others.

After the return of the Commissioners, Massachusetts again peaceably exercised jurisdiction over the towns in New Hampshire, as she had formerly done, and the people appeared to be satisfied with the government. "At a general town meeting on the 19th of June, 1667, for the better carrying on the fortification at Fort Point, it was consented unto, and voted, that every dweller and liver in this town above the age of sixteen years, whether householder, child, servant, or any other, residing in the town, shall and do hereby promise to work at the same, one whole week, between this and the last of October next ensuing; and shall appear upon such days, as they shall have notice given them from time to time, until they have accomplished their several weeks' work, and to be allowed out of their subscriptions, three shillings per day, and to be at the fort by seven o'clock in the morning, and to give over at six in the evening, to begin on the Great Island, and so round by Sandy Beach, and thence through the whole town."

The people of New Hampshire had been united so long with Massachusetts in their political concerns, that they had contracted the same habits, and were generally influenced by the same principles. Harvard College was the only literary institution in the country, and every friend to learning was desirous of promoting its interest. It became necessary to erect a new building for the accommodation of the students, and a general collection was made for the purpose. Subscriptions were opened in many places. In 1669 the inhabitants of this town subscribed sixty pounds, which sum they engaged to pay annually for seven years, to the overseers of the College. Dover gave thirty-two pounds, and Exeter, ten pounds for the same purpose.

☞ President Lincoln is on a visit to Harper's Ferry and the battle field of Antietam, and passed one night in camp. He will return to Washington to-day (Saturday.)

☞ A report is current that Rev. Dr. Breckinridge, the distinguished opponent of secession in Kentucky, has been captured by the rebels.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

On the ride to Boston, since the recent terrible accident, all eyes are eager, as they pass, to look at the dread spot where that fearful crash occurred. Next morning, and for a day or two, the wrecks of engines and cars lay along the sides of the track; but nearly all have now been removed. We one day saw the succor car "Relief," fitted for use in such cases, with the remains of the two combative locomotives in tow for Boston.

It is said that when the engines struck, the fronts of both leaped directly upward from the track, and then fell over on their sides. There is quite a curve in the road here, a mile or so below Wenham; and neither engineer could see the approaching danger till too late. Of course, hearing anything, while riding the steam horse, is entirely out of the question—you "can't hear your own ears," even so well as when in the cars themselves.

And do you who enjoy the luxury of railroad riding—luxurious, with all its inconveniences and dangers, in comparison with any other yet known means of rapid travel—do you ever think of the toils and risks of the hardy, gallant fellows who hold the reins of your thundering steed? Much, very much, of your comfort and safety depends on the conductor, your pilot—whose position is one of great trust and responsibility,—though he never "trusts"; but perhaps even more hangs on the engineer, and his and the conductor's aids, the brakemen. Never for an instant, must the engineer's eye be taken from the rails ahead, that he may be sure he has a clear track; and with his hand on the iron-monster's curb, he stands, in garish daylight and gloomy darkness, through scorching heat and freezing cold, mid steam and smoke, and blinding dust, and pelting rains, and driving snows—pressing on unflinchingly in the path of duty—often, too often, in the very jaws of death. A noble set of fellows, are the railroad engineers—and while very much of our safety lies with them, for very little of their own danger and injury, and accidents to those who ride, are they themselves responsible.

Mr. James Littlefield, the engineer of the excursion train, who so narrowly escaped death in the recent collision, we are glad to hear, is doing well. He is at the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston; has no bones broken, and has been steadily improving ever since his injury. He is a young man, unmarried we believe, whose parents reside at Littlefield's Crossing, on the C & P Road. He was formerly fireman on that road, but for some time had been in the employ of the Eastern. He had been very recently promoted to be engineer, and was and is on all hands considered as a very careful man. We notice that the coroner's jury complained that he had no light on the front of his engine.—This was spoken of, in Portsmouth depot, before starting; and although we may all now, just after such a terrible mishap, see how censurable it is for an engineer to start any train in the dark, without a headlight; yet the blame, if any, lies back of the fireman, who would no doubt, always, very naturally, light the lantern, if he had one on his machine, which we understand, (incidentally only,) was lacking in this case. As it happened, however, in that sharp curve, it probably could have made no difference in the lamentable result.

That coroner's verdict also very righteously held, that regular trains ought never to be incommoded, hindered or endangered by excursion trains. And we have also seen, in some few papers, condemnation of all railroad "excursions." But when all goes clear, and is well arranged, they certainly are a means of great accommodation and enjoyment to the public, especially to those who must make their dollars "go as far as they can." And we doubt if more per centage of accidents, generally, occurs from excursions, than in regular trains—though on our Eastern road this has been the case, to be sure.

Mr. Perham has carried many thousands of passengers, thousands of miles, within the last dozen years, and this accident was the first which has ever happened to one of his trains. Of course no blame or praise is due the great excursionist, in either result of safety or accident to his precious freights; but excursion trains are usually most faithfully officered and carefully watched. On the Lake trip down over this same road, but a day or two previous, the Superintendent of the road himself was on board, personally supervising all arrangements. But accidents will happen so long as mortals are fallible; and those who are unfortunate enough to be responsible for them, must feel their sad effects, and deserve the commiseration of the public, almost equally with the direct sufferers themselves.

But we must hold up for to-day as we have not a "jot" more time to spare now. And room is scarce too, in the Chronicle; so that this article has been waiting its turn for insertion several days, and may seem a little too late. More anon, IND.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Rock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and

It has never failed to effect a speedy cure when properly applied. This Salve has none of the irritating healing properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand, for it will save them trouble, suffering and money; and in many cases it has saved life itself. For the Chronicle.

DIED, at Plymouth, N.C., Sept. 19th, Mr. HENRY C. WEBSTER, of this city, Acting Master in the U. S. Navy, aged 22 years and 10 months.

In the language of the letter announcing the sad fact of his death, we would say:—"The service has lost an excellent officer and the country a fearless defender." This tribute, from an officer on board the vessel with which the deceased was connected, is by no means an unmerited tribute. In all the engagements in which he was called to participate, his coolness in danger and fearlessness of spirit in the discharge of duty were marked, appreciated, and rewarded.—He entered the service the 12th of Sept. 1861, as Master's Mate, since which time he has been promoted to Acting Master, receiving his appointment to the office but a short time previous to his death. But God, whom he faithfully served and supremely loved, had prepared for him a higher position, and took him to himself, to the mansion in the Father's house on high.

His was a truly noble spirit, and his life a precious offering upon the blood-stained altar of his Country. A noble, gallant, Christian son and brother, he fell in a glorious cause, and his life going out, adds another brilliant gem to Liberty's shining coronet. Widowed mother, with thy heart crushed with grief, while thou weepest for thy noble boy, thy well beloved first born son, upon whom, in thy lone widowhood, thou wouldst fain have rested thy hopes for future support, let the thought of his true nobleness of heart and life, his complete preparation for the death which came so unexpectedly to you, and perhaps to him also, cheer thee amid this thy deep and severe affliction. Brother left alone, the sharer of thy joys and sorrows in boyhood's day's and counselor in later years, gone to return no more, receive upon thyself his mantle, and let the influence of his life incite thee to nobleness of living, to true heroism in doing for the friends he loved and has left, and if duty calls thee thus, to do and die for thy country as he was ready and willing to do and to die. Sisters, by him much beloved, as the scalding tears occasioned by this great affliction, shall well up from your sorrowing hearts, see that you murmur not against the divine will of the God in whom your brother trusted, but believing in the Saviour in whom he believed, let a spiritual gladness fill your soul, as you hear that Saviour saying,—"Thy brother shall rise again." "I am the resurrection and the life, he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live."

To all hearts that sorrow over his early fall, may the God of battles breathe a holy peace, a submissive spirit, and through the now dark and lowering clouds which envelop such, may there be revealed to them light, streaming from the life immortal, beyond the surging waters of death.

It was the privilege of the writer of these few lines, to have a brief acquaintance with the one to whose memory they are penned. The circumstances of that acquaintance however, were such as to develop his kindness of heart, his nobleness of spirit, and his firmness of mind. The recollection of him since then has been precious indeed, as with interest, we have watched his progress, and heard him commended in the profession which he chose, when the country needed his services. We drop with his afflicted family the tear of sincere sorrow, when the truth presses upon the soul, that we shall never again look upon his manly form, or hear his kindly tones.

Brother in Christ, farewell, till we meet, and greet thee in a better—an immortal life. I. F. W.

☞ A detachment of about forty marines from New York, arrived at the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Thursday, to join the frigate Colorado. The guard will be under command of Capt. George R. Graham, detached from the Marine Barracks at Washington.

☞ We learn that on Wednesday night, at Gloucester, Mass., a boarding house was destroyed by fire,—and Mr. Nathan Priest Frost, of Newcastle, and a man named Charles Wells, of York, Me., who were lodging there, lost their lives. Mr. Frost was about 30 years of age, and leaves a wife and three children at Newcastle.

☞ A Pensacola letter of Sept. 20, in the Philadelphia Press, reports that quite a fleet is collecting there, awaiting the arrival of iron-clads in order to attack Mobile. Fort Morgan, the main defence of Mobile, is situated on the right bank of the channel, and mounts 100 guns. Fort Gaines, the second defensive work, is on Dauphin's Island; it mounts 50 guns, and can direct a formidable cross-fire with Fort Morgan. The war vessels at Pensacola are as follows: flag ship Hartford, Brooklyn, sailing frigate Potomac, steam-frigate Susquehanna, sailing sloops Vincennes and Preble—the latter has been made a hospital ship; gunboats Kennebec, Kanawha, Cayuga, Gemsbok and Westfield. Mortar fleet—ferry boat Clifton, Lieut. Commanding Law, and six Mortar schooners, with a number of ordnance ships, transports, &c.

☞ The first Parish in Portland, has had but four pastors since 1727, or during 135 years; the present one, Rev. Horatio Stebbins, being settled but seven years—making but three pastors for 128 years.

POSTAGE STAMPS,—The following order of the Postmaster General will be strictly enforced:—

"Every postmaster is instructed to treat as unpaid any letter placed in a postoffice for mailing which may be covered with a stamp at all soiled or defaced, or which has apparently been used in payment of postage. Such letters will be sent at once to the Dead Letter Office."

The result of this order will be the rendering worthless a large amount of stamps now in circulation and used in lieu of silver change. In the meantime, but a small amount of the new postal currency has reached this city.—Boston Traveller.

The result of the order should be no such thing, says Uncle Toby. The postage stamps have been and are used by the people, on railroads, in the army, and elsewhere, as currency, because they could get no other change. It is no doubt legal and proper that the Postmasters should refuse all stamps which have apparently been used in payment of postage. But it would be a contemptible piece of petty tyranny, to reject every stamp "at all soiled." The Post Office Department, in other words the Government, will realize a very considerable gain in consequence of the stamps that will be lost and destroyed, inevitably.

Uncle T. hopes therefore, that no postmaster will so degrade his manhood, as to send to the dead letter office any letter or paper on which a proper stamp has been placed in good faith. The writer has paid the postage—even if the stamp is a little soiled—and the post-office has no right to swindle him out of three cents, and then to ruin his correspondence. U. T.

Our old correspondent professes to be loyal, we believe; but here is direct disobedience of orders counselled. Look out, Uncle Toby, or you'll have to go down with Dr. B.—Ed Chron.

☞ The N. Y. Express states that the Monitor has her iron side-plating shattered, if not in action, by use, so that it is necessary for her even thus early in her life, to be repaired. Hence she has been sent up to the Washington navy yard, and the Ironsides takes her place.

☞ The Fair at Jefferson Hall will be open to the public this afternoon and evening, at 2 and 7 o'clock. Admittance only 10 cents. tf

NOTICE.—The Annual Meeting of the Portsmouth Washington Total Abstinence Society for the choice of officers and their business, will be held (by adjournment) on Monday evening, Oct. 6, 1862, in Rechab Hall, at 7 o'clock. F. W. ROGERS, Sec'y.

☞ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

McGREGOR'S PATENT
AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING
FURNACES.
The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.
The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:
1st. The perfect consumption of coal. No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.
2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.
3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.
4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above
5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.
The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.
This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.
We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:
Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Dani. Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was done more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JEREMIAH JENNESS.
About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, which he prepared, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since.
CAROLINE B. SWETT.
This statement of my wife is correct.
SIMEON SWETT.
Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1861.
I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing entire sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.
HANNAH ROWE.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
Exeter, Feb. 24, 1838. Dr. Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."
WM. P. LEAVITT.
From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 21, 1841.
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Tumors, frightful swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr. D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, shutting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotte, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

So invariably certain is the new and improved treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted persons soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had a greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stickell, James H. Pinder, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine the truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Hise, and others.

MATHEWS' ARNICA HAIR GLOSS

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

VOL. 21. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. MONDAY, OCT. 6, 1862 NO. 55

The Chronicle.

☞ The Boston Traveller publishes a letter from on board the steamer Kearsarge, dated Bay of Algesiras, Sept. 7. The writer states that the 1st Asst. Engineer of that vessel, James W. Whittaker, of Trenton, N. J., has invented a powerful agent for the destruction of iron-plated vessels, which, it is claimed, for simplicity in design, completeness in construction, and certainty of execution, cannot be excelled by anything yet invented or advanced. Captain Pickering, the Chief Engineer, of the Kearsarge, and other officers have examined it, and all concur in pronouncing it a complete success; and the captain has detached the inventor from the ship and ordered him home with his plans, to report in person to the Navy Department. It is stated that it needs no experimental trial, and the time required for its construction, application, and readiness for action, does not exceed three weeks' labor in any of our Navy Yards. It can be applied to any ship in the service at a comparatively nominal expense.

The letter also contains the following:—

We have been lying here for 3 months, watching the Sumter, who is dangerous in spite of her best teeth having been extracted, but we hope soon to be relieved by the Tuscarora, so that we can take a more active part in the war.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Prepares Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings relating to patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of Inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove this. IN MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them a speedy and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

Durfee gave me the benefit of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Beauregard, Sept. 24, officially announced his assumption of the command of the Department of South Carolina, and Georgia. He anticipates an early attack on Charleston and Savannah.

Gen. Bragg has issued a proclamation threatening an immediate and vigorous enforcement of the rebel conscription act in all parts of Kentucky under the control of the rebels. The rebels threaten to burn Lexington and Frankfort if compelled to evacuate those places.

In an engagement at Neosho, Mo., between Kansas troops, under Col. Solomon, and a greatly superior force of rebels, the Kansas troops were obliged to retire, leaving the field to the enemy. Col. Solomon's force was about 1000. The loss was small.

Gen. Butler has ordered all citizens of New Orleans, male and female, above the age of eighteen, to take the oath of allegiance, by October 1, on pain of imprisonment and confiscation of property.

An officer of Garibaldi's army has tendered the services of from 4000 to 6000 veteran soldiers and 200 officers to fight for the Union, ready equipped. They took no part in the late demonstration, and therefore could leave Italy without trouble.

The rebels are said to be evacuating Frankfort, Ky., which they had commenced to fortify. They have a large force on the southern bank of the east fork of Salt river. Our advance occupies the opposite bank, and is waiting for the main body to come up, when they will give the rebels battle.

The prize steamer Sunbeam, captured Sept. 28, while attempting to run the blockade at Wilmington, N. C., has arrived at New York. She has a cargo of brandy and gunpowder, valued at half a million dollars. The Captain said she was from Liverpool for Mexico, and was putting in for coal.

The Western gunboat fleet was officially transferred from the War to the Navy Department, on Friday. Com. David D. Porter, late of the mortar fleet, is to have chief command.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The dispatch received, on Sunday noon, by Messrs. Hutchings, Isley and others, says:—

Gen. Morgan on Friday arrived at Gramsburg, Ky., with all his army trains and artillery, except four 32-pounders, which were too heavy for transportation.—It was a highly successful retreat. He was constantly surrounded by rebel cavalry, but maintained the offensive throughout.—For three days his troops had no water but what they found in stagnant pools.

It is believed at Washington that there are no rebel troops South of the Potomac nearer than Rappahannock station, on the Orange and Alexandria R. R., 51 miles from Alexandria, where there are 3 regiments of infantry and two of cavalry.

Gen. Halleck has issued an order congratulating Gen. McClellan and his soldiers on the result of the battles of South Mountain and Antietam, which he pronounces "not only hard fought battles, but well earned and decided victories."

Deserters report that Gen. Lee is making every preparation to retreat as soon as Gen. McClellan moves against him.

THE INDIAN WAR IN MINNESOTA.—Col. Sibley sends to Gov. Ramsay a report of an engagement with the Indians at Wood Lake, Sept. 23, which lasted for two hours, when the Indians, repulsed at all points with great loss, retired with precipitancy. The Indians were so severely punished that they sent a flag of truce into the camp to express the sentiments of the Wahpetons, composing a part of the attacking force, and so state that they were not strong enough to fight our troops, and desired peace, with permission to take away their dead and wounded. Col. Sibley replied that when the prisoners were delivered up it would be time enough to talk of peace, and that he would not grant them permission either to take their dead or wounded. Col. S. is assured by a half breed that there is serious depression in the Indian camp—many having been opposed to the war, but driven to the field by the more violent. The Indians had thirty killed and a large number wounded. Four soldiers were killed, and between thirty and forty wounded.

A mortgage of $70,000, covering the whole real estate of the firm of Norcross, Saunders & Co., says the Worcester Transcript, which includes not only their steam saw and planing mill at Lowell, but 100,000 acres of timber land in New Hampshire, besides other property, was offered at auction on Thursday. The highest bid made was $29,600, at which point the sale was adjourned.

MR. CRITTENDEN ON EMANCIPATION.—In a letter dated Sept. 26th he says—"it is a policy calculated to prolong and embitter this bloody war, without doing any good to the white or black man."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—It is reported that Maj. Jesse F. Angell has been promoted to Gen. Casey's Staff, and that Capt. John M. Caswell is promoted to the Majorship in the Tenth Regiment.

—Rev. J. W. Searll, of West Swanzey, was kicked by a horse, not long since, the blow breaking the lower jaw and badly cutting the lower lip.

—Col. Cross, of the Fifth Regiment, had one of his shoulder straps shot off at the battle of Antietam. The Statesman thinks it would be a good fashion in such cases to replace the lost decoration with that of the grade next higher in rank.

—It is stated that Gen. McClellan has named Lieut. Benj. F. Hutchins, of Concord, 6th Cavalry, as meriting a brevet for his good conduct in the affair of Slatersville, soon after the battle of Williamsburgh.

—The Washington correspondent of the Concord Statesman, says:—

The 3d Regiment, at Fairfax Seminary, we found, like the others, in excellent spirits and condition. It does me good to go and look at the noble fellows who compose this regiment. Miss Dame—that most marvelous woman—who has, like an angel of mercy, followed this regiment with unfaltering hand and heart in all its conflicts and glory, still, with stout heart and hand, stands at her post of duty. The regiment almost worship her, and well they may.—Gov. Berry and Col. Marston have made arrangements definitely with the Secretary of War, to have this regiment assigned to some fort in this vicinity, and the officers authorized to go home and recruit the regiment to the full quota.

—Rev. Mr. Damon, of Lake Village, while repairing his barn, fell some forty feet and struck upon his head and shoulders, injuring him severely. It is thought that he cannot recover.

—The N. H. Relief Association at Washington has employed Col. Zenas Clement to look after the sick and wounded.

—Mr. Jewett, of Laconia, has been awarded the contract to furnish patent legs for the Government. An appropriation of $15,000 was made for this purpose at the last session. Mr. Jewett will immediately establish manufactories in Washington and New York. Palmer invented his leg at Meredith Bridge, and it carried the palm over all others at the World's Fair, in London. It is now, in turn, triumphed over by an inventor in the same beautiful village.

FOREIGN.—We have foreign dates to the 25th. It is stated that our consul at Vienna wrote to Garibaldi, asking, as he had failed in his patriotic efforts in Italy, if he would aid in the American struggle for liberty and unity, and that Garibaldi replied that as soon as he was restored to liberty and his wounds were healed, he should take the first opportunity to satisfy his desire to serve the great American Republic, of which he is a citizen, and which is now fighting for universal liberty. The correspondence appears in one of the newspapers of Vienna. The U. S. corvette St. Louis remained at Lisbon, and will probably continue there all winter.

In the rebel Congress on the 29th, a resolution was introduced declaring the emancipation proclamation, by President Lincoln, to be "a gross violation of the usages of civilized warfare, an outrage on the rights of private property, and an invitation to an atrocious servile war." Severe retaliatory measures were recommended to Jeff. Davis. A debate ensued, in which it was strenuously urged that upon any attempt to execute the proclamation, the rebels should immediately hoist the black flag, and proclaim a war of extermination against all invaders of the soil. The resolution was finally referred to the committee on the judiciary.

MAJ. GEN. WM. NELSON, who was shot by Brig. Gen. Jeff. C. Davis, was a native of Kentucky. At the breaking out of the rebellion he was a lieutenant in the navy. He obtained leave of absence from the navy, and opened a recruiting camp in his heart of his native State. His rendezvous became famous as "Camp Dick Robinson," and he enlisted a brigade of loyal Kentuckians and Tennessee refugees. When Kossuth made a voyage on board the U. S. frigate Mississippi, Nelson, who was first lieutenant of that ship, gained some notoriety because of a controversy with Commodore Long, of Exeter, then commanding the frigate, about the treatment of the Hungarian exile.

A gold Medal has been presented to Gen. Corcoran by twenty-three of his fellow prisoners at Richmond.

The taxable property in San Francisco this year is estimated at $50,000,000. The entire population is over 90,000.

Rufus Paine, of Cleaveland, Ohio, was recently mulcted in the sum of $20,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage.

Judge Holt says that "no one can doubt the power of Mr. Lincoln to issue a proclamation of emancipation."

The State of New York has raised 20,000 three years' volunteers over her quota under the first call for 300,000 men.

GOING INTO BATTLE.

The following animated sketch of the soldier's feelings when about to engage the enemy, is from a correspondent of the Louisville Journal, who had been there:—

People often wonder how one feels in battle. This depends to a considerable extent on the nature of the conflict, the kind of troops engaged, the weapons employed, and the duration of the battle. All men are not affected alike; some are cool, determined, and courageous; some lose all judgment, and will, single-handed rush upon hundreds; others are entirely unmanned—tremble like aspens—seem dead to every emotion of honor or feeling of shame, and will slink into coverts or run from the field. Lord Forth in the Crimean war is an instance. If skirmishers engage prior to a general battle, and a desultory firing is kept up for a while, one becomes used to it, and as the battle warms, it frequently becomes exciting, and men that trembled at the first few shots, now rush on like heroes. I remember well my feelings during the first battle in which I was engaged. The night before the battle, we received orders to prepare to attack the enemy early on the morrow. All was now bustle, hurry and anxiety. Guns were cleaned, ammunition inspected, stirrups adjusted, canteens filled, knapsacks lightened, letters written, &c. We had several in our company who had always boasted of their bravery and prowess—men who had been "spoiling for a fight," as they said. These were now as still as mice—they didn't peep. One of them, who had taken a master's degree in all kinds of profanity, now borrowed a Bible, sat down and read it for some time, and intimated to his messmate the propriety of repeating their "Now I lay me, &c.," before going to sleep that night. It is not your blustering, profane bravado that is the brave man on the field of battle; it is your quiet, patient, retiring man.

I confess I felt uneasy—a feeling of dread and anxiety stole over me. Battle was certain, the enemy were strongly posted and we had desperate work before us.—I wanted to go into battle, yet I dreaded it like death. I slept but little that night. The morning came and our columns moved quietly and steady forward through a wood. The first intimation we had of the enemy was the skirmishing between his out-posts and our vanguard, the former falling back as the latter advanced. We passed out of the wood and rapidly deployed into line of battle, a gentle sloping hill hiding the enemy from our view. A part of our force had been sent around to make a flank and rear attack on the enemy, and while so doing it was of the utmost importance that we should hold his attention in front. We marched steadily up the hill till the whole line of the enemy burst upon our view; there we halted, and for some minutes not a gun was fired on either side. There stood the two armies, each waiting for the other to begin the work of death. The faces of our men looked pale and determined; some of them stood like statues—others were nervous and uneasy. It was the time to test the courage of men. A line of cannon were bearing directly upon us. Death to many of us was certain.—Who will it be? thought I. A singular feeling came over me; a confused image of a mother and sister appeared flitting and floating before my imagination like dissolving shadows, while the tremendous reality in front oppressed me with dreadful forebodings.

A few moments passed, like those that intervene between drawing the cap over the criminal's face and letting fall the drop, when a puff of smoke from one of the cannon followed by a crash and a bomb, went screaming over us. Our men ducked down their heads like geese. Fire was now opened on us along the enemy's entire line. Their first shots were aimed too high. They gradually lowered them. Every discharge brought their balls fearfully nearer. We were impatient to return the fire, but dare not till the command was given. Our Colonel passed along in front of the line, and urged us to stand firm till the proper time, and the day would be ours. It is a task to hold men exposed to an enemy's fire without allowing them to return it. They will soon run, one way or the other. The enemy's shot now begun to howl around us, plough through our ranks and tear up the earth about our feet. A six pound ball cut off the bayonet of my messmate on my left; a moment more and one struck him in the breast, severing him almost in twain. He reeled and fell like a log. The hot blood from his heart spirted full in my face. Great God, how I felt! A faint sickening sensation came over me. I stooped down over him. He smiled faintly, spoke my name, gasped and expired. He was frightfully mangled. I was maddened to desperation. All thought of fear vanished; I could have fought thousands.

The command "fire!" ran along the line, and a tremendous crash of musketry answered the command. We now loaded and fired for life. Dense volumes of sulphurous smoke hung like a pall over us and shut out the enemy from our sight. The battle grew warm and bloody. The rattle of musketry, the screaming of shells, the thunders of the artillery, the whistling of bullets, the shouts of command commingled with curses, prayers and groans of the wounded and dying, filled all the air. Our men, black with smoke and powder, looked like devils incarnate as they plied their work of death. At length a breeze rolled away the smoke that shrouded us, and disclosed our other columns bearing down on the enemy's flank. Now was the decisive moment. "Charge bayonets!" rang out, and with loud shouts, we rushed forward to the assault. A storm of grape and canister was hurled against us as we neared the batteries. Like maddened tigers our men leaped forward with the cold steel. The struggle over the guns was desperate. It was a butchery savage in the extreme. The enemy soon broke and fled, leaving us masters of the field. Since that time I have not felt the least dread or hesitation on entering a battle. After the first few shots I fire away as coolly as when hunting squirrels.

As a general rule, our small men are more plucky than our large ones. We have half a dozen boys with us varying in age from twelve to fifteen years.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

☞ The Boston Advertiser states that the extreme length of the iron-clad steamer Agamenticus, which is to be built at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, is to be 242 feet, with a breadth of 53 feet and depth of 15, by 1564 tonnage. It will be surmounted with two turrets, each furnished with two guns, and each gun weighing 25 tons. The machinery is in process of construction by Messrs. Morris & Towne of Philadelphia, and it is expected that the vessel will be ready for sea in six months. The Sassacus, so called after a famous old Indian chieftain of Massachusetts Bay, is to be a side-wheel boat of 974 tons, and carrying eight guns, with a length of 240 feet, width 35, and depth of 12 feet. Her engines are making in New York, where she will be sent to receive them. She is expected to be completed in 17 weeks. The other new war-steamer is to be called the Nipsic, an Indian name also. Her dimensions will be 190 feet in length, 30 in breadth, and 16 in depth, carrying 4 guns, and of 593 tons.—She will be a screw steamer, and ready in about the same time as the Sassacus. The screw-sloop Sacramento, 9, of 1367 tons, is 229 feet long by 38 feet wide and 17 feet deep. She has been launched several weeks, and is now waiting for her machinery, which is on its way from Taunton, Mass. She will be ready for service in about three months. The screw sloop Ossipee, 9, of 1240, is 207 feet long, 38 feet wide, and 17 feet deep. She is now receiving her machinery, and will be ready for service in about four weeks.

☞ We learn that Israel Kimball, Esq., of this city, has received and has accepted an appointment in the Interior Department at Washington.

☞ Steam tug Huron arrived in our harbor Saturday noon, and took in tow the new bark Maria J. Smith, returning to Boston in the afternoon, same day.

☞ A large number of pews in the Unitarian Church in this city, are to be sold at auction this, Monday, afternoon at four o'clock. As the sale is to be without reserve, an unusually fine opportunity is offered to obtain desirable pews in this church.

Attention!
THE HOME GUARDS are hereby notified to meet THIS (MONDAY) EVENING, in IRVING HALL, for drill. Roll Call at half past 7 o'clock. Per order.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW, for October, contains the following articles:—Edward Irving; Jelf's Greek Grammer; The Jews in Palestine; Madame Swetchine; Narcotics; Trollope's North America; Count de Gasparin; The Free-trade policy of Great Britain; The Character of the Rebellion, and the Conduct of the War; Among the Pines; Critical Notices. For sale by J. H. Foster.

☞ A series of war resolutions passed by the New York City Council have been vetoed by Mayor Opdyke, because they condemned the President's emancipation proclamation and proposed a war committee of a partisan character.

☞ The French policy in Mexico is defined in a letter from the Emperor Napoleon to the Commander of the French forces in Mexico, in which the latter's course is commended, and all the resources necessary for the campaign promised. The Emperor declares it contrary to his intentions to impose any government whatever on the Mexican people.

☞ Commander David D. Porter has been appointed Acting Rear Admiral, commanding the mortar fleet.

☞ Nearly two full regiment have been raised among the Creoles in New Orleans, and the regiments brought there have been recruited.

☞ The showman Dan Rice took such a hold on the affections of the Canadians by his exhibition, that when he left Kingston last Saturday night for Oswego, a salute of seven guns was fired from Fort Frederick in his honor.

☞ The seizure by the rebels of the Kanawha Salt Works is considered by them an advantage equal to the capture of Harper's Ferry, and was a portion of the programme. The manufacture of salt is progressing rapidly, the works being run day and night.

☞ The Grenada Appeal calls the rebel troops invading Kentucky "the arrows of Confederate vengeance." We guess that these arrows will soon be all in a quiver, says the Louisville Journal.

☞ The fact that the main features of the President's emancipation proclamation were known throughout Eastern Virginia before any newspapers containing it had reached that region, is another evidence that the rebels have means of information independent of the ordinary sources.

☞ The number of female prisoners in the House of Correction in Lawrence, Mass., has more than doubled recently, while the number of male prisoners has decreased. Of 80 prisoners, a few days since, more than 40 were females.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.—Mr. Moses Sweetser, recently of Newburyport, where he has many friends, and no man deserves them more, has met with a series of misfortunes, which are thus stated by "Perley" in a letter from Washington, where Mr. Sweetser has lately been, a furnisher of army supplies. He was thrown from his carriage about a year since, so injuring one of his legs that he will be a cripple for life. Just previously his son Frank was struck by a wagon, and had his jaw broken, which caused his death. Since then another son has died from injuries caused by his being thrown from an omnibus, and yesterday Mr. Sweetser lost a young daughter, from injuries received a few months since, when she was run over by a horse. This is a singular and sad chapter of accidents to happen in one family from similar causes. The above includes his whole family except his wife—three killed and himself a cripple by carriage accidents.—Herald.

A CHAPTER ON WOMAN.—How many women do you suppose would beautify their persons and abodes, were there no eyes to witness the pleasant result but those that confront them in the looking-glass? I please myself thinking that all self-respecting women would continue to do so, untidiness and disorder being demoralizers to which their nature would instinctively cry, avaunt! Much as has been said, and truly, of the too absorbing love of ornamentation in women, it still remains that there is something unnatural and wrong in that woman who is totally indifferent to it. I like not her who feels not an itching finger to shroud the unsightliness of her abode, and bring out by skilful touches, small surprises of beauty and grace. As for her whose love of ornamentation is not based on neatness, who can sleep peacefully while her bonnet lies on a chair, her gloves and shoes on a sofa, and her cloak upon the floor, though the Queen of Sheba may not rival her velvets and diamonds at an evening party, yet I will have none of her, and the collarless wrapper which she offers to the household gods.

"This medicine," said Dr. Squills, "after having been taken for a few days, will produce the change desired." "What!" exclaimed the thunder-struck patient, "you don't say so, doctor?" "It's a fact, sir," said the Doctor; "the science of medicine has now reached——" "Well," said the patient, interrupting him, "it is wonderful! If you'd said postage stamps, Doctor, I would not have said anything; but the desired change, Doctor, it seems impossible."

McGREGOR'S PATENT
AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING
FURNACES.
The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.
The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:
1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.
2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.
3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.
4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above
5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.
The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.
This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor WASH, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, which he prescribed, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. Exeter, Feb. 24, 1858. Dr. Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."

She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

From the Journal

ORDINATION OF MR. DE NORMANDIE.

Mr. James de Normandie was ordained on Wednesday last, pastor of the Unitarian church and society in this city. In another column we give the order of the exercises. The church was comfortably filled, although the day was far from pleasant, which prevented the clergymen present from abroad from seeing Portsmouth under one of our bright October skies. The Council was large and was composed of the leading Unitarian clergymen of New England. The exercises were very protracted, but the interest was well sustained throughout. The Sermon, by Dr. Gannett of Boston, was strong, lucid and characterized by a fine blending of fervor and good taste. The Charge to the young pastor was by Rev. E. B. Hale of Boston, and was fervent, timely and pointed. The Right Hand was given by a brother of Mr. de Normandie, while still another brother offered one of the prayers. The solemn prayer of ordination was offered by Rev. Dr. Peabody. The address to the people was by Rev. Dr. Briggs of Salem, and was tender and affectionate in style, yet effective and rich in practical worth. After the exercises in the church were closed, the ordaining council together with the clergymen, took this city partook of an excellent dinner at the Rockingham House.

There were many pleasant coincidences connected with this occasion which added to its interest: the presence of the late revered pastor Rev. Dr. Peabody, the presence of Dr. Gannett to preach the sermon, he having officiated in the same part in the ordination of the recent pastor, almost 30 years ago, and the happy laying aside of sectarian differences at the dinner, all the clergymen being present excepting the Catholic, and the Episcopalian rector, who was detained by sickness in his family. Rev. Dr. Gardner, a representative of the Church, was present. We congratulate this ancient society on the happy future which now lies before them, and wish for the young pastor many years of pleasant and useful service.

We refer to another column for an advertisement of a large sale of Pews in the Church, on Monday next.

The Fifth Annual Report of the Concord and Portsmouth Railroad, for the year ending Oct. 2, is a very brief and satisfactory document. The stockholders number 234. The receipts, including a balance of $800.92, were $18,182.73; the expenditures were $16,785.54, including $5,000 in dividends, leaving a balance of $1,397.10. The annual meeting was held in Portsmouth, on Thursday, Oct. 2d.

At this meeting the report of the Directors was accepted, and the following board of Directors elected—Messrs. Frost, Blake and Straw, of the old board, retiring:

Stephen Kentrick, of Franklin, President.
Samuel P. Dow, of New Market;
Benjamin F. Martin, of Manchester;
Joseph B. Walker, of Concord;
Samuel N. Bell, of Manchester, Directors.
Moody Currier, of Manchester, Treasurer.
William H. Hackett, of Portsmouth, Clerk.

Sad Accident.—On Friday afternoon of last week, Charles aged 6 years, son of Mr. William Stickney, painter, was playing with another small boy beneath the elevated rails of the Concord and Portsmouth railroad, near Bridge's wharf. The dirt cars came unexpectedly over where they were, and the little boy becoming frightened put both of his hands upon the rails. The right hand was cut off, and the four fingers of the left hand, leaving only the thumb. Dr. Oliver found it necessary to amputate the right hand near the wrist. Much sympathy was felt for the poor little sufferer, and his afflicted parents—but hardly the most feeling next to Dr. Oliver, was that of Mr. Hurd, the toll-gatherer of Portsmouth Bridge, when he handed from his pocket book the means for procuring necessary articles for the sufferer's comfort.

Another Accident.—On Saturday forenoon the train from Concord when near the Sagamore mill, in this city, ran against a dirt train standing on the track, doing some damage to the engines, but as the speed was retarded, doing little other injury, and hurting no one.

The Thirteenth.—This is said to be one of the finest regiments which have yet been mustered in, and Capt. Betton's company stands as well as the best of the companies. One wide-awake volunteer who left here with a banjo on his shoulder, has labeled the various tents of Co. K, "Franklin House," "Rockingham House," &c. and laid out the streets in the camp with the good old Portsmouth names, "Islington," "Congress, &c. The boys are likely to have a good time.

We hear that Sergeant-Major William H. Ladd, of this city, of the 13th N. H. Volunteers, was last week presented with a sword, sash and belt by some of his young friends, whose earnest desire is that he will do his part towards crushing this most wicked rebellion.

Ball's Camp Chest and Cooking Range.—On Monday last, Capt. Betton and his fellow officers, were presented by their friends, through Mr. Henry S. Bodge, with a handsome black walnut chest 34 inches long, 15 inches wide and 12 inches high, containing 59 different articles: among them a table 30 by 33 inches, with legs; 3 stools; 1 stove 23 inches long, and funnel, a boiler holding 10 gallons, large box for dry groceries, hatchet, saw, tea kettle, stew pan, frying pan, coffee pot, tea pot, 2 canteens, sugar bowl, coffee caddy, tea caddy, castor, 4 plates, 4 drinking cups, 4 knives and 4 forks, carver and fork, 4 large spoons, 4 small spoons, mustard spoon, ladle, dipper, corkscrew, 2 table cloths, 2 towels,—the whole weighing 45 pounds.

This chest, although invented and patented by a son of Portsmouth, (Mr. Horace W. Ball, now of New York, nephew of T. M. Ball, Esq. of this city,) is the first that has been seen in New Hampshire. The whole arrangement is excellent, not only for army use, but also for any who have occasion for camping out. The price is $25. Messrs. Ball, Black & Co. New York, are the agents.—They may be obtained through Mr. H. S. Bodge, of this city, who is a graduate from that celebrated establishment.

Portsmouth Boys.—We perceive by the Boston Traveller of Oct. 2d, that the 44th Regt. of 9 mos. M. Vols. is about to be sent to Newbern, N. C. As there are several Portsmouth boys in that regiment, it may interest some of our readers to know their names:

Manning Emery, son of Jas. W. Emery, Esq.
Frederick L. Dodge and Albert L. Dodge, sons of Samuel J. Dodge.
Benj. P. Chandler, son of B. F. Chandler.
Alex. R. Potter, son of Oliver Potter.
Edwin H. Rand, son of Reed V. Rand.
Ezekiel Fitzgerald, Jr. son of E. Fitzgerald.
E. L. Hill, son of the late Wm. Hill.

The regiment is said to be one of the finest sent from the old Bay State—and so far as Portsmouth is concerned, it has some of our best boys.

At a meeting of the Portsmouth Mercantile Library Association held on Tuesday evening last, Mr. Charles C. Melcher was elected Treasurer, in place of Mr. James K. Mellbury, who has removed from the city.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, so no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John E. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pindar, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle, and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—so all so most of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,

MATHEW'S Arnica HAIR GLOSS

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strengthens—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

Local.

A BEAUTIFUL SIGHT.—Seated on the rugged cliffs at Little Harbor, the wide spreading ocean at your feet, its surface unruffled, and stretching far out to the distant horizon, the wild and broken scenery which is made up by the islands, whose heights are covered with dense verdure, with here and there a quiet farmhouse peeping out among the trees;—the moon has just arisen, and o'er the waters and the land begins to throw its liquid light, its pathway o'er the sea glistening like molten glass;—presently the fleet of a hundred and fifty vessels,—which had been laying by in our harbor until the storm had past,—began to get under way; their topmasts could be seen gliding along beyond the distant treetops, and soon in long procession they emerged from behind the land, and stretching out to the South and as far as the eye could reach, made up a panorama truly beautiful.

☞ A couple of fellows who professed to belong to the N. H. 13th Regt., hired a horse and chaise of Messrs. Tilton & Marden, of this city, one day last week, for a few hours; and nothing has been seen or heard of them or the team since.

☞ It will be seen by his advertisement, that Mr. Carter has taken the well known "Portsmouth Academy," private school for boys.

☞ The Recruiting Tents on Market Square were blown down Saturday night—a hint for our young men to keep out of the draft. The tents have been righted again—and we hope and expect our quotas will be filled without draft.

☞ Pretty loud advertising—that of Messrs. Jones & Bolles, on the 'outside' of the Chronicle this morning. We take it, all our readers will "see the point," or at any rate, the advertisement, this time.

Also, that of Duprez & Green's Minstrels, on the outside of the Post Office Fence. All such "illustrations" are much more attractive and forcible, than ornamental, we think, both to newspapers and streets.

☞ The Boston Saturday Evening Gazette, in speaking of the sufferings and hunger of the prisoners taken at Bull Run, while on their way to Richmond, states that Capt. Gerrish of the 1st N. H. Battery gave a gold watch worth $125 for half a chicken and a few fragments, which he divided with a fellow sufferer. Capt. Gerrish was one of Pope's officers, and he was cheered as he went along by the assurance that he would be hanged at Richmond. He has been released.

☞ A Fayal correspondent states that there has been in the islands of Pico and Fayal an agrarian outbreak of the country people and farmers, who refuse paying a direct contribution on the value of the property in lieu of tithes, the payment of which is done away with. They say they are willing to pay the tithes as always as a religious obligation, and are determined not to pay the direct tax, and have resorted to violence. At last accounts all was quiet. The decision of the home government was awaited.

☞ The frigate Santee, which has been fitted up at the Charlestown Navy Yard as a school ship, to be stationed at Newport, went into commission on Saturday, and sailed for Newport on Sunday.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Maj. Gen. Burnside has recommended Col. S. G. Griffin of the 6th N. H. Regiment as a suitable person to be proposed to the General Government for Brigadier General of Volunteers for this State, on account of meritorious conduct at Camden, and in the recent battles in Virginia, at Bull Run, Chantilly, South Mountain, and Antietam.

—— The 13th regiment left Concord for Washington on Monday. The men are armed with Springfield rifles.

—— The following officers of the 15th regiment have been appointed, in addition to those already published in the Chronicle. Adjutant, —— Pinkham, Laconia; Chaplain, E. M. Wheelock, Dover; Quartermaster Sergeant, George W. Hobbs, Dover; Commissary, Alvah M. Kimball, Rochester. The other officers will be appointed early this week.

—— A Concord correspondent of the Boston Journal states that "volunteers sufficient in number for the Sixteenth regiment have already enlisted. It will take sixty days at least, to arm, uniform and send off the volunteers now in camp and those in readiness to report at the rendezvous."

RIGHT.—In England, a bankrupt named Hamper, a dealer in malt, has been sentenced by Mr. Commissioner Fane to one year's imprisonment for trading on fictitious capital, contracting debts without reasonable expectation of being able to pay them, wilfully bad book-keeping and extravagance of expenditure. This is the first stringent application of the penal powers of the act of last year.

DRIED APPLES FOR THE SOLDIERS.—Fred. Law Olmstead, Secretary of the Sanitary Commission, states that dried apples for the use of the soldiers cannot be sent to the depots of the Commission in too large quantities. Dried fruits of other kinds, and all good canned fruit will be very acceptable.

☞ An Irishman named Sheban, in Lewiston, Me., being sorely troubled with the rheumatism, having been informed that turpentine was a sovereign remedy, on Wednesday evening stripped himself, and with one hand applied the fluid, while in the other he held a lighted lamp. In the process of applying the remedy he unfortunately brought the lamp too near his body, and in the twinkling of an eye the turpentine took fire, and his body was enveloped in flames. His screams brought assistance, and the flames were quenched, not, however, before his limbs were terribly burned.

☞ Capt. Kenny of ship Metropolis, at St. John from Liverpool, states that on the 21st of September, while in lat. 43° 44 and lon. 52° 55, was boarded by a boat from schooner Olive, Capt. Clark, who wished it reported that the day before while lying at anchor in a strong north-westerly gale, they saw the schooner White Cloud of Provincetown, which was at anchor near by, founder, and all on board, thirteen in number, were lost.

McGREGOR'S PATENT
AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING
FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

The Magee Cook Stove.

This cut represents the MAGEE COOK, without the extension top. It is beautiful in design and highly finished; every joint accurately fitted and nicely cemented, making it a perfectly air-tight Stove. The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning

ECONOMIZE! "GET THE BEST!"

The Magee Cook Stove

The Greatest Improvement of the Age!

THE MAGEE

Hall or Store Stove.

These Stoves operate on the other stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up the ashes is entirely dispensed with. We venture to assert that no new stove ever introduced to the public has given such universal and unbounded satisfaction as the MAGEE COOK.

THE MAGEE PARLOR STOVE.

This Stove having been before the public for the last three or four years, and so extensively used in this city and vicinity, is too well known to need any recommendation. They have been somewhat improved and are made with and without ovens. Every Stove warranted, or no sale.

The above cut represents the MAGEE COOKING STOVE with the Extension top, Hot Water Reservoir and Warming Closet attached. This Stove possesses many advantages over every other yet invented, being heavier, having a larger oven, bakes quicker and requires "one-third less coal" than any other stove in the market. The fire may be kept day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense and trouble of re-kindling every day. For economy, convenience and perfection in baking it cannot be excelled.

Who has Used them?

We would refer to some families who are using the Magee Cook, in this city:

J. Woodman Moses,	John R. Holbrook,
Geo. L. Treadwell,	Henry L. Richards,
Frank Jones,	Geo. B. French,
George Bilbrook,	James H. Pindar,
James Shaw,	Joseph B. Upham,
John Teague,	Wm. R. Martin,
Wm. Cartledge,	Benj. F. Martin,
Mrs. John Lake,	James Bowles,
Tobias Ham,	Ira Dixon,
Wm. H. Laws,	Thomas Hones,
Chas. A. Hodgdon,	Wm. Critchley,
Samuel Gookin,	Oren Bragdon,
Marcellus Eldredge,	Martin L. Twombley,
John H. Piper,	John W. White.

Also to Isaac Joy, South Berwick; Benj. G. Parker and Chas. W. Parker, Kittery; Solomon Brooks and Alonzo Lane, York; Thomas J. Tarlton, Howard Curtis and Thos. E. O. Marvin, Newcastle; and many others.

These Stoves operate on the same principle as the Parlor Stove—are made either high or low, and are made expressly for Stores or Halls. We recommend them as the most economical Stove in use. They can be so regulated as to give any amount of heat required.

THE MAGEE FURNACE,

Which, for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal, producing a current of warm air moist and agreeable, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated. The Furnaces consume all the coal and gas, making no clinkers. The sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 60 per cent. of fuel over common furnaces.

The above, and many other kinds of Stoves, and a general assortment of House Furnishing Goods, are offered at the lowest possible prices, at No. 61 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1862.

HON. A. J. HAMILTON.—This distinguished Union refugee from Texas delivered an exceedingly interesting address in Brooklyn Thursday evening. His position has been such that he probably understands the great national conspiracy as well as any man. The following glimpse, therefore, which he gives of its spirit, is well worth considering:—

"We now realize the fact that we must have a stronger government; if you know it as I know it, you would feel, fellow citizens, that there was something more involved in this revolution than a simple desire to get rid of this hated Yankee. It is not because the men who inaugurated it hated the people of the North. As Mr. Spratt of South Carolina says, it was not because they felt that you had seriously wronged them, but it was a deliberate purpose on their part to be the controlling spirits in a new and different order of Government, where their power would be perpetual, and they would not be subjugated to the chances of the free choice of a free people in recurring elections, as had been the case in past time in our country; and he that does not realize that fact to-day, does not yet understand what the revolution means, and by consequence the man that is to-day flattering himself that, by conciliatory measures, by kind words, by peace offerings, the disloyal States can be caused to resume their position in the Confederacy, is wofully deceived; it never will happen in that way. There is but one remedy, and that is in the physical power of the loyal people of the North—the physical power directed by the exercise of sufficient thought to lead you to just conclusions as to what the consequences are to be to you as well as to the balance of the people of the United States in case of failure."

Mr. Hamilton's own undaunted spirit is well illustrated in the following remarks:—

"And now, fellow citizens, the question is, is it proper, is it practicable, to restore things as they were? It is a fashionable term here to say, We are for the Constitution as it is and for the Union as it was. The Constitution as it is! Yes. The Union as it was! No. (This was said with much feeling and earnestness, and drew down tumultuous applause.) I invoke the aid of the loyal people in restoring the Government of the United States. But, fellow citizens, if you had the power, and were to tender to me to night the restoration of the Union as it existed in the State of Texas in 1861, I would not thank you for the boon. If, because I cannot measure my conscience or judgment with those of my neighbor, or a majority of my neighbors, I am to be looked upon with coldness, suspicion and aversion; if I am to be insulted and spit upon by the children of my neighbors, whom I have dandled on my knee, thinking they would, at least, remember me with kindness as their father's neighbor and friend; if I am to be looked upon as something loathsome, because I cannot believe that slavery is the beginning and the end of all legitimate government; if, above all, I cannot say what I believe, that there are excesses and abuses in respect to that institution which ought to be looked to; if, in short, because I might say what Washington said, believing it, what Jefferson wrote, and what all the good and great men of that day believed, I am to be stigmatized as a traitor, and made to suffer a traitor's doom; if that is to be the result of the 'Union as it was,' I want no such Union."

BLACK ENOUGH.—The Federal Government has announced its intention of raising the "black" (or free nigger) flag on the first of January. Good, so—and much effect may it have for the Union cause, say we.

The Confederates say they are also going to hoist the black flag. And we are glad of that, too—for we don't believe in kid glove warfare. If that flag really floated on both sides you wouldn't hear of officers and troops by thousands surrendering so willingly; and the war would have closed long ago. Take these facts, and the cloudy prospect before all of us; and if there isn't enough of the black, why let us all paint ourselves, or go and see Dupree & Green.

NEGRO FREEDOM AND WHITE SLAVERY.—President Lincoln's proclamation, declaring the abolition of black slavery, has been immediately followed by another which virtually abolishes white freedom! The first proclamation undertakes to give liberty to the negro; and the second takes away the habeas corpus, the most essential right of the once free American citizen.

* * * It is now for the first time proposed, in any responsible quarter, to exchange white freedom for black—to liberate the millions of negroes, and put the millions of white men in their places. We do not like the plan. We loathe and spurn it.—N. Y. Argus.

☞ The notes of a "Secretary" of one of the Ward meetings in Boston, held last Friday evening, read that said meeting was "caled to chuse delagaits to the Congragashinal Convensbon." Fast.

☞ It is said that 350,000 heavy English navy blankets have been imported into the South within the last six weeks.

THE REBELLION.

There were several important skirmishes in Kentucky at the close of last week, all of them resulting in our favor.

A Key West letter, 29th, says Col. Morgan, commander of the post, has issued an order, freeing all the slaves in his department.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. World says it was confidently reported there on Sunday that Gen. Lee's army was in full retreat.

40,000 rebels under Van Dorn, Price and Lovell, attacked our forces under Gen. Grant, at Corinth, Miss., on Friday, but were repulsed with great slaughter, and retreated, leaving their dead and wounded on the field. Gen. Rosecrans led our troops. Gen. Hackleman was killed, and Gen. Oglesby dangerously wounded. We took between 700 and 1000 prisoners, not including the wounded. On Saturday Gen. Hurlburt marched to the south side of the Hatchie with a large force, and thus cut off Price's retreat, while Gen. Rosecrans early on Sunday morning moved forward to renew the attack. Gen. Price now finds himself on the forks of the Hatchie river, between Hurlburt and Rosecrans. Firing was heard on Sunday in the direction of the forces.

Gen. Grant reports that on Sunday, Gen. Ord, who followed Gen. Hurlburt, met the enemy on the south side of the Hatchie river, and drove them across the stream, getting possession of the heights with our troops. He took 2 batteries and about 200 prisoners.

STATE LAW VS. THE CENTRAL POWER. In the case of Rev. Mr. Benedict, of Buffalo, whose arrest, discharge on habeas corpus, and re-arrest, we mentioned last week, there has been a second writ of habeas corpus, which the U. S. official absolutely disregarded. Mr. B. has been carried off to Washington—kidnapped, in fact, by U. S. officers. Mr. Benedict's crime, we learn, was language used in the pulpit. Even there, no refuge exists for our ancient liberty of speech.

The decision of Judge Hall, before whom this case was brought, is such a vindication of Constitution, law and ancient right, as has for some time been needed, to put a bound to the usurpations which have been going on. * * * Judge Hall cites the law of Congress, and while declaring that he should have refused the writ if the President or Secretary of War had so ordered under the authority of Congress, he now grants it, because, having received the acts of the last session, he sees that Congress has passed no act on this subject. The question of the power of the President to suspend the habeas corpus, without the authority of Congress, is therefore presented in this case. And Judge Hall demonstrates by the most overwhelming array of authorities, that the President of himself has no power to suspend the habeas corpus without an act of Congress. Up to the outbreak of this war, all our able writers on the Constitution, all jurists, all members of the only Congress in which the question was ever discussed without exception, (it was discussed at the time of the Burr conspiracy,) all the legal and legislative minds that ever had their attention drawn to the subject, up to the year 1861, including among others, John Quincy Adams, Chief Justice Marshall, Judge Story and Attorney General Cushing, held the opinion that the President has no power to suspend the habeas corpus without an act of Congress.

This is the decision of the court. The President, himself, has no right to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, much less his subordinates.—New York Argus.

☞ Col. Hamilton, of Texas, is urged for Military Governor of Texas, with Cassius M. Clay as commander. The two to go together with a division of soldiers and 50,000 armed citizens. The expedition is projected to co-operate with Eli Thayer's to Florida. Five thousand men have already offered themselves to Thayer, and a wealthy ship owner of New York proffers three first class steamers for the enterprise.

☞ A letter from Rome, published in the Wanderer of Vienna, contains the following statement:—

"The Pope's health is not very satisfactory. His own position and that of Italy weighs on his mind. His Holiness lately remarked to an ecclesiastical dignitary.—'The hand of Providence has already written for me the Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin. My days are numbered; my acts are weighed in the balance of Divine justice, and I hope they will not be found too far wanting; my empire is falling into secular hands. Will it be for long?—who knows?"

☞ All the water used by the Union forces at Fort Pulaski, Georgia, is condensed from steam generated from salt water. This makes good drinking water for all ordinary purposes. Before the erection of these works, all the water had to be brought down in vessels from Beaufort and Bay Point.

☞ At the Essex Agricultural Society's Fair, one speaker declared that he did not believe there had been any material progress in agriculture in Essex County for twenty years. Of course there was a hubbub, and the improvements in agricultural implements alone were instanced as evidence of progress.

☞ A dispatch from San Francisco announces the safe arrival at Shanghae of Capt. Sargent of ship Phantom, of Boston, which was wrecked July 13, on the Prates Shoal. Capt. Sargent also saved his treasure, $500,000 in gold.

☞ Rumors of something decisive to take place soon are again rife in Washington. A prominent naval officer remarked, in conversing about the probability of immediate movements: "Wait a few days and something will drop."

☞ Commissioner Boutwell has decided that Banks in paying out dividends, are to retain the duty charged on such dividends, and pay it over to the collectors under the excise bill. So if a dividend amounts to $10,000, there must be withheld from the stockholders 3 per cent., $300.

☞ Crinoline suffers in Chicago. The railway company have placed figures upon the sides of the car to indicate each five cent seat, and when additional space is occupied, additional fare is charged.

☞ Three little children, aged respectively four years, two years, and six months, perished in a burning house in Petersburg, N. Y. on Wednesday afternoon, during the temporary absence of their mother.

When the regulations of West Boston Bridge were drawn up by the famous lawyers, one section was written, accepted, and still stands thus: "And the said proprietors shall meet annually on the first Tuesday of June, provided the same does not fall on Sunday."

☞ The old flag, which has floated from the Old South Church in Boston on the 17th of June and 4th of July, has been stolen. The flag was loaned to envelope the casket of the late Col. Webster, but was stolen before it had been used.

We chronicle, with pleasure, a fact which has drawn a malicious sneer from republican journals, viz: the adjournment of the Episcopal diocesan convention in this city, without any expression on political affairs.—N. Y. Argus.

☞ Rev. E. H. Lake, formerly of Haverhill, Mass., and of Great Falls, N. H., a clergyman of the Universalist denomination, died in Richmond, Va., on the 22d ult. He had resided in North Carolina for some years.

TRUE COURTESY.—Manners are more important than laws. Upon them in a great measure the laws depends. The law can touch us here and there, now and then.—Manners are what vex or soothe, corrupt or purify, exalt or debase, barbarize or refine, by a constant, steady, uniform, insensible operation like that of the air we breathe in. They give their whole form and colors to our lives. According to their quality, they aid morals; they supply them or they totally destroy them.

☞ Wilson's Zouaves are stationed at Pensacola, and are said to have become excellent soldiers, although famous in the foraging way. Billy Wilson occupies ex-Senator Mallory's house. A correspondent remarks:—

"While passing the latter recently I found a large body of the Zouaves hanging picturesquely around the chimney tops, turrets and cornices, taking the benefit of a cool breeze with the greatest nonchalance—their legs hanging down, and acting generally as if perfectly satisfied with their present position, and determined to make the most of it. Col. Wilson was sitting on the front porch."

HERSEY'S TRIAL, for the murder by poison, of Betsey Francis Tirrell,—has just been published by A. Williams & Co., Boston, in a handsome volume of 267 pages,—and is for sale in Portsmouth by J. F. Shores, jr.—It is a very important trial, and finely reported.

☞ A man named Edgarton has been arrested on the charge of having defrauded the government out of twenty-five thousand dollars in contracts for ice and military stores, shipped from Boston for the army while it was in James river, but which were afterward privately sold.

We have heard it said that President Lincoln's emancipation proclamation was designed for the European market and not for home effect. We should judge so from its peculiar character, for it guarantees slavery wherever our army holds power, and abolishes it where we cannot render it operative.—[Newburyport Herald.

☞ The Alta California, of August 24th, has this paragraph: "The telegraph worked bravely last night. Our latest dispatches are dated Washington and New York, 12 o'clock, midnight. They reached us at 10 P. M., two hours, in fact, before they were transmitted."

☞ The announcement made some days since with regard to the discovery of the Otis murderers, proves to have been unfounded, as no discovery has yet been made, and neither the negroes accused nor any other persons are under arrest for the crime.

The negroes are the only secure class on the continent. The South is careful not to kill them, because of the value of their labor, and the North won't give them a chance to be killed, lest some one would be offenced! So they are likely to have a fine time of it when the whites of either section succeed in exterminating each other.—Commonwealth.

☞ At a meeting of the Overseers of Harvard College, on Monday, Rev. Thomas Hill was confirmed as President of the University.

"Walk with the Beautiful," is the title of some verses which have been going the round of some of the papers. Old Skuddy attempted to follow the advice, and, after promenading with a pretty girl, went home, and was met by an undignified wife. He says he will not follow the advice of a poet a second time.

PROMOTION OF PRIVATES.—The circular of Gen. Halleck requesting the Governors to fill the vacancies in the officers of the regiments from the ranks, is so just and sensible that we should think it would meet with the unanimous assent of the appointing power.

☞ About fifty officers were arrested on Friday night at the theatres in Washington for being without proper passes, and ordered to report themselves under arrest.

☞ The Monitor is undergoing repairs at the Washington Navy Yard, and having large fan-blowers put in to improve the ventilation, which is very defective.

One-half the care, expense, and trouble expended in the destruction of insects, if applied to the protection of birds, would have proved tenfold more remunerative.

☞ The Old Farmer's Almanac, by Robt. B. Thomas, for 1863, is just published by Brewer & Tileston, Boston; it is No. 71;—is as good now as ever; and in many respects better.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.
They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!
The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to Independence." Let every man, woman and child who use Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.
"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.
The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.
The Port has a fine flavor and body; and

VOL. 21. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. WEDNESDAY, OCT. 8, 1862. NO. 57.

The Chronicle.

Gustavus the Second nearly snuffed out the point of honor. He heard of two officers being about to fight a duel, and ordered them to be arrested and brought to him. "Gentlemen," said he, "don't think I am going to spoil your sport. No. Satisfaction shall be obtained, I assure you, and I will judge. Come with me." And he took them into a court yard, where they saw two coffins and a hangman with his apparatus ready, "Messieurs, commence your game. One of you two will be the executioner of the other; the survivor will meet with his reward at the hands of this gentleman!"—pointing to the hangman.

A Frenchman was being terribly beaten by a brawny sailor, who held his victim to the earth while he severely thrashed him. The unfortunate fellow kept yelling out with all his might "Hurrah! I say, hurrah!" but a man who was passing saw his predicament, and told him to cry "enough." "Enough! enough!" shouted the be-flogged foreigner. "By gar sat is de word I try to think of dis several minutes gone." The sailor let him get up, when the Frenchman rubbed his hands with delight, and cried, "Enough! by gar, 'tis very mooch good word for little fellow to remember."

It is related of some friends of Campbell, the author of Hohenlinden, in leaving his room after a gay supper, that one of the number had the misfortune to fall down a long flight of stairs. The poet, alarmed by the noise, opened his door and inquired, "What's that?" "'Tis I, sir, rolling rapidly," was the immediate reply of the fallen friend.

☞ A wild woman of the woods is the latest "sensation" in Paris. She was captured in some impracticable and unheard-of place, and has been exhibited before the learned societies. Her hair measures five feet in length, and, being thick and wooly, forms an immense mantle, giving her the appearance of enormous size.

There is one consolation to be drawn from the Louisville homicide. The London Times will determine that it was Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederate States, who did the shooting, and in that view of the case will probably make an elaborate apology for the act, calling the murder as "dignified and respectable" as a Richmond State paper.—[Statesman.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, which he prescribed, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since. CAMILLA B. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct. SIMEON SWETT.

Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors. HARVEY W. PAYNE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give my relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1858. Dr. Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."
WM. P. LEAVITT.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may25o

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Takes special specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of Specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 3d says the Federal army is south of the Potomac, moving up the valley from Martinsburg and Harper's Ferry, and a battle may be expected at any time. The Whig says it is reported that 125 transports have gone up the Potomac to Alexandria, supposed for the purpose of making another move on Richmond, via Fredericksburg, or some other route.

The Unionists in Camden county, N. C., have petitioned President Lincoln for permission to drive all the rebel families out of the county. If permission is granted, they promise two loyal regiments for the Union, half of which have been already raised—one cavalry and the other infantry.

Advices from Greenville, Mo., 4th, convey intelligence that all the Texas troops, numbering about 2000, under Gen. McBride, have been ordered home forthwith in consequence of the Union victories at Marshall and Shreveport.

Lieut. Com'g Walker, of the Winona, reports to the Navy Department the destruction of one of the rebels' steamers at Mobile. Fort Morgan fired over and around them, but without casualties. The crew escaped.

The World's Washington correspondence says refugees from Loudon county, fleeing to escape the last rebel conscription in that quarter, are reaching Washington. Every person capable of bearing arms, including all Quakers and boys over 16 years of age, are turned into the ranks. They have also taken every horse left in the county, for the service of Lee's army.

Gen. Rosecranz totally routed the rebels near Corinth on Monday. They fled, throwing away everything. Our troops were following sharply. The rebel Gen. Martin is said to be killed.

Com. Wilkes' fleet was at Bermuda, Sept. 30th.

Beauregard has arrived at Savannah.—He has promised his troops to take Fort Pulaski in 30 days. The Fingal and another rebel battery, it is said, will be ready in two weeks. Our troops have destroyed extensive salt works at Bluffton.

Gen. Schofield on Saturday, routed 15,000 rebels at Newtonia, Mo.

REBEL CONGRESS.—According to the debates and reports of the rebel Congress, the Post office Department is not self sustaining.

A bill introduced in the rebel Congress, provides that if counterfeit treasury notes are introduced by officers or soldiers of the United States, the offender shall be deemed guilty of felony, and suffer death on conviction in any military court.

An act was passed authorizing the manufacture of shoes and clothing for the army of the Confederacy. It provides for bringing into the country, duty free, cards, card cloth, machinery, and all other articles necessary for the purpose.

☞ The iron-clad steamer Nahant, was launched at South Boston, on Tuesday.—This is the second iron-clad steamer for the Government since the order was given for the nine Monitors. The Nahant is about 1800 tons. Her length is 200 feet and her breadth 46 feet. The thickness of her wooden armor is three feet, and of the iron armor outside of the wood, six inches.

☞ The village of Brookdale, which forms a portion of South Danvers, Mass., is familiarly termed by the remainder of the town, "the Devil's Dishful." The superfastidious, however, refer to them simply as "the people down to the Dishful."

☞ Governor Morgan has sent a request to the War Department that, as far as practicable, the new regiments from New York may be attached to the division under the command of Maj. Gen. Daniel E. Sickes.

☞ At a meeting in the Charlestown Navy Yard to promote enlistments, Saturday evening, it was voted to contribute the pay of one day each for a bounty to those in the Navy Yard who may enlist before Nov. 1.

☞ Gov. Vance has called a council of the leading men of North Carolina, for the purpose of taking President Lincoln's recent proclamation into consideration.

☞ It is stated that the expedition from Hilton Head, which was alleged to be intended for Charleston, has been abandoned.

☞ The President's proclamation of liberty to the slaves of rebels, as was to be expected, creates a stir in the rebel congress, and is the grand subject of discussion now. Uncle Toby would offer that congress the same advice which was so often given to the U. S. Congress last year, viz. to let the negro alone. The answer might be,—that is impossible. Ay, so it is, and as really on one side as the other. Both the loyal states and the rebels have fallen into the pit they have been digging; these fifty years, and now they are advised to escape by shutting their eyes and digging deeper. But manifest destiny points the other way; the eyes will open; causes of war will be discussed; and the revolution go forward to civil and rational liberty.

☞ The British steamer Dispatch was libeled at New York some time ago in a civil suit for $30,000, and left under charge of a revenue cutter. On Friday night, Capt. Benj. Buck, of the Dispatch, went on board the cutter and told her commandant that he was going to sea. On Saturday morning the Dispatch got up steam and proceeded down the Bay. The cutter fired three or four shots at her which she did not heed, when the Fort was signaled, and two shots were fired from Fort Lafayette. The Dispatch then hove to, and on Sunday was towed back to Quarantine.

☞ It is stated that Indianians in Washington think that if Gen. Davis is dismissed from the army, he will be sent to Congress from Indiana, as the people of that State are almost unanimous in regarding the conduct of Gen. Nelson to the Indiana troops as ferociously brutal. Indeed they declare that the ball which Gen. Nelson received in his thigh at the battle of Richmond came from the musket of an Indiana volunteer.

☞ A Union man, who escaped from Lexington, Ky., and arrived in Covington, states that, by a recent order of Gen. Kirby Smith, all the stoves in Lexington have been seized and carried to the foundries, where they are cast into shot and shell.—The order caused great complaint among the citizens, both Secesh and Union.

☞ A joint resolution has been adopted by the Virginia Legislature, providing that no person within that State shall be tried or imprisoned, for driving therefrom, or putting to death, by any means, any person, with or without arms, who may be found on that soil aiding or abetting, or in any other way giving effect in that State or its borders, to the lawless and fiendish proclamation of President Lincoln to liberate the slaves.

A BALTIMORE SECESSIONIST AND HIS CONFEDERATE SCRIP.—The Baltimore Clipper tells this story:—

A rebel farmer living near Bear Creek, in Baltimore county, Maryland, was so elated at the late rebel excursion into Maryland, that he determined to visit 'our deliverers,' and for that purpose booked up his horse and wagon and started all agog. He alighted at a hotel near Frederick, and was drinking a bumper to Jeff, when a confederate officer came in and enquired for the owner of the team. Bear Creek farmer was delighted, and with a face radiant with smiles, said, 'I am, sir, and that team is southern all over, sir; horse, wagon, and driver, sir.' 'And what is the price?' interrupted the son of Mars, pulling out a roll of Confederate scrip. 'Oh,' said the farmer, 'I would not like to sell now, 'cause I can't use your kind of money in Baltimore.' 'Nonsense,' says the officer, 'haven't you declared over and over in your letters that the bankers and rich men of Baltimore are in our cause? they'll buy sir,' and, handing over the price in Confederate scrip, he left the farmer to toddle home afoot with a pocket full of Confederate treasure. He arrived in town a few days ago, and stopped several persons with 'show me the man that buys Confederate scrip.' We have not heard at the time of going to press whether the individual so eagerly sought for has turned up."

☞ A minister in Lawrence, Mass., on Monday afternoon, created quite an excitement among the boys, by distributing a barrel of apples among them, as they were out at recess upon the Common.

☞ The yellow fever at Wilmington, N. C., has not abated. On Monday there were 43 new cases. Several doctors had been sent from Charleston.

The Richmond Whig of the 4th says the small pox has broken out in the military hospitals in Danville.

☞ On Saturday the rebels inaugurated Richard Howes as Governor of Kentucky at Frankfort. Bragg and Humphrey Marshall made bitter anti-Union speeches.—Kirby Smith was there. Buckner was expected, but was not present.

☞ The planing works of Mr. Silas Sweet, in Providence, were blown up by a boiler explosion on Wednesday, and the workmen buried under the ruins. Three dead bodies were taken out, and Mr. Sweet and six others were alive, but badly mangled.

☞ All able bodied negroes in Eastern North Carolina, are now being seized by order of the rebel Secretary of War, and carried to Virginia to work on fortifications.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The authorities at Washington have been examining witnesses about the killing of Darius Robinson, N. H. 12th, near the Relay House, by some one on a train which passed the one on which the deceased was. It has been proved that several passengers fired revolvers as salutes to the New Hampshire boys, but there is much doubt as to whose pistols were loaded with ball.

—— There was received by the Washington Sanitary Commission, lately, a patriotic old lady's tribute, bearing this inscription:—

"These socks were spun and knit by Mrs. Zerusah Clapp, 96 years old, whose hands in youth were engaged in moulding bullets in the Revolutionary war. Keep the toes of these socks toward the rebels. Chestertown, N. H."

—— Thursday, Nov. 27th, has been appointed for Thanksgiving in this State.

—— Dea. A. K. Merrill has in his garden at Haverhill, quite a bed of Strawberries; and says if we have a fortnight of warm weather he could pick a quart of ripe berries. He dug over the ground in July, and transplanted the old roots.

—— The crops in this part of the State, are now so advanced and secured, that we may safely pronounce the season productive. The hay, of both crops, is abundant, and the second crop is of excellent quality. The pasture has been short for some time, but recent showers have improved the feed. Corn is sound and well ripened, a moderate crop: potatoes a fair yield, and good quality: and apples are abundant and unusually fair. Thus, with the good supply of the smaller grains, melons, squashes, and the like, we are stocked with food for man and beast; and when we add the plentiful supply of beef, pork, and poultry,—a strong case is made out for a cheerful thanksgiving, so far as good feeding is concerned.

—— Eugene Kincaid Foss, son of Rev. A. T. Foss, died suddenly in Manchester, on Sunday, of bilious fever. He was a member of the Band of the 4th Regt., and returned home with the band, a week ago. He went to Europe with Father Kemp, as a performer. He was 26 years old: an only son, a good musician, an excellent printer, and an estimable man.

BEAT IT IF YOU CAN.—H. B. Lamprey, Esq., of North Hampton, has a lamb which weighed 120 lbs. the day it was four months old. The mother of the lamb, one year old, sheared 9 1-2 pounds wool. Breed, Cotswold.

A touching scene is related as transpiring in a Philadelphia hospital recently.—Some benevolent ladies had distributed ice cream, to the invalid soldiers and all gladly partook of the refreshment save one young, pale, handsome boy. His eyes were closed, and one of the ladies observing him softly whispered, "the poor little fellow is asleep, we must not disturb him." "No, ma'am, I am not asleep," he answered in a silvery voice, full of the sweetness of innocence and boyhood. "Well, my little fellow," continued the lady, as she drew nearer, "are you fond of ice cream?" "Very much so," he replied. Didn't you see me place this on your little table?" reaching for the plate of cream. "Oh, yes," he answered, tremulously, "but I shut my eyes and cried to myself." "Cried, my child? why, what made you cry, my dear?"—"Oh, madame! if you will pull the quilt down a little you will see." The lady did so, and found that he had no arms. Both of them he had lost in battle.

☞ The People's Convention, in Massachusetts, held in Faneuil Hall, Boston, on Tuesday, was largely attended by delegates who have heretofore acted with all political parties. It was called to order by Hon. Joel Parker, of Cambridge. Hon. Linens Child, of Boston, presided. Gen. Charles Devens, of Worcester, was nominated by acclamation for Governor.

☞ The New York Express of Saturday publishes a communication stating that a convention is to be held at the South, to consider the necessity and propriety of sending North all slaves over 40 years of age—both men and women—on condition that they never return to a slave State, and soon after all slaves over 30 years of age.

☞ The Government is about to send a commission to the West, to investigate the present Indian difficulties. It is asserted now that there can be no doubt of the fact that arms have been furnished the Indians by persons engaged in British interests.

☞ The New York State Fair at Rochester, which closed on Friday, has been a success pecuniarily, the total receipts amounting to $11,000.

☞ It is stated that Gen. McClellan has just made a requisition for 5000 spades.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine-growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

Phillips, wholesale, Portland.

Local.

☞ The City of Portsmouth have nearly completed their part of the mile or so of new highway laid out last spring by the County Commissioners, through the farms of Mr. R. L. Lane and the late Hon. Jas. Pickering. Newington's share is not built yet, but we presume will soon be. This will open to the public one of the most delightful drives in this vicinity, affording one of the most commanding views of Great Bay and the surrounding country. The next improvement needed, is to extend the new road direct to the shores of the Bay at one end, and to Creek Street at the other. This would increase the value of abutting lands more than enough to warrant the outlay needed.

A CHANGE OF COLOR.—The deep black, which our war ships have been painted, has proved to be a very prominent mark to shoot at, in consequence of which, a change has been made to a greyish drab. The steamers R. R. Cuyler, and Ossipee, now at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, have both been painted this shade, which makes them much more "invisible," so that one standing on this side of the river can hardly distinguish the vessels from the wharf or water, whereas a small black boat and a schooner in the immediate vicinity stand out in bold relief.

☞ The U. S. steam transport R. R. Cuyler left her moorings at the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Tuesday noon, and steamed away for her old cruising ground on the southern coast. She has been thoroughly cleansed and re-fitted in a very short time, and much credit is due the officers and workmen at the Yard, for the expeditious and effective manner in which they have discharged their several duties.

☞ The Manchester Mirror states that the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company of that city have orders for one of their steam fire engines, of the 2d class, for this city; but our city authorities have no knowledge of such an order having been given to that company or to any other for such an engine.

☞ Messrs. Charles Dickson and Samuel Tilden, of Charlestown, Mass., who were on board the train at the recent collision on the Eastern Railroad, and who were considerably bruised and had their clothes destroyed, have severally been awarded $40, in full of all claims for damages. Several others from Charlestown, who were more or less injured, have not yet settled with the Company. A Mr. Faunce had his arm broken.

☞ A lady writer, speaking of a trip to the Shoals, says:—"Our two young ladies took each an oar and making a first essay in rowing pulled us with soft and rhythmic pulses up the golden glowing waters." They were on their return to Portsmouth, and "the quiet, dull, little city too, took on a look of brightness and poetry as its shabby wharves and weather-beaten buildings stood wrapped in the golden glow." Very charming, is that lady writer. "Her calm cheerfulness tranquillizes us" even in "quiet, dull, little Portsmouth."

☞ The Boston and other papers have published an item stating that a large number of cannon were to be cast "by a firm in Portsmouth." Does anybody know of a cannon foundry in Portsmouth, N. H.?—We never heard of one.

☞ Boatswain William Black, U. S. N., of this city, has been ordered, for temporary service, to the Charlestown Navy Yard.

☞ An order has been issued to the Drafting Commissioners of Pennsylvania, directing that all persons who have been exempt from military service because of alienage, but who shall become citizens prior to the day of drafting, shall have their names placed on the list of those subject to draft.

☞ The portion of the old wooden Eastern Railroad depot in Boston, which was not destroyed by the fire a few months since, is being demolished to make room for the erection of a new brick depot building.

☞ The money markets for a few days past have shown intense excitement—Speculation in stocks is rampant. The abundance of money seeking employment and a depreciated paper currency produce just the condition of things now witnessed; but when something breaks,—as break it must before long,—each person must look out for himself. Persons having stocks of course know when to buy and when to sell.

☞ The draft in New York cannot take place on the 10th, as the enrollment is not completed.

☞ Mackerel were plenty near the mouth of the Merrimack on Monday. One small boat caught five barrels.

☞ It is reported that nine of the new Massachusetts regiments now in camp, will be sent to North Carolina.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distension, Stricture of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Nightly Emissions, and the train of terrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr. D devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr Dow has for sale the French Capottes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

CAUTION

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted at all of all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt but greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges himself in the United States.

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal. No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is

THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Dani. Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

Morning Chronicle.

A HOAX TURNED INTO A FACT.—A young but rather verdant fellow at Brooklyn, N. Y., named Gould, recently secured a second lieutenant's commission in consequence of a joke played upon him. Some chaps who had cabined, dared him to do likewise, telling him a commission should be secured for him. He agreed, and a forged document was forwarded from Albany. The befooled fellow reported for duty, when Gov. Morgan finding that he was a good earnest soldier, and had served well as a three months' volunteer, forthwith gave him a second lieutenant's commission, and he will probably be assigned to the same company with the boys who boaxed him.

The idea that the English are in the habit of sacrificing human victims has spread all over Northwest India, has shown in Bombay, and has now broken out in Madras. The daughter of a collector in that presidency was to be married, and the day before the wedding the butler went into the village to buy some necessaries for the breakfast, and found it deserted. A report has gone abroad that twelve fat children were to be sacrificed, and the villagers all fled to the jungle. After a great deal of trouble the adults of the village were induced to return, but not a single child was visible till the wedding was over.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and cast-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John E. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pindar, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 40 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,

MATHEW'S Arnica HAIR GLOSS

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., but she had not obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as the cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it; and I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, which he prescribed, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since. CAROLINE H. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct. SIMEON SWETT.

Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1851.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no return of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.

HANNAH HOWE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1852.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it. And all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the slightest trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1838. Dr. Swett:—"Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints."

WM. P. LAVITT.

From ELDER I CURTIS, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine so valuable that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CURTIS.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Advice made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that MORE SUCCESSFUL Patents are THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he feels and that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of Specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay, therefore are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on new, rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

Although we appear to have been outnumbered two to one, at Corinth, Miss., our success was most decided. The rebel loss is about 800 killed, and from 1500 to 1800 wounded. We have taken nearly 2000 prisoners, and several thousand stand of arms, mostly new and of English make.—Our loss is thought to be about 300 killed and 1000 wounded. Gen. Ogleaby has died, and Gen. Ord was slightly wounded.

A dispatch from Cumberland, Md., states that the entire wagon trains of Imbodeus, a rebel artillery officer, embracing supplies of all kinds, 2 pieces of artillery, 100 small arms and 50 prisoners, have been captured, and Col. McReynolds is in pursuit of him up the great Cacapon river.

The rebel army in Kentucky is said to be retreating to Hall's Gap, destroying the bridges behind them. Lexington has been nearly evacuated by them.

On the 2d inst. an expedition under Gen. Brannan left Hilton Head for Jacksonville, Fla., for the purpose of retaking the batteries. The expedition consisted of the 7th N. H., 42 Penn., and 6th Conn. regiments, with a Conn. battery.

A dispatch to the N. Y. Herald says that recent reconnoissances reveal the fact that Gen. Lee is rapidly falling back on Richmond.

Parties from the Pacific coast are in Washington, importuning the government to accept 10,000 cavalry.

Pensacola advices state that a portion of the mortar fleet had left for Galveston, and the remainder, with gunboats, were to leave immediately. It was thought, there, however, that this was a ruse, and that Mobile was the destination of the fleet.

A dispatch to the N. Y. Post states that the Washington Star says it is currently reported that Gen. Butler will succeed Sec. Stanton; that Gen. Halleck returns to his old command at the West; that the command of Gen. McClellan's army will be given to Gen. Hooker, and that Gen. McClellan will succeed Gen. Halleck at Washington. The Star man evidently knows how to tell a large story.

Our gunboats have recently been engaged in destroying the old rebel batteries on the Potomac. It is not thought that the rebels have now any guns on the river.

The latest accounts from Kentucky state that the rebels are endeavoring to reach Cumberland Gap. One portion of their army is still at Lexington. Our troops are close upon both of their commands. Skirmishing is constantly going on.

HEAPED MEASURE.—Messrs. Editors: A correspondent in your paper of Sept. 7, makes the inquiries:—

What is a heaped bushel? or in other words, how many inches are there in what is called a heaped bushel? Is there any law or custom for what must be added to make a heaped bushel?

The answer to the above is, 2419.2 inches make a heaped bushel. The custom is to add one gallon to the U. S. bushel.

To measure a cart, box, or bin, multiply the length, width and hight in inches, together, and divide by 2419.2 for the contents in heaped bushels.

☞ The York County Agricultural Fair and Cattle show, at Saco and Biddeford, closes to-day. There are to be several horse trots this afternoon. The Railroad fare is reduced one-half—and cars leave at 10 o'clock.

☞ The Massachusetts People's Convention, held in Faneuil Hall, Boston, on Tuesday, the Journal says, "was fully attended, and comprised among its members many of the ablest men of the Commonwealth, who have heretofore acted with all political parties. The proceedings were harmonious, and will doubtless result in action of no little importance in the State campaign—an embittered contest in which, it is to be regretted, is now unavoidable."

☞ A Lieut. Carpenter, U. S. A., Assistant Paymaster, was arrested last Saturday, and is now in jail at Augusta, Me.—He had been doing business through the International Bank in Portland, but the last check he drew on the sub-treasury in Boston for $5000, was not answered, he having no funds there. The money was found upon him when arrested.

☞ Brown's Sugar House, in Portland, is now furnishing sugar for a house in St Louis,—one of the effects of the war.

☞ Gen. McClellan has issued an order to his troops, in relation to the President's proclamation, in which he maintains the complete subordination of the military to the civil authorities, which latter, he says, have the sole right to determine and declare "the principles upon which, and the objects for which, armies shall be employed in suppressing rebellion." He therefore reminds them that all intemperate political discussions among officers and soldiers, are not only out of place, but exceedingly injurious to the discipline and efficiency of the army.

☞ The Massachusetts Democratic State Convention was held at Worcester, on Wednesday. No nominations for State officers were made, but a series of resolutions was passed, pledging their support to the President in the use of all legitimate means to suppress the rebellion, and urging him to stand by the Constitution; repudiating the meeting of the Governors; eulogising Gen. McClellan; expressing opposition alike to secession and abolition; tendering sympathy to the loyal men in the Border States, and protesting against the emancipation proclamation and the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus. There was a strong feeling, among members of the of the Convention, in favor of adopting the People's ticket.

☞ Another comet is faintly visible in the vicinity of the orbit of Mars, which is our nearest planet. It is seventy millions of leagues from the earth, and fifty-three from the sun, so that there need be no apprehension of immediate danger from the unnamed stranger.

☞ A dispatch to the widow of the late Gen. Kearney, at Newark, N. J., gives information that the rebel Gen. Lee has caused her husband's horse and accoutrements to be sent within our lines. They will be at once forwarded to her.

☞ Gov. Washburn, of Maine, has pardoned Elbridge Lewis from the State Prison, where he has been confined for two years, under sentence for manslaughter on shipboard.

STATE ELECTIONS.—Annual State elections occur as follows:—In Ohio and Pennsylvania, Oct. 11; Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois, Nov. 4; Maryland, Nov. 5; Delaware and Indiana, Nov. 11.

☞ New York is no longer subject to a Provost Marshal Police, Superintendent Kennedy having been relieved from the duties of Special Provost Marshal and having discharged the Provost Marshal's Guard.

☞ The necessity of the enforcement of the order abolishing the spirit ration in the navy, is apparent from the fact that since the rebellion broke out, no less three hundred and seventy officers have been dismissed for drunkenness.

☞ A daughter of Mr. Albert Trask of Danvers, Mass., while holding a light, was severely burned from the explosion of a kerosene lamp, which her mother was filling, and which had been standing, unused, for some time, partly filled.

☞ It is stated that Gen. Wm. O. Butler, the candidate for Vice President on the Cass ticket in 1848, has taken sides with the rebels in Kentucky.

☞ A week of the loveliest weather, we are having—charming days and delicious nights. Wednesday was a roaster—thermometer stood (linen, &c. didn't) at 87° after dinner.

☞ A brutal husband, in Newark, N. J., kicked his wife to death on Saturday, because his supper was not ready when he came home.

"He made a few desultory remarks," said the schoolmaster. Mrs. Fartington stopped suddenly in the bustle she was making around the table for tea, and gazed over her specs thoughtfully at him. Leaning on a plate edgewise, as if to enforce her views by the support it gave her, "I suppose it was because he was weak," said she, "but Ayer's Pill's will cure him. I never knew 'em to fail. They are very solitary in such cases." "Really, madame," replied he, "I cannot guess your meaning." "You said dysentery," said she, laying down the plate and putting a spoon in the preserves. "I said desultory," said he, smiling, "quite a different thing." "No matter," said she, looking up in time to box Ike's ears, who was putting paper down the chimney of the kerosene lamp. "The Pills are good for both, I dare say, for they cure almost all the diseases in the cornucopia."

——The large paper mill of D. & D Mason & Co., of Bristol, was consumed on Monday night last. The origin of the fire is unknown. The buildings were nearly new, and with the machinery cost $18,000. They were insured in four offices, from ten to twelve thousand dollars.

From the N. H. Patriot.

DR. BATCHELDER'S CASE.

To the Editor of the N. H. Patriot:

SIR:—In your report of the proceedings by which I attempted, under the now extinct writ of habeas corpus, to procure a hearing and a lawful and impartial trial of my case, you published at length the accusation of twelve inhabitants of Epping against me. Though you accompanied it with a statement that I had denied upon oath the truth of their charges, I fear that entire justice was not done to me. The accusation is in some particulars specific, and my friends may fairly think that it is incumbent on me to make a denial or explanation which shall be equally specific and particular. I therefore beg you to publish the following statement, which I hope will be read by all who have read the false and slanderous charges against me. I have here endeavored to meet each statement in the most direct manner of which I am capable, without any extenuation of what I have said or done, and without that examination of the character and motives of my accusers which I should be glad to undertake.

In the summer of 1861, an old and inoffensive man in Brentwood was taken from his bed in the night, by a mob from Exeter and other places, and was dragged through the town with a rope round his neck, and otherwise ill-treated. Soon afterwards anonymous letters were received from Exeter and Portsmouth, by myself and others, threatening similar ill treatment. Thereupon about sixty of my fellow citizens associated together for self defence, and held two meetings. On the night before the last meeting, placards abusive of me were posted, by some person unknown, about the village of Epping. At the meeting of my neighbors on that occasion, I addressed them in a short speech, in which I think I said, among other things, that the government of Mr. Lincoln had become as despotic as that of Jeff. Davis. But I did not say that I would "rather live under the administration of Jeff. Davis, than under Abe Lincoln," nor anything to that effect. Neither I, nor the company, gave any "cheers for Jeff. Davis," but there were many noisy persons present, not belonging to our company, part of whom were intoxicated. These latter persons amused themselves with various cries, which I did not notice particularly at the time, and cannot now remember. For them I am not responsible. We did march in an orderly procession "thro' the street." When we were near the Post Office, over the door of which a small flag was suspended, seven or eight feet high, on a stick nailed up with a couple of carpet tacks, one of the company, without my knowledge, fired a gun. I do not know how the gun was pointed, but the flag was not touched or injured by the discharge. We again passed the Post Office, and, as I was afterwards informed, (for I knew nothing of it at the time,) some person accidentally touched and knocked down the flag. It was not carried away, but was carried into the Post Office, and was hung up again the next morning; and I believe it remained there a long time afterwards. Neither I nor any of the company ever intended to manifest any disrespect for the flag, and I do not believe there is an inhabitant of Epping who honestly thinks we had any such intention.

It is true that I have often expressed myself in opposition to the conduct of the present administration, and to the principles upon which it was elected. I have done so, because I honestly believed them to be detrimental to the peace and to the best interests of the country. But I have never "expressed sentiments in favor of the success of Jeff. Davis or the Confederates," nor have I ever "exulted over their success, or our own adversity." I did say that the battle of July 20th, 1861, at Bull Run, was a federal defeat, at a time when the Republican papers were proclaiming it a victory; but I did so only because, from a careful examination of their own accounts, I saw that it was so. I have been always as ready as any other man to rejoice over our victories; and I have regretted that they have not been more frequent. But I have ever supposed that the American people have manhood enough to acknowledge our defeats, and I have despised and condemned the efforts of some foolish men to represent them as substantial victories. I supposed it the right of the people to know the truth; and I have ever thought too well of my fellow citizens to believe that the misfortunes of war can either frighten or dishearten them.

I have never, to my knowledge, done anything to discourage anybody from enlisting.—At the town meeting in Epping, called "for the purpose of encouraging enlistments," I proposed that a bounty of three hundred dollars should be paid to each volunteer, instead of two hundred as moved by the Republican party. My amendment was vehemently opposed by the Rev. Mr Stearns and other leaders of that party, and my conduct and motives were severely and coarsely assailed. I was thereupon excited to reply, among other things that we were at present considering a question of money and not of patriotism; that it was proper that the men who were going to expose their lives for us should have a sufficient provision made for their families; that three hundred dollars was not too much for that purpose; and that the selectmen had neglected the families of those who had gone before, by omitting to furnish to them the support voted by the town. I retorted to the personalities of Mr. Stearns by saying that he was not the first to urge other men's going to die a glorious death from patriotic motives, for he had been preaching for years that nine-tenths of a hundred of men was die go to hell. I added that some of the volunteers would die in battle or of sickness; and that two hundred dollars was a low reward for such a man to offer for such exposure, when he believed that three-fourths of all the soldiers who should die would go to hell. I never said "that three-fourths of the volunteers would be killed and go to hell," and it would have been ridiculous for me to have said such a thing in Epping, because every body there knows that I do not believe in such a place of future torment. The object of my remark was to retaliate a personal attack, and I conceive that the public had nothing to do with that controversy.

In short, though I have opposed the principles and practices of the present administration, and spoken of it as politicians are accustomed to speak, I have never said or done anything seditious or disloyal, nor have I, in word or thought, offended against my country or the regular administration of its laws. And though I am apt to speak freely and strongly, perhaps rashly, I have never said any thing the against administration more violent than members of the Republican party in my own town have said against Mr. Lincoln, when his course has happened to displease them.

The majority of the persons who signed the accusation against me are bitter personal enemies to me, and I believe that private hostility is the whole cause of the unlawful proceedings under which I am suffering. For the truth of the statements I have made, I confidently refer to the moderator of the town meeting above referred to, and to many of the most respectable citizens of Epping, and I stand ready to prove them, if opportunity is allowed me.

I have always supported the Constitution as it is and the Union as it was. In that faith I remain, and I think that I have always manifested, and to this moment feel, a more earnest and sincere love of my country than any of my accusers. I have done nothing to plunge the country into the difficulties by which it is now surrounded, and I prefer the sufferings of my present imprisonment to the consciences of those whose principles and practice, always tending to disunion, have at last covered the land with ruin and bloodshed.

NAT. BATCHELDER.

Fort Constitution, Oct. 2d, 1862.

☞ The house of Mr. William Critchley, on Bridge street in this city, was entered by two boys, on Saturday noon last, and two twenty dollar U. S. Treasury Notes and a few postage stamps stolen. The family were all absent from home at the time, having gone to Concord to bid farewell to two of its members, who were enlisted in the 13th regiment, which left for Washington on Monday. The boys effected an entrance through a window in the back part of the house. They were observed by a man who happened to be at work near by, but in answer to his inquiries, one of them stated that he was the son of Mr. Critchley, that he was hungry and wished to get something to eat, but the family had taken the key with them when they went away.

☞ Dr. Nat. Batchelder, of Epping, who has been under arrest at Fort Constitution for several weeks, charged with disloyal and treasonable practices, was released on Tuesday evening by order of the War Department—he having, we hear, taken the oath of allegiance, and given $10,000 bonds to keep the peace and preserve fealty to the Government. In another place we copy from the Patriot, his own statement of the causes of his arrest. We have before given the accusations against him. The public seems to be the only tribunal before which he can bring his case, and we doubt if they will agree on a verdict. But however just the informal summary process may have been in this case, it must be conceded as an evidence of the peril of the times, (as the Boston Traveller remarked at the time,)—that the mere oath of a single witness before a Justice, that Dr. B. was guilty of certain illegal and treasonable acts "about one year ago," was deemed sufficient proof to authorize the Governor to issue a warrant for his arrest.

☞ Sch. Bulrush, Davis, from Taunton, Mass., for Portsmouth, with machinery, and steam boilers on deck, for the U. S. Navy Yard, in going out of Newport harbor, on the morning of the 5th inst., tore the after leach of her mainsail, and was obliged to put back for repairs—in doing which she fouled her anchors, and the wind blowing heavily from N W, she dragged ashore at the south end of the harbor, near the Lime Rocks. Assistance was rendered her from the U. S. revenue cutter Jacob Thompson, and she was got off at high water without damage.

☞ We understand that it is probable that Dr. Colton will give one or more of his famous exhibitions of Laughing Gas, at the Temple is this city, about the 20th.

——Burglars have recently been operating in Concord. From one house they stole a silver watch and $15, from another about $25, and from a third over $50.

"A Subscriber," and perhaps well wishing friend, writes us to inquire "why we advertise patent medicines." We will here and now answer him that we do not. Our readers are aware that we have for years excluded every thing of the sort, and the only seeming exception that we know of is the advertisement of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.'s remedies, which now stands in our columns. If our friend does not know, we will inform him that these are not "patent" or even secret medicines. Their composition has been made as publicly known as any other scientific fact, and has moreover had the approval of the highest medical authority in the land. But what affords us perhaps still greater confidence in their worth is our own personal knowledge of the man who makes them, and the results that have followed from their use; results as familiar to our readers and to the whole community as they are to ourselves.

It has been our privilege to know Dr. Ayer ever since he graduated from the Penn. University in the same class with one of our personal friends, nor have we ever ceased to watch with interest his singular success in and untiring devotion to the noble profession he has chosen. If anybody will tell us what we can advertise of more interest to our patrons than remedies that will cure them when they are sick, we shall cheerfully give it the benefit of our circulation.—[Tamworth [Ill.] Baptist.

Newburyport, Sept. 16th, 1862.

Mr. William Grace, Sir:—Your letter of the 15th and accompanying packages were duly received, in behalf of the Soldiers' Relief Association of this city. I tender you many thanks for the useful gift with which you have favored us, and trust it healing qualities will prove a source of gratitude to the wounded soldiers, for whose benefit it may be used. I consider we cannot do too much for the brave men who so freely shed their blood for our beloved country, and you may be sure that the sentiments of benevolence and patriotism you express, cannot fail to meet with appreciation. Very respectfully, yours,

SARAH L. DAVIS,
Secretary N. S. E. Association.

From J. H. Davis, Principal of the Academy at Amesbury, Mass.

This certifies that I have used in my family Grace's Salve with very satisfactory results. It is in my opinion the best salve that I have ever used, and worthy of trial in every family.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Gleets, pain and distress in regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr. D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Preventive, or Female Preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Cleanse the Blood.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you must be sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Ayer's Sarsaparilla pur,es out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, &c. Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Disease, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases. Try AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures the disorders.

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Dana Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

An assortment of

REGISTERS, SOAP-STONES, &c.,

CONSTANTLY ON HAND.

☞ Personal attention given to setting all Furnaces.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE!

A Sure Relief for the Sufferer!

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century by Dr. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James' army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day; and was regarded by all who knew him as the public benefactor. The Salve is used for the following diseases:—Burns, Bruises, Felons, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Boils Scurvy, Sore Lips, Sore Ears, Sore Nose, Ulcers, Lame Joints, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Ringworms, Sprains, Flesh Wounds, Erysipelas, Scalds, Stings of Venomous Insects, Piles, Bunions, Frozen Limbs, Nettle Rash, Sore Breast, Wens, Eruptions, Festers, Shingles, Cancers, Whitlows, Itch, Sties, Lame Wrist, and Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature, without leaving a scar. It will also cure pimples on the face, and beautify the skin.

There are thousands who are suffering for months and even years in consequence of Sores and wounds that might be cured in a short time by the use of this great external Salve. It has never failed to effect a speedy cure when properly applied. This Salve has none of the irritating heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand, for it will save them trouble, suffering and money; and in many cases it has saved life itself. The manufacturer receives testimonials daily, from some of our most distinguished citizens, expressing benefits derived from its use. This Salve is warranted to give perfect satisfaction in every disease that it professes to cure; if not, the money will be refunded.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which grew constantly worse. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Chester W. Judd, Esq., of the widely known firm of Judd, Murray & Co., manufacturers of cassimeres, Naugatuck, Ct.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any humor. I cannot say too much in favor of this, I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.
From Dr. Robt. Sayre, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER: I seldom fail to remove Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No allopathic compounds equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wilmington, Ohio.

"For twelve years I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The sloughs were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and none of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Moore, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.
From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tuskaloosa Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skillful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and we feel well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.
From Dr. Hyman Sleight, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary and tertiary forms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER: We have long since found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases of mercurial disease not yielding to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. E. Fox, Fredericton, New Brunswick, N. B., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of his early, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated notwithstanding a host of remedies had been tried, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulcerations, and are speedily cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skillful application of local remedies.

From the well known and widely celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of the blood, in cases of Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulcerations, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not when its effect is properly aided by local treatment. A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia,

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and fish heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water, also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the throwing up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John E. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pindar, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon, Charles Simpson, Kittery, Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle, and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT" VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 20 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleave, Esq., Albert E. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes of the

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE,

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any commendation.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1862. I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even out—so it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c. &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his HOME WINE, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicine can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the Scrofulous Humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many failures; but this is the first I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain; and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Dr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, while the proper use of the Panacea, I took about bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured in about two months, and I have had no trouble from it since. CAROLINE H. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.
SIMON SWETT.
Portsmouth, N. H., April 28, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a tumor called by the doctors salt rheum, for five years, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, and I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for tumors.
WM. P. WALLER.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOVD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1858. Dr. Swett:—Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been with a cough, I can give unqualified quiet rest night and day. I would say that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me; and would add—that for years of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it to especial notice of any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints.
WM. P. LEAVITT.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Jr., May 31, 1841.
Dr. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her usual strength, or sleep, or appetite. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HOME WINE. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I believe your medicine one of the best of the few I found for the diseases above named. ISAAC CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26w

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (see the Act of 1861.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continued to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other Foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, Copies of Patents, Patent Rights and Claims, Opinions, Reports, and Legal Advice in Patent Cases, Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents, and other Legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished, by mailing One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. Also, the testimonials herewith given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and convince that his experience of 20 years and the other qualifications for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during eight years in the Patent Office, and his full and late 4 vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable decision at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, but only 6 of them, as yet, have been granted, and that is more pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part seems to recommend an inventor to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention devoted to their case, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made or prosecuted applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

The rebel force in Arkansas, Sept. 22d, was reported to be about 20,000 mea,pretty well supplied with artillery. At Arkadelphia, 80 or 100 miles southwest of Little Rock, the rebels manufacture munitions of war, and have removed there all the State records and papers.

The Richmond Examiner of the 6th inst. has a dispatch from Savannah, dated the 4th inst., which says the Federals attacked the batteries at St. John's on the 1st inst., and after an hour's engagement were repulsed. The Federals subsequently landed at Greenville Point in force and marched a mile to the rear of the battery, where a fight commenced at 10 A. M. No particulars received.

The N. Y. Times dispatch says that the reports that Lee's army is falling back on Stanton is confirmed. The condition of the rebel army is said to be one of great destitution. In addition to the want of clothing they are now living on half rations. Chas. J. Faulkner is visiting the camps and making speeches to sustain their course. The same correspondent states that the best information from Virginia confirms the theory that the rebel army retired up the valley over a week ago. They succeeded, however, in keeping up the semblance of a force along the Potomac for their own purposes.

THE PROCLAMATION.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Journal of Commerce (old-line Democrat) makes this significant statement: "Facts have come to my knowledge which induce me to believe that the President will yet be fully vindicated for issuing his much-talked-of proclamation. I do not believe, what I did believe, that he was drawn from his straight forward course by the radicals. There were reasons for his action with which the public are unacquainted, and all things connected with that great movement are not what they seem."

☞ A Washington dispatch to the New York Times asserts that the rebels express fears that the President's emancipation proclamation will be the means of producing a counter revolution in the slave States, and the soldiers' desire to return to their homes to protect their families. They believe the negroes are organized in secret associations, and are only waiting an opportunity to rise in insurrection. The women and children of the rural districts are moving to the cities for safety, and consternation seems to be universal.

A private circular has been issued by the rebel government to the proprietors of newspapers forbidding the publication of the proclamation.

☞ A Washington letter says: "Gen. Harney is here in citizens' dress, gray-haired and spectacled, but as erect and soldier-like as he was when he earned the Murat-like appellation of le beau sabreur of our army. Independently wealthy, and the wearer of fairly won laurels, he remains in the service from inclination, and seeks active service always. General Hooker has almost recovered the use of his foot, but will not join his army corps at present. Gen. John Cochrane is looking finely, and campaigning evidently agrees with him."

☞ It is stated that in consequence of the Government being unable to supply sufficient horses for cavalry service, three or four thousand cavalry in the armies of McClellan and Heintzleman are practically unavailable. According to common report, the Quartermaster's Department declines advancing the prices paid for such horses—from $110 to $130—delivered at Washington, at which prices horses proper for the cavalry cannot now be obtained.

☞ At the horse fair in Chicago, the other day, Mrs. Lockwood and her cavalier were so indignant that she received but the 2d prize in three for good riding, that she tore the red ribbon denoting it, from her arm and her horse's head, and refused the two hundred and fifty dollars in money that went with the award. The next day, however, she thought better of it, and sent and took the money.

☞ Republican Congressional Conventions were held in Massachusetts on Thursday. In the 2d District, Hon. Oakes Ames, of Eaton, now of the Executive Council, was nominated for Congress; in the 7th, Ex-Gov. Boutwell was nominated; and in the 8th, John D. Baldwin, of the Worcester Spy.

☞ The Indianapolis, Ind., correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says:—

"The copperheads of Hartford, in Blackford county, collected on Monday and forcibly resisted the draft. They destroyed the ballot box and enrolling papers, and either forced or scared the Commissioners and Provost Marshal to resign. They claimed to have 200 men armed, and said they were determined to resist the draft at all hazards. They denounced the Government and all those attempting to sustain it. A battalion of the 63d Indiana regiment has been ordered to Hartford, who will enforce the draft and arrest the ringleaders of this disgraceful proceeding.

The Mackerel that have been swarming in our bay for the last ten days have given "work for idle hands to do." Two hundred sail of vessels have been in sight most of the time and any number of small boats have followed in their wake. The Bay has presented a splendid scene, and a large amount of wealth has been drawn from the vasty deep—the vessels taking from five to forty barrels apiece. On Tuesday the fleet numbered 400 vessels, and the fish were so plenty that the "Live Yankee" with only four hands brought in ten barrels.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ The people of Hudson, N. Y., have hit upon a novel expedient to secure a small change currency without disobeying the law. The banks of that city permit persons who make deposits with them to draw checks for any sum less than a dollar. These fractional checks are now in universal use, and have driven out postage stamps.

☞ A letter from Newcastle-on-Tyne, (England) dated on the 14th ultimo, has been received in New York, which states that several large steamers are building there to run the blockade on the Southern coast. They were heavily armed, and would be ready for sea in a month.

"Well, Fannie, what did you see at the menagerie?"

"Oh! I saw cayings, grandma. I saw two great toes (the elephants) as big as houses, and the longest horns, and the funniest noses, and I saw the darlingest little ponies, and such little monkies, and grandma, I saw the lion swallow a tristian!"

"Saw the lion swallow a Christian, Fannie, what do you mean, child?"

"I did grandma. They put a tristian into the cage with the animals, and the lions and tigers began to jump on him, and one of the lions got his head in his mouth, and then I got frightened, and shut my eyes just as tight as I could till the music stopped playing, and when I opened them again (drawing a long breath) the poor tristian was gone!"

☞ Capt. Charles E. Rand of the 1st Mass. regiment, who was discharged from the service for an alleged neglect of duty, has been re-instated by the Secretary of War, the circumstances having been explained to the satisfaction of the Secretary and the credit of Capt. Rand.

☞ The 7th Maine regiment which is "all seamed o'er with scars of old wars" is coming home by order of the war department, and at the request of Gen. McClellan, to recruit. It will be camped at Portland.

☞ The deepest and most earnest interest in the President's proclamation has been manifested by the colored people of Washington—a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God having been appointed "for leading the chief executive of the nation to a deed so heroic and magnanimous."

☞ The Faribault, Wisconsin, Republican, calls upon the Governor of that State to remove Sibley from the command of the Indian expedition just as quick as the Lord will let him; that the blessing of the poor, the needy, and the faithful, may rest upon him.

☞ George Greeley, a clerk in one of the business houses of Bangor, has been arrested on the charge of having committed several bold robberies at the Exchange Hotel. A valuable gold watch, together with $80 in gold, were found in his room, belonging to other persons.

☞ The tax on the members of the House is $6 a month, or $72 a year. The Speaker $144. The aggregate tax will be about $15,000 a year. The tax on employees will be about half that sum, making in all a snug little sum for Government.

☞ The Rev. Judson D. Benedict, who was arrested on the charge of preaching a disloyal sermon—and was subsequently discharged by Judge Hall, only to be arrested again and taken to Washington—was discharged in that city, on the 2d inst., upon taking the oath of allegiance.

☞ Sixteen gentlemen, now holding commissions in the army—ranking from Brigadier General down to Captain—are candidates for Congress, and it is said some of them are quite indignant that they cannot obtain leave of absence to go home and electioneer.

☞ Out West they say they are not fighting for the negro, but for the Mississippi river.

☞ The French say that the flesh of a young horse is as good as that of a calf, but upon the whole, we prefer veal to woe.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— John Sullivan, Jr., appointed Assistant Surgeon of the 12th regiment, arrived home on Wednesday morning, from Paducah, Ky., expecting to reach Concord before the regiment departed. He will leave immediately in pursuit of it.

—— In Exeter, on Sunday night, Oct. 3d, ice formed as thick as ordinary window glass: vines and flowers were killed.

—— A session of the U. S. District Court was held in Exeter on Wednesday, Judge Harvey presiding. William Barrett, of Nashua, was, on motion of W. H. Y. Hackett, Esq., admitted to practice in this Court. The docket was called, and in consequence of the absence of Judge Clifford, most of the cases were continued.

—— A man named Charles Twombly, belonging in Rochester, in attempting to jump upon the platform of a car, in Dover, on Tuesday, fell upon the track, and the train passed over his head killing him instantly. He was about 30 years of age and a shoemaker by trade.

☞ Col. S. C. Kewn, a member elect of the Legislature from Los Angelos, has been arrested by Gen. Wright on a charge of treason. Secession sympathizers are numerous in some of the southern counties of California, and have succeeded in controlling the elections, and Kewn has been something of a ringleader among them, HEROISM OF A YOUNG LADY.—The house of Wm. N. Breed, of Lynn, was entered between twelve and one o'clock on Wednesday morning, and after collecting silver ware, the burglar entered the chamber of a sister of Mrs. Breed, who drove him down stairs, and across the garden, without an opportunity of carrying off his booty.

☞ It is said that Mat. Ward, the notorious and execrated murderer of Butler, the Louisville school teacher, a few years ago, owns a plantation near Helena, Ark. The 33d Illinois, Col. Hovey's Teachers', regiment is now encamped on his plantation.

☞ The Tribune's Cairo correspondent says that the rebel Colonels Johnson, Rogers, Ross, Morton and McLane, and Major Jones were killed, and Colonels Daly and Pietch were severely wounded in the late battle at Corinth.

☞ There was a terrific fire in the oil wells at Oil Creek, on Wednesday. Several refineries and 30,000 barrels of oil were burned, besides a great many buildings. The fire extended over half a mile. Loss $200,000.

☞ The 13th Vermont regiment will leave on Saturday of this week, and the 14th, 15th and 16th regiments will be ready for marching orders in a few days. These five regiments make the quota of Vermont of nine months men—all volunteers.

☞ Fifteen thousand five hundred and forty-six tons of coal arrived at Boston on Tuesday from coastwise ports; and about fifteen hundred tons from Nova Scotia ports.

Lieut. Commander Wilson McGunnegle has been detached from the Mississippi squadron, and is awaiting orders.

The New York papers say, although we doubt the truth of the assertion, that Brig Gen. Frank B. Spinola's shirt collar is so big, that it is frequently taken by the enemy for a flag of truce. The same papers call upon him to abate at least three-quarters of it.

☞ A white man painted, was captured among the Indian marauders in Minnesota. He was hung upon the nearest tree, without judge or jury.

A horse-dealer, in showing off a spirited nag to a customer, received a kick in his ribs, and although smarting under the pain, made up the best face he could, and exclaimed, "Pretty playful creature!"

☞ Gen. Ricel, Military Governor of Norfolk, has issued a stringent order against passing the lines for any purpose whatever, without proper authority.

☞ The Portland Argus states that Wednesday was the hottest October day since 1807, the fact being substantiated by a record that has been kept by "the oldest inhabitant."

☞ Three women, between 30 and 40 years of age, two of whom are married, have been doing a flourishing business in Lewiston, Me., recently, in stealing from clothes lines.

☞ E. Z. C. Judson, ("Ned Buntline,") has enlisted as a private in the New York Mounted Rifles.

ORDINATION.—Mr. William P. Colby of West Amesbury, Chaplain of the 17th Regiment Massachusetts Volunteers, was ordained at the Universalist Conference in Atkinson, on Wednesday, Oct. 8. The exercises were as follows:—Reading of the Scriptures by Br. Silloway of Boston; Prayer, Br. Eaton of Dover; Hymn, Br. Davis of Methuen; Sermon, Br. Patterson of Portsmouth; Ordaining Prayer, Br. Miller of Portsmouth; Delivery of Scriptures and Charge, Br. Steere of West Haverhill; Right Hand of Fellowship, Br. Weaver of Lawrence; Benediction by Br. Colby; music by the full choir.

☞ It is said that the 25th Maine regiment (9 months) Col. Fessenden, will leave Camp Abraham Lincoln, Portland, on Monday. The two other regiments will probably soon be ordered off.

A little girl was standing by the window busily examining a hair which she had pulled from her head. "What are you doing, my daughter," asked her mother. "I am looking for the number, mamma," said the child; "the Bible says the hairs of our head are all numbered, and I want to see what the number is on this one."

☞ In Baltimore, Wednesday, the unconditional Union candidate for Mayor, John Lee Chapman, was elected by a majority of 7690 over Frederick, the independent candidate. The election passed off quietly. The entire regular Union Council ticket was elected except in one instance.

☞ The Michigan Democratic State Convention, which met at Detroit on Wednesday, adopted the nominees of the Union Convention, held at Jackson on the 2d inst., for State officers.

☞ Col. Wildes, who resigned command of a Maine regiment because he was ordered into active service before he could prepare himself therefor, has been recommissioned for the same regiment.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

Important to Females.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS.

The combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice.—They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, Painful Menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise; headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, hysterics, fatigue, pain in the back and limbs, &c., and disturbed sleep, which arise from the interruption of nature.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS

are the most effectual remedy ever known for all complaints peculiar to Females. To all classes they are invaluable, inducing, with certainty, periodical regularity. They are known to thousands, who have used them at different periods, throughout the country, having the sanction of some of the most eminent Physicians in America.

Explicit Directions, stating when they should not be used, with each Box.—The Price One Dollar per Box, containing from 50 to 60 Pills.

Pills sent by mail, promptly, by remitting to the Proprietor Sold by Druggists generally.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, on Thursday evening, permssion to place a gas light on the corner of Gates and Pleasant streets, was granted.

The Committee on the Fire Department were instructed to introduce water into the several engine houses as soon as possible, on the terms proposed by the Aqueduct Company.

The application of Mr. John P. Hoit for a new sidewalk in front of his house on Islington street, was granted.

☞ The sons of old Portsmouth are scattered here and there throughout the Union army of the North. Our own regiments, of course, contain the greater number, yet we find our city well represented—often in numbers, always in loyalty, courage and good soldiership, — in regiments hailing from Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, Wisconsin, and we know not how many others. The naval service of the country, also, has engaged the services of still larger numbers, and at almost every point where the Stars and Stripes wave above the deck of a man-a-war, our city has its representatives. In the Gulf and along the Atlantic coast, in the Mediterranean and on the Pacific they may be found, occupying almost every position, and we doubt not, occupying such positions well.

Tobias H. Miller, President; William C. Hatch, Vice President; Frederick W. Rogers, Secretary and Treasurer; Wm. J. Vaughan, Jonathan Barker, Committee, with the city pastors.

Almost the only operations of the Society the past year, have been in co-operation with the Sons of Temperance.

ASSESSMENT OF THE U. S. TAX.—Hon. George M. Herring of Farmington, the U. S. Assessor for the first district, in consequence of the indisposition of Mr. Hodgdon, has been compelled to divide the city of Portsmouth into three districts for the purpose of assessment, and has appointed the following Assistant Assessors:—For Ward 1, Hon. Jos. B. Adams; Ward 2, Wm. H. Hackett, Esq.; Ward 3, Chas. W. Bailey, Esq. These gentlemen will at once proceed to discharge the duties of their appointment.

☞ Several teachers of the Unitarian Sunday School in this city, attended the annual meeting of the Sunday School Society of that denomination, which was held at the Pleasant street Church in Newburyport on Wednesday and Thursday. The Annual Discourse was preached by Rev. James Freeman Clarke, of Boston.

☞ Messrs. Charles H. Bartlett & Co. are proprietors of the Stage which runs between this city and Kittery Point, they having purchased the interest of Mr. Thomas O. Hoyt.

Mr. Stephen Hull has succeeded Mr. Thornton B. Hoyt as landlord of the American House in this city.

It is reported at Louisville that Gen. Dumont attacked the guerrillas under Morgan near Frankfort, Ky., on Thursday morning, and dispersed them in every direction, with but little Federal loss.

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Daniel Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century by Dr. Wm. GRACE, surgeon in King James' army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day; and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor. The Salve is used for the following diseases:—Burns, Bruises, Felons, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Boils Scurvy, Sore Lips, Sore Ears, Swelled Nose, Ulcers, Lame Joints, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Ringworms, Sprains, Fresh Wounds, Erysipelas, Scalds, Stings of Venomous Insects, Piles, Bunions, Frozen Limbs, Nettle Rash, Sore Breast, Worms, Eruptions, Fevers, Shingles, Cancers, Whitlows, Itch, Stiffness, Lame Wrist, and Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature, without leaving a scar. It will also cure pimples on the face, and beautify the Skin.

There are thousands who are suffering for months and even years in consequence of Sores and wounds that might be cured in a short time by the use of this great external Salve. It has never failed to effect a speedy cure when properly applied. This Salve has none of the irritating heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand, for it will save them trouble, suffering and money; and in many cases it has saved life itself. 24 MARKET STREET.

The peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from father to children, unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements of digestion, indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with dead "chips of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. These cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. They are now offered to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels disease and its dispirits which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine the, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and oat iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water, also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use; no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other stove, as numbers of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Otis Bradden, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moser, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pader, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon, Charles Simpson, Rittery Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle, and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable, and is none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while others have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The contrivances have been slightly more the air passed into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot escape, and are burned up by the combustion of coal, through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they issue off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases in the cone, getting rear of with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the accumulation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus obstructing, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and there may be kept the entire season without ever going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now to use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Ketch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swayne's PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the most hands of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, attended with severe piercing pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to depend upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, which he prescribed, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my Cancer was fully cured, in six months, and I have had no trouble from it since. CAROLINE H. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.
SIMEON SWETT.
Portsmouth, N. H., April 14, 1861.

I have been greatly afflicted with a tumor called by the doctors salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many sores on my side. And seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no signs of a complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.
HANNAH ROWE.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not been the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1858. Dr. Swett:—Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been, with a humor, which prevented quiet rest night and day, I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me, and would add—that by the use of it, my health has been greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints.
WM. P. LEAVITT.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or it not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Also, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers for Drawing up Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting one Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsuccessful for, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is more successful. ALL THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and does prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for prosecuting Patents so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of Specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and no more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
M. D. MOORE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Dumont's success over Morgan and Scott at Frankfort, Ky., is fully confirmed. Morgan entered Frankfort Wednesday evening, with his own and Scott's cavalry, 3000 strong, meeting with no opposition.—On Thursday morning Gen. Dumont moved on them from Shelbyville, and at noon routed them. The rebels are said to be dispersed, endeavoring to avoid Dumont's pursuing forces. The rebels destroyed the turnpike bridge before they were attacked.

The Washington Star says that at Richmond, on Monday of last week, the only troops in and around the city were those, few in number, actually in the fortifications, and a regiment doing provost guard duty in and around the town.

A naval and military expedition, under Gen. Brannan, left Hilton Head on the 1st, and arrived at St. John's river, Fla., on the 2d. The troops were immediately landed, and on the 3d, under command of Col. Good, took up its line of march for a rebel fort, while the fleet slowly advanced up the river. On his march Col. Good completely surprised a camp of rebel cavalry, who immediately fled. Here two cases of Massachusetts breech-loading rifles, new, and a large quantity of double and single-barreled shot guns were captured. Col. Good pushed rapidly on and surprised an infantry camp. Large captures were made, consisting of new haversacks and equipments, and all the enemy's arms and ammunition.—The enemy's camps were utterly destroyed, and our force again pushed on. The squadron arrived within range of the fort about half past three in the afternoon, and opened a brisk fire, which was continued for half an hour, when, no response being received, a launch was sent ashore and the fort found deserted. The fort, situated on St. John's Bluff, distant from Mayport Mills about 8 miles, and 15 miles from Jacksonville, commanded the river and was a most formidable work of itself, mounting nine guns of heavy calibre, and completely surrounded by a thick undergrowth of woods and marsh. Its only approach by land was a causeway of about a mile in length, commanded by the rear of the fort. Most of the captured ordnance are English rifled cannon of recent manufacture, and an immense quantity of English conical shells were found, also small arms. The fort will be immediately destroyed. Latest advices state that every preparation was being rapidly pushed to completion to attack another heavy battery, situated on Yellow Bluff, about four miles further up the river.

Bragg's army attacked two divisions of our forces, under Gen. McCook, at Perryville, Ky., in great force on Wednesday.—The battle lasted all day and was resumed on Thursday morning. Our loss is stated at 2000 killed and wounded. Gens. Crittenden and Gilbert reinforced Gen. McCook Wednesday night.

Later reports from Perryville, Ky., state that in the fight on Wednesday, two rebel Kentucky batteries were taken by the Union Kentucky cavalry after five charges; and the enemy after very hard fighting were driven back about 8 miles. The Union Gens. Jackson, Webster Little, and Maj. Campbell were killed. It is rumored that the fight on Thursday also resulted in our favor, but up to 11 o'clock on Friday morning, no authentic advices later than Wednesday evening, had been received at headquarters.

☞ Ex-Governor Lowe, of Maryland, writes to the Richmond Dispatch, deprecating the dissatisfaction felt at the South because of the unfavorable reception of the Confederate army in Maryland. He says that the people of Maryland needed to be assured "whether the entrance of the army was intended to be a mere raid or a substantial occupation for their relief. Gen. Lee's proclamation was intended to assure them of the latter, but, before it could accomplish that object, military necessities carried the army away!"

☞ The firm of Ward & McClellan, druggists, at Memphis, having been detected in smuggling drugs into the enemy's lines, have been sentenced by Gen. Sherman to confinement in the Alton Penitentiary during the war. Mansfield & Co. were detected in the same crime, and as they had taken the oath of allegiance, their entire stock, worth over $60,000, was confiscated, and they were sent to Alton during the war.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. E. S. Rowe, of Meriden, is appointed Chaplain of the 14th Regiment. Mr. Rowe is at present one of the teachers in the Kimball Union Academy at Meriden.

—— Rev. Ambrose Smith, pastor of the Congregational church at Boscawen, died on Friday last, of consumption, at the age of 42 years.

—— John S. Walker, Esq., of Claremont, has been appointed Aide-de-Camp to Gov. Berry, in place of D. B. Nelson.

—— Several ladies have been insulted in Concord recently, by miserable scamps who have met them upon the streets after night-fall. On Sunday evening one of these same ruffians insulted a lady on Centre street; a gentleman who was near by overheard the remark, and by a well-aimed blow, "laid out" the contemptible wretch as stiff as tho' he had been shot.

—— John Edwin Mason, recently of Manchester, has been appointed Assistant Adjutant General of the 1st Brigade, 2d Division, 9th Army Corps, under General Burnside. The 6th and 9th N. H. Regiments are in this Brigade. The Band of the 9th regiment has been mustered in as the Brigade band of the 1st brigade of the 2d division, Burnside's Corps. Lieut. Nelson Sawyer, of Co. 9th regiment, has resigned in consequence of ill health.

—— There are newspaper reports in circulation to the effect that the Second Regiment is to have a furlough of thirty days. There is a possibility that the officers may want thirty days to recruit man for the regiment, and that meanwhile the men will be relieved from active labor and be placed in some fort near Washington.

Mr. Beresford Hope, who, as a candidate for the British Parliament for the borough of Stoke openly expressed his sympathy for the Southern rebels in a most offensive manner, and compared himself to Stonewall Jackson, as likely to win in the contest, has been defeated by his liberal opponent, Mr. Grenfell.—Boston Traveller.

"Hope told a flattering tale."

U. S. Stamp Duties and Taxes.—Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, have just issued a neat card, containing a list of "Stamp Duties," imposed by the Act of 1862, which Act went into effect on the 1st of October. The card will be found very convenient for reference by all.

Great Trotting Match.—New York, Oct. 8th.—In the race at the Fashion Course this afternoon—mile heats best 3 in 5—between Gen. Butler and Robert Fillingham, four heats were trotted. The race was won by Gen. Butler, Fillingham winning the second heat. Time—1:21 1 2, 2:23 3-4, 2:23, 2:27. It was a very even race. The last heat was trotted by moonlight. There was considerable excitement among the spectators.

Artemus Ward on the Indians.—The red man of the forest was form'ly a very respectful person. Justice to the noble aborygine warrants me in sayin' that origgernally he was a majestic cuss.

At the time Chris. arrived on these shores, (I allood to Chris. Columbus,) the savajis was virtuous and happy. They were innocent of secession, rum, draw-poker, and sinfulness gin'rally. They didn't discuss the slavery question as a custom. They had no Congress, faro banks, delirium tremens, or Associated Press. Their habits was consequently good. Lale suppers, dyspepsy, gas companies, thieves, ward politicians and other Metropolitan refinements were unknown among them. No savage in good standing would take postage-stamps. You couldn't have bot a coon skin with a barrel of 'em.—Vanity Fair.

☞ The Cincinnati papers say that Gen. Davis, who shot Gen. Nelson, has been handed over to the civil authorities, and that the government will not interfere with the case at all. Should he be discharged by the court, he will be retained in his command.

Specie.—The U. S. Economist estimates that there is fully $100,000,000 more specie in the United States than there was two years ago. The people will forget its color if some of it is not put in circulation before long.

☞ Strong effort is being made by certain citizens of Minnesota to procure the appointment of Senator Rice of that State, as Major General of Volunteers, and his assignment to the department now occupied by General Pope.

☞ The ladies of Roxbury and elsewhere have inaugurated another form of labor for the soldiers, in preparing dried apples, under the recent call for them in hospital use.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By Uncle Tony.

The Life, Character and Times of Joshua Moodey.—His life was that of a Christian, a Minister and a citizen; in character he was one of nature's noblemen, yea, he was an honest man, the noblest work of God; his times were troublesome times, times that tried men's souls; and out of this ordeal he came like gold tried in the fire, seven times purified.

Most of his life was spent in Newbury, Portsmouth and Boston; his public ministry being divided between the two latter places. His character, as a minister, in both places, was that of a burning and a shining light; as a Christian and a man it was without fear and above reproach. And the times in which he lived, were days of witchcraft, priestcraft and kingscraft. He opposed them all, and fought them all, not with carnal weapons, but with spiritual, which through divine strength were mighty to the pulling down of strong holds.

His life was varied; we shall see him in the pulpit, the parsonage and the prison; we shall hear the faithful and severe preacher against sin in high places as well as low; and we shall see him submissive as a prisoner when he was one himself, and when free, we shall hear him comfort with kind words and serve with good counsel the prisoners whom he visited in their bonds.

In this narrative, the warp will be the story of the life itself, and the woof or filling will consist of such views of character and remarks on the times, as may naturally present themselves and fall readily into their places.

His Early Days.—Joshua Moodey was born in England in 1632, and was brought to this country when about one year old, by his father, Wm. Moodey, who sailed from Wales in 1633, wintered at Ipswich, Mass. in 1634, and removed to Newbury with its first settlers, in 1635. Among these settlers, William Moodey was the saddler, or blacksmith of the colony, or probably, both; and it was said that he was the first person in New England who adopted the practice of shoeing oxen, to enable them to walk on the ice. Whether he was a learned blacksmith or not, tradition does not inform us; but there can be no doubt he was a man of intelligence and ingenuity, a patron and lover of learning; and we know that a very large number of his immediate descendants entered the learned professions. Of his wife we know only that her name was Sarah; but we can well imagine the wife of a mechanic like William and the mother of a minister like Joshua Moodey, to have been a woman of talent and spirit, a worthy ancestress of a devout and honorable New England family.

Joshua Moodey received his early education at Newbury, and was probably fitted for college by Rev. Thos. Parker, minister of that town; and having passed through the regular course at Harvard College, graduated there in 1653, at the age of 21; after which he pursued the study of theology, and early began to preach. He had become a member of the church in Cambridge while a student there.

His public life commenced as a minister in Portsmouth, early in the year 1658, where eighty-six persons subscribed for his support. From this circumstance, connected with many others, we know that the affairs of the church, as well as the State, in the old Piscataqua settlements, were in a chaotic condition. The proprietary government had doubtless encouraged public worship, which was conducted by a minister of the church of England, and according to the ritual of that church. When in 1639, the widow of the proprietor, Mrs. Mason, left the people of the colony to take care of themselves, they formed a democratic commonwealth on a small scale, and constructed a religious establishment after a similar pattern. In 1640, this democratic State set apart land for the support of the ministry; and gave the right of presentation to the people, or rather declared it to reside with them. Mr. Richard Gibson, of the English church, was their first parson, chosen by the people previous to 1640; for he appears to have left this year. In 1641, Portsmouth put itself under the jurisdiction of Massachusetts. By the laws of the Bay State, no freeman was allowed to vote in town meeting, nor to sit as deputy in General Court, unless he were a church member. In September 1643, this law was dispensed with as to the towns in New Hampshire, for the reason that only a few of the people there were members of any church; and probably most of those in Portsmouth who were, had been communicants of the English church.

In Dec. 1642, Mr. James Parker, a minister of Weymouth, Mass., came to Portsmouth, and preached during the winter, producing so much effect as to have forty professed converts, who desired, among other things, to settle Mr. Parker; but after he left, as the record runs, "most of them fell back again, in time embracing this present world."

These facts, taken in connection with the existence of only an occasional ministry, by candidates who staid in Portsmouth for a short time only, will show that order could not come out of such a chaos, without a master mind and by a band of power. Such a mind was united with such a band in the person of the Reverend Joshua Moodey.

☞ As soon as a train arrives, every one going into Richmond, is made to go with a soldier to the Provost Marshal's office, and if not well vouched for, is rigorously held in custody, and guards are so posted as to prevent egress from the city at any point, without a pass.

BUY CALIFORNIA WINES.

They are the Purest!
The Best!
The Cheapest!

The "sunny slopes" of "Los Angelos" have announced to the world that America is a wine growing country, and as the discovery of gold sent a thrill through the old world, so will the discovery of these Wines startle them again, as it says, "one more link broken which has bound us to Europe," "one more step to independence." Let every man, woman and child who uses Wine, see to it that they buy none other than these.

"The Hock" is a most delicious Wine, and rivals in delicacy its German predecessor.

The "Angelica" and "Muscatel" are melting, luscious and rich, and will take the place of Malaga, Tokay, or other rich Wine.

The Port has a fine flavor and body; and The Port is excellent because it is pure.

AMUSEMENTS.—Duprez & Green's Troupe will give one of their popular concerts at the Temple, on Tuesday evening next. This troupe has already won a high reputation in their department, on their former visits to this city.

The Hutchinson Family, consisting of Asa, Lizzie, Abby, Freddy and Little Dennett, announce a concert at the Temple on Thursday evening, Oct. 16th.

Dr. Colton will give one of his amusing and instructive exhibitions of the influence of Nitrous Oxide, or Laughing Gas, on Monday evening Oct. 20th.

And the irrepressible George Francis Train, who can say and does say so many sharp things of friends and foes, will lecture at the Temple on Friday evening, Oct. 17th.

☞ A private letter from Chambersburg informs us that there now are three Portsmouth boys in the hospitals there—Messrs Vaughan, Hatch and Henderson.—The wound which Mr. Daniel J. Vaughan, of the 57th N. Y. Regiment, received in the face, is healing rapidly, and should nothing unfavorable occur, will soon be well. Mr. Daniel Hatch, a member of a Massachusetts regiment, is sick; and Mr. Robert Henderson, also of a Massachusetts regiment, is wounded quite severely in the leg, but is improving.

☞ The Manchester Mirror says the Steam Fire Engine, which is being built by the Amoskeag Company of that city, is ordered for the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and not for this city, as it previously stated.—The Mirror thinks that "if the city authorities of Portsmouth saw the true interests of the municipality they would see to it that an order was given for such an engine," and adds that "the people of Manchester would think it as foolish to discard their three fire engines and go back to hand engines, as for a farmer to discard the cornsheller and go back to shelling it on a shovel, or drop the apple-parer for a shoe knife."

☞ We are informed that the Home Guard, of this city, intend to have a public drill on Monday afternoon next, and that they have invited the companies of volunteers to drill with them. It is thought probable that the invitation will be accepted. Such drills would be beneficial to all who participate in them, and the more we have of them the better.

☞ William Wells Brown will lecture to-morrow (Sunday) evening, at the Temple, on the President and Emancipation, and the Effects of Emancipation on the Blacks of the South and the White Laborers of the North.

DEATHS.

In Newburyport, Oct. 9th, LAETTA M. HILLS, daughter of Elbridge M. and Martha E. Hills, aged 4 mos. 9 days.

☞ The funeral services of Mr. SUFFLY HAM will take place this (Saturday) afternoon at 2½ o'clock, from his late residence, Islington street.

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal. No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is

THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Dani. Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

An assortment of

REGISTERS, SOAP-STONES, &c.,

CONSTANTLY ON HAND.

☞ Personal attention given to setting all Furnaces.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE!

A Sure Relief for the Sufferer!

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century by Dr. W. Grace, C., surgeon in King James' army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day; and was rewarded by the King, who knew him as a public benefactor. The Salve is used for the following diseases:—Burns, Bruises, Felons, Old Head, Salt Rheum, Rolls Scurvy, Sore Lips, Sore Ears, Swelled Nose, Ulcers, Lame Joints, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Ringworms, Spines, Fresh Cuts, Scaldings, Scalds, Stings of Venomous Insects, Piles, Bunions, Frozen Limbs, Nettle Rash, Sore Breast, Warts, Eruptions, Festers, Shingles, Cancers, Whitlows, Itch, Sties, Lame Wrist, and Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature, without leaving a scar. It will also cure pimples on the face, and beautify the Skin.

There are thousands who are suffering for months and even years in consequence of sores and wounds that might be cured in a short time by the use of this great external Salve. It has never failed to effect a speedy cure when properly applied. This Salve has none of the irritating heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand, for it will save them trouble, suffering and money; and in many cases it has saved life itself. The manufacturer receives testimonials daily, from some of our most distinguished citizens, expressing benefits derived from its use. This Salve is warranted to give perfect satisfaction in every disease that it professes to cure; if not, the money will be refunded.

M. S. Burr & Co., 20 Tremont street, Boston, wholesale agents. All orders addressed to this firm or the manufacturer, will receive prompt attention.

One Box sent postpaid by mail to any part of the United States, on the receipt of 38 cents—or three Boxes for one dollar.

sept4 L. LAIGHTON.

From the Journal

THE OLD ELM, on the South road opposite the Auburn street Cemetery, referred to in a late Ramble, is now down—felled by the woodman's ax. Should the veritable Christopher Fuller, who in 1732, at the age of 14, broke off the top of this tree for a riding switch, now pass that way, he would see in the enormous trunk, as it lies on the ground, seven feet in thickness, that time and nature can do wonders. Mr. Joseph Fuller, son of Theodore, and grandson of Christopher, resides on his own farm in the vicinity of the old tree, which he has looked upon with a family feeling.

About 25 years ago, the season when the pond was dug in the cemetery, a pair of wood-ducks built their nest in this tree. They kept the matter so secret that no one discovered them until one day the old ones took the whole brood out to a watering in the new pond.

The tree measures nearly 17 feet in circumference where it is chopped off near the ground, and ten feet higher up, its girt is about 20 feet. We know of no larger tree in this vicinity.

WARM WEATHER.—Since our last, we have had unusually warm weather for October. On Saturday last the mercury was at 80, and at midnight it had not descended below 72. On Wednesday last, it was at 87, and on Thursday at 84.

There have been but two days this year warmer than Wednesday. July 6, it was at 90; and Aug. 12, at 89. There has been no week in the whole summer with three days as warm as we have had in the past week.

MR. CHARLES E. HUNTRESS, son of Mr. John S. Huntress of this city, whose death, at the age of 22, we have already published, was connected with Co. K, of the 2d N. H. Regiment. Lieut. J. S. Sides informs us that he died on the 20th of Sept., of typhoid fever, at the hospital in Alexandria, Va. Mr. H. had been in every battle up to that of Manassas, and exhibited true courage at all times. Much confidence was reposed in him by the officers of the company, and as a worthy and upright young man he was much beloved by his companions in arms. His loss was deeply lamented by all.

NEW MAIL ARRANGEMENTS.—A new Mail route was opened from Portsmouth to Great Falls by way of Brock's crossing, on the 17th inst. The mail leaves Portsmouth daily, Sundays excepted, at quarter past five P. M., and arrives from Great Falls at half past five P. M. By this route all mail matters for the towns in the north east part of the State, above Great Falls, go direct. Dover and adjoining towns now send direct to Portsmouth and towns south by this route. Two mails per day are now sent and received from Dover—leaving Portsmouth quarter before 10 A. M., via North Berwick, and half past 4 P. M. by Newmarket Junction.

A DOLLAR THAT PAYS WELL.—One of the best seasonable enterprises now before the public, is that of the Publisher of the American Agriculturist. He has secured for his subscribers fine colored editions of two splendid Maps of localities of great interest. One of these covering a space of more than ten square feet, shows the entire State of VIRGINIA so completely that every county, town, city, village river, brook, mountain, hill, and principal road, is readily found. It also embraces the principal parts of Maryland and Pennsylvania. The other Map, covering about 15 square feet, gives all the southern or Slave States, including Missouri, Kentucky, Virginia Maryland, Delaware, and all south of them.—Though not so minute as the Map of Virginia this shows all the counties, principal towns, rivers, etc., of the Southern States. Any person subscribing now for the Agriculturist, is presented with a choice of the above two Maps. In addition to this, every new subscriber for 1863, (Vol 22,) receives the Agriculturist for the rest of this year without charge. We have long received the Agriculturist and can testify to its real merits. Every number is well illustrated, and contains a very large amount of really useful, practical, reliable information for the Farm, the Garden and the Household, including a very interesting department for the little ones. No one can fail to get many dollars' worth of useful hints from a volume of the the Agriculturist, while the maps now are so much extra. We have sent for two copies of the paper so as to get both maps. Send for the paper on our recommendation, or if you prefer, send a dime for a single copy, and examine it for yourself. The address of the Publisher is ORANGE JUDD, 41 Park Row, New York.

The governors of States are invited by Gen. Halleck to fill all the vacancies other than General officers, in the old regiments from the ranks and lower officers. An excellent move. So did Bonaparte. No more green officers, whose patriotism and fitness may be measured by the pay and distinction offered.

Dr. Batchelder of Epping, is the first martyr to the liberty of talking secession and cursing the government (in New Hampshire) under which he lives, perhaps he will be the last. He had no idea of raising such a breeze, just for honestly speaking his own mind.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases,

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As far as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an affecting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dansville, Livingston Cos., N. Y.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost everything a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any man's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Swain, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to remove Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wolcottville, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now well and sound as any man. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very wonderful results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Chambersburg Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face so completely blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every remedy we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

"I find your SARSAPARILLA the most efficacious remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best alteratives we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER. My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary form, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, for nineteen years. They grew worse and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of Ayer's SARSAPARILLA perfected him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofula or Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and wildly-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

Prepared by J. C. AYER, M. D., & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Brag don, J. B. Upham, J. Woodman Moses, John E. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pindar, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon; Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT" VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 25 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order; thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of these virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor having taken especial pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is retailed at only Twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

SEA-COAST FARMS—The farms in Rye and Greenland, and although that vicinity where sea-weed could be used as a fertilizer, have been remarkably profitable.—Huge crops of hay and potatoes have annually been sold, and there was no necessity for keeping stock to make manure. In this respect these farms are very desireable. For other crops, however, they have not been so profitable. One thing has struck us as rather singular. The farmers of Rye, and perhaps, other places near, seem to be an over-worked race. Labor such as no slave could endure, is cheerfully done by them. Their vast fields of grass and marsh hay, their acres of potatoes, all evolved labor of the severest kind, while storms on the coast which brought up the sea weed were taken advantage of, early and late, to secure the valuable manure; consequently the Rye farmers are, or were old men at middle age. Their great labor stiffened the muscles and joints, and yet seemed to take away relish for other pursuits. They seemed to us, as we knew them twenty years ago, to be petrifying for the want of rational holidays or relaxation from severe toil. This may not be so now, nor have been then in many cases, but our observations justified such conclusions at the time. Man, indeed, must, and ought to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow, but he has other than physical wants to supply, and ought not to allow his daily labor to usurp the place of other interests.—N. H. Journal of Agriculture.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that no one is more SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a valuable collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
"During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on these rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents."
R. H. EDDY.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

Stuart's rebel cavalry with artillery, crossed the Potomac at Hancock, and on Friday occupied Mercersburg, Pa., taking horses and all other property they wanted, offering rebel scrip for it. Thence they advanced and occupied Chambersburg, the people deeming resistance useless.

It is reported that Chambersburg was surrendered on condition that private property should be respected, but public property should be removed or destroyed. The railroad buildings have been burned. Gov. Curtin says no troops will be needed from Philadelphia.

The reported death of Gen. Oglesby at Corinth is incorrect. Our troops occupy Rienzi. We have chased Price as far as Ripley, and the chase is still kept up.

Bragg's forces, after their defeat at Perryville, Ky., broke and retreated rapidly over three diverging roads southward, our forces in close pursuit. Gen. Gilbert's forces were subsequently in the rear of the rebels, and some distance below them.

A Louisville dispatch, dated ten o'clock Friday night, says Bragg's army retreated towards Harrodsburg, but was hemmed in. On Thursday we occupied advantageous situations on all sides of the enemy. Our loss in killed and wounded on Wednesday was 1500. There was no fight at Perryville on Thursday, as the rebels had fled, and our forces were pursuing.

A detachment of Gen. Jim. Lane's negro brigade attempted to cross the river from Wyandotte, Kansas, on Tuesday night, it is thought to make a raid upon the citizens of Clay county, Mo. A company of Missouri State militia drove them back. Nobody hurt.

A simultaneous movement of the Federal forces all over the country, is said to have commenced. The troops at Cincinnati are moving southward: those in the vicinity of Washington are also on the move. It is declared to be no secret at Washington that vast preparations are making for an advance on the rebels from several points.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The dispatch received, on Sunday noon, by Messrs. Hutchings, Riley and others, says:—

The rebels at Chambersburg on Saturday morning destroyed the machine shop, railway and rolling stock of the Cumberland valley R. R. They have seized about 500 horses; also a large amount of Government clothing, leaving their own dilapidated garments in exchange. A part of their force at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, moved towards Gettysburg. It has been ascertained that they crossed the Potomac near Clear Spring, early on Friday morning, and entered Pennsylvania via Blair's valley. Large numbers of troops from all parts of the state, have been offered Gov. Curtin, but none as yet accepted, as a sufficient force has been sent forward to meet the present emergency. Gen. Wool is now in command of all the troops in Pennsylvania. It is supposed the rebels are marching direct to Frederick. Gen. Brooks is in command at Hagerstown, where all is quiet.

Nashville is surrounded by the rebels, who are committing all manner of depredations. Provisions are selling at fabulous prices. Our troops are on half rations.—The rebels captured 40 of our foraging wagons last week, 9 miles south of Nashville.

The rebels on the 8th captured 17 government wagons and 12 or 15 sutlers' wagons, with 550 men, near Frankfort, Ky.

Army officers report that at Perryville, Ky., the rebel Gens. Cheatham and Pelk were killed, and the whole rebel loss much greater than ours. There was no fighting on Thursday, Friday or Saturday, but a battle was expected on Sunday. Gen. Buell, in his official report, states that the rebels on Wednesday were everywhere repulsed, though not without some momentary advantage.

The naval and military expedition up St. John's river, Fla., was completely successful. The powerful rebel battery was effectually silenced, and the enemy put to flight. There was no loss on our side.—The army supplies and heavy guns fell into our hands. We now hold the river as far as Jacksonville.

☞ The London Shipping Gazette states that Capt. Semmes, late of the Sumter, now in command of the rebel steamer Alabama, has taken and burned four whalers within a short time. One of them was the Ocmulgee, hailing from Edgartown, Mass.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The organization of the 14th regiment is complete, and it will leave for the seat of war on Wednesday, Oct. 15th. Robert Wilson, of Keene, is Colonel; and Tileston A. Barker, late of the 2d, is Lieut. Colonel.

—— The 15th regiment, Col. Kingman, had 761 men in camp at Concord on the 9th, and the remainder were expected during the week.

—— Capt. Frank W. Parker of Co. E, 4th Reg't, who was arrested some time ago for bad deportment, has been restored to his command. It appears by a letter from Col. Bell, that the charges were not sustained and that he had been honorably reinstated in its command.

—— The Lowell Advertiser states that the report is that the brother of Mrs. Mott, residing in Great Falls, recently received a letter from Hamilton, Ohio, stating that the Rev. Darwin Mott arrived in that place alone, put up at a hotel, was taken violently sick, and soon after died. All this may be true, but like many similar reports, needs confirmation. It is very likely that the report was originated by himself.

—— Lieut. Col. Scott and Surgeon Tracy of the 6th N. H. regiment, who have been home for some weeks, returned to their regiment the present week, both very much improved in health.

—— Mr. R. D. Bennet, of Milford, while picking apples on Thursday, fell from the tree and broke his shoulder.

SWORD PRESENTATION.—The loyal citizens of Eliot have presented Capt. Dixon, of Co. C, 27th Regt. Maine Vols., with an elegant Sword and equipments, suitable for his rank. The address and reply on the occasion are as follows.

Eliot, Me., Oct. 1st, 1862.

Capt. Edmund A. Dixon: Dear Sir:—The undersigned, a committee of the citizens of Eliot, beg leave to ask your acceptance of the accompanying Sword, Sash, Belt and Shoulder Straps, as a testimony of respect, felt for one about to leave them to fight the battles of our beloved country, and as an esteemed citizen and soldier.

In going forth to unsheath your sword in defence of our glorious Union, allow them to cherish the hope that your services may be acceptable, and conducive to the interest and prosperity of the cause you have so nobly chosen to serve.

Cherishing the desire that you may enter upon the new duties of camp and field life, and be sustained in health and strength, gaining fresh laurels and distinguished honors on the field of battle, we commend you to that All-wise Creator, "who doeth all things well," and wishing you a pleasant journey and safe return to your home and friends, we are, dear sir, with sentiments of esteem,

H. B. CRAM,
WM. HILL,
S. C. SHAPLEIGH,
D. P. SPINNEY,
JOSA. WOOSTER.
Committee in behalf of the Citizens of Eliot.

REPLY.

Camp Abe Lincoln, Oct. 1862.

Gentlemen:—Permit me to thank you for a gift so timely, appropriate and elegant.

To my friends in Eliot especially, I proffer my best wishes for what they have done, are doing, and will do; for without their active and intelligent agency at home, the soldier's arm would grow nerveless, though the hand might grasp a keener blade than this.

And I would say through you, sirs, to each of the donors, that the confidence and trust implied by this presentation, awaken the deepest sense of gratitude, and call for the loudest thanks.

I am, Sirs, your ob't serv't,
E. A. DIXON,
Capt. Co. G, 27th Me. Reg't.

Let us not toady to England any longer. Let us use goods of our own manufacture. Let us erect factories all up and down our streams, and manufacture our own cotton, so that when England wants to buy a new handkerchief or clean shirt she will have to come to America. One of these days, when these factories are put up, and I have emancipated this country from England, then perhaps you will appreciate me. Let us speak the English language, and call America our mother land. Let us stop toadying to England and stand by the Administration, support Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, and we shall be the greatest people in the world.

THE N. H. NINTH.—This is our first of the new regiments; and they had but just arrived, with little opportunity for drill, when called on to meet the rebels in Maryland; and yet one of the most splendid charges recorded of the war is accorded to the New Hampshire Ninth. Some attribute it to their greenness, not knowing any better than to obey orders!—[Nashua Tel.

A full regiment of a round thousand men, fresh from home, with all the vigor derived from wholesome food, would charge bayonets on a foe, with more weight and strength than could be used by another regiment worn down by toil, enfeebled by fever and ague, and reduced by battles to two or three hundred.

☞ The Federal soldiers, who were in the hospitals at Chambersberg, Penn., when the town was occupied by the rebels, were probably paroled. There are three Portsmouth boys three.

☞ "Perley" telegraphs from Washington to the Boston Journal on Saturday that the Intelligencer employs six columns in an adverse criticism of the President's emancipation proclamation.

The Republican states upon authority, that the President visited Gen. McClellan in order to ascertain, if possible, the cause for the delays of his army.

The invasion of Pennsylvania creates intense surprise and anger in official circles, and the opinion is openly expressed that some of our Generals have been criminally slow in their movements.

☞ Brig. Gen. J. B. McPherson has been promoted to Major General for meritorious and distinguished services in the West.

☞ The Southern papers report that ex-Senator Toombs was wounded at Antietam, and is now on his way home.

☞ Rev. Dr. Breckinridge has not, as was feared, been made a prisoner by the rebels. He is in the neighborhood of Lexington, Ky., and has not suffered in person, though his house has been taken for a military hospital by the rebel forces.

☞ A Greenock (Scotland) letter in the N. Y. Herald states that a rebel agent there has bought a steamer called the Iona, and is negotiating for others—all very fast vessels.

☞ The Wheeling Intelligencer learns "that the Government has decided to suspend the tax law in Western Virginia for the present. It will not pay at present to put the machinery in motion for so small an amount as would be collected."

☞ A Washington dispatch to the Tribune says: "We are enabled to state, upon excellent authority, that there is not the slightest foundation for the rumors respecting contemplated military or cabinet changes."

☞ Intelligence has been received in Washington that the Sioux Indians in Minnesota have ceased their hostilities and were surrendering, and further, that the military authorities were at the latest accounts severely punishing the most prominent of the guilty parties. The entire number of warriors does not exceed 1100.

☞ Acting Master George Crall, late of the gunboat "Conemaugh," now of steamer "South Carolina," was wounded about two weeks since, while gallantly attempting to capture a rebel picket boat, off Charleston, S. C. He received a sabre cut in the arm, and is now doing well.

☞ Gen. Geo. W. Morgan has been temporarily suspended from his command, and a Court of Inquiry has been ordered to investigate the circumstances attending the evacuation of Cumberland Gap.

☞ The funds which Lieut. Carpenter obtained from the International Bank, Portland, on a check upon the U. S. Sub Treasury at Boston, have all been returned to bank, dollar for dollar.

☞ On Wednesday afternoon, the funeral of Mrs. Gen. Scott took place at St. Thomas Church, in New York, the remains having arrived from Rome on Saturday.

THE ERA OF GREAT EVENTS.—REAL BENEFITS TO HUMANITY.—This is an era of grand ideas and magnificent projects; but among them all, there are comparatively few which have for their aim and object the best wishes of humanity. New methods of expediting business are continually being introduced, but what do they add to the happiness or comfort of mankind? Nothing. One mind, with all its powers directed to the amelioration of suffering, has accomplished more for the real good of the race, than all the inventors engaged in the attempt to abridge time and space can ever achieve. We allude to THOMAS HOLLOWAY, whose PILLS and OINTMENT may be said to be omnipresent throughout the world. The Pills are working such wonders in cases of confirmed dyspepsia, that physicians everywhere are compelled to prescribe them, and the time is not far distant when for all diseases of the stomach and bowels, they will be the only preparation which any intelligent individual will dare to use. Millions of dollars have been expended in making Dr. Holloway's medicines known; and they are known in every land where there is a written language. In this country they are especially appreciated, for there is scarcely a complaint incident to our climate for which they are not absolutely specific. Under such circumstances, the enormous and ever increasing demand for them scarcely seems extraordinary, although it has no parallel in medical history.—[N. Y. "Courier." no9

A SAFE PAPER FOR THESE TIMES.—The Daily Gazette is the name of a new paper just started in Baltimore. The Prospectus promises that "it will express no opinions," and indulge in no "criticisms" upon anything or anybody!!

Local.

☞ Among Capt. Thacher's Company of nine-months' Volunteers, in this city, are Messrs. James Shaw, jr., and James Mitchell, "graduates" from the Chronicle Office, where they have been employed together for half a dozen years, more or less, besides both carrying lists of the paper for some time before that. Prior to this, they were fellow schoolmates, and now are "going for soldiers" together. While sincerely regretting to part with these young men, both as faithful and skillful workmen and pleasant companions,—we hope they may do much for the cause of the country, win all honors, and be returned safely to their homes and friends, and their old "stands" in our office, under a restored union. But we are sorry to have our "old trio" of workmen thus broken up,—for we have one more hand who has been with us about as long. We believe in getting the best employees and keeping them as long as possible. However, the Chronicle must furnish its full quota with the rest of the printers in the city—and the members of the craft here, (as elsewhere) have not been at all backward.—The gallant and lamented Ensign Webster of the Navy, who died recently, was also one of our "boys", and was, with his brother, among our carriers for several years.—And yet another of them is now Acting Paymaster in the Navy.

And we noticed in the Journal Office, this week, two printers, honorably returned members of the famous N. H. 2d Regt., at work. And as we write, we are both pained and pleased, at the receipt of a letter from a brave volunteer, with whom we worked side by side for years, in that office, and who is now in hospital, recovering from his honorable battle-wounds.

☞ A young volunteer, named Clough, visited the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Friday, and without a permit went on board the Colorado in the dock,—eluding the vigilance of the sentry placed there to prevent persons entering the dock without a pass. Upon coming out he was met by the sentinel, who demanded a pass. The volunteer made an insulting reply, whereupon the sentry "charged bayonet," and threatened to run him through. Clough knocked the gun away and struck the marine in the face several times, after which exploit he turned and run towards the Navy Yard bridge, followed by the marine and watchmen. He was stopped by one of the officers of the Yard, and taken before the Commandant, who, we understand, reprimanded him, and allowed him to depart.

☞ The donation of that liberal basket of nice apples, to the Chroniclers the other evening, by one of our legal friends, proves that he is as "sweet" on the paper as ever, and that his "attachment" to the concern has not yet deteriorated into a mere professional matter. May his harvest ever be as abundant as now.

It's no use knocking at the door."

It is easy enough, as in Shakespeare's time, to 'call spirits from the vasty deep;' and you can find plenty of people, now-a-days, who claim that they can make 'em come, too.—But we don't believe that many more strangers,—men whom we don't know whether they are "good," and others whom we know are not—can get us to put in advertisements, or do other work, without pay in advance. We did our share of that sort of work, years ago; and we don't care for advertisements now, unless we know they will help as much to fill our pockets as our columns. Every day, almost, we refuse offers for the insertion of advertisements, with requests "to send our bill," &c., which offers we invariably return, with requests that our would-be "patrons" will "send their bills," (current funds) first. And besides letters of this sort, from all parts of this country, there are actually men beyond its limits, green enough, (or else suppose we are) to think we will insert their advertisements on credit. Within a week we have received two such missives from London, the postage on which, cost the senders 62 cts. each.—But "it's no use,"—we calculate to pay our own bills, and don't mean to pay more of other people's than we can't help. To this end, we like the motto, "We want no trade, except for cash," or its sure equivalent in fair trade, on call.

DRAFTING.—We learn from Concord that Gov. Berry has a six weeks' job in fitting out the soldiers already raised as vounteers, and that no draft will probably be made in that time. If such be the case, there will probably be no draft needed in New Hampshire. We understand that the Portsmouth quota is fast being made up—not lacking more than twenty to complete it.

Those who deemed it dangerous to sit in "a draft," and retired to Canada and elsewhere, will doubtless soon find in the cold air of those regions a more dangerous draft, and will begin to show their doe-faces at home again.—Journal.

A large portion of the young men of Rockingham County have been appointed Acting Assistant Paymasters in the Navy. The number cannot yet be stated with entire accuracy, as there are several towns and wards not yet heard from.—Statesman.

☞ The Concord Statesman publishes a lengthy list of the sick and wounded New Hampshire soldiers in the hospitals near Washington. In the list we find mentioned the following from this city and vicinity:—

Wm. H. Reddan, Portsmouth; 6th regt., Co. H; shot (through middle of head; doing well. He is at the Emory Hospital, Washington.

Wm. H. Goodwie, Portsmouth; 2d regt., Co. K; ball through thigh; doing well;—at the Catholic College Hospital, Washington.

ASSESSMENT OF U. S. TAX.—Hon. Geo. M. Herring of Farmington, the Assessor for this District, says the work of the Assessment in most of the thirty-nine towns in this District has been done, and he has been agreeably surprised to see the willingness with which the Assessor has been met, and the surprise some have expressed at the small sums they have been assessed.—In some cases they have put their own value upon articles a little above their real worth, that they might pay something towards the Government expenses. In some country towns, the whole assessment amounts to less than fifty dollars. In Dover the amount on retailers of spirits amounts to over $1000.—Journal.

AMUSEMENTS.—Duprez & Green's Troupe will give one of their popular concerts at the Temple, on Tuesday evening next. This troupe has already won a high reputation in their department, on their former visits to this city.

The Hutchinson Family, consisting of Ass, Lizzie, Abby, Freddy and Little Dennett, announce a concert at the Temple on Thursday evening, Oct. 16th.

Dr. Colton will give one of his amusing and instructive exhibitions of the influence of Nitrous Oxide, or Laughing Gas, on Monday evening Oct. 20th.

And the irrepressible George Francis Train, who can say and does say so many sharp things of friends and foes, will lecture at the Temple on Friday evening, Oct. 17th.

A HIT.—"What sort of pain is produced by a Minie ball, I wonder?" asked the Divinity student, looking up from an account of the battle of Antietam. "Well, if fired by one of Berdan's riflemen," replied X, "I should say it would produce a sort of Sharp-Shooting pain!"—Vanity Fair.

☞ Hon. Townsend Harris, of New York, U. S. Minister to Japan, has arrived home. He has been absent eight years.

☞ The Rebellion in China commenced fourteen years ago, and has not yet been subdued.

1st. The perfect consumption of coal. No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above.

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Danl. Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

From the Journal

RAMBLES about PORTSMOUTH, No. 147.

Fort Constitution—Dr. Batchelder—The Explosion in 1809.

In our last Ramble some reference was made to incidents occurring at this point of our harbor defence. In the past week, Dr. Nathaniel Batchelder of Epping, who has fired the range of the Fort and neighborhood for forty days, on a charge of rebellious acts, was released by an order of the Secretary of War, on taking the oath of allegiance and coming under bonds of $10,000 for future conduct. The punishment was not very severe at this season of the year, for the Doctor enjoyed almost every advantage of the popular watering places, a landlord's round bill excepted. No doubt after so good treatment, he will have a better opinion of the administration.

We take this occasion to give a sketch of a disaster which took place at this Fort in 1809, when the garrison was under command of Col. Walbach. The circumstances will be new to many of the present generation.

On the 4th day of July, 1809, there were two public political celebrations in Portsmouth. The Federalists marched to the Old South Church to listen to an oration from Isaac Lyman, Esq., and partook of a dinner at the old Assembly House. The Democrats marched to the North Church, were addressed by Joseph Bartlett, Esq., and dined at Davenport's.

There were a few however who accepted an invitation of Col. Walbach to dine with him at the Fort,—among them Dr. Langdon Cheves, Capt. Jacob Custer, the officers of the Fort, and a few others. The company were enjoying the hospitalities of the Colonel in his quarters, and the outside visitors were just collecting on the platform on the northwest corner of the Fort, where a fiddler just arrived had invited them to form a contra dance. On the northeast point of the Fort, two of the 24-pounders had been removed to make way for a brass 6-pounder from which it was intended to fire salutes after dinner. Two ammunition chests, containing about 850 pounds of powder, and one containing balls, were placed on the side of the platform near the house where the company were at dinner, and on the platform were also 17 cartridges of two pounds each, for the salute. The company had been at the table about three-quarters of an hour, when a tremendous explosion took place—the sides and ceiling of the room were driven in—the tables upset, and everything on them shivered to atoms! The company were prostrated, and the lady of Col. W. came running into the room, bloody from slight injuries. None of the company were however materially injured. They ran out to witness the distressing scene of men dead and alive, their clothes burning, and the ground covered with fragments of timber and boards, scattered balls and pieces of iron on every side. The sides and wainscot of the house were beaten in—balls were sent through the windows—and one 24-pound ball was carried beyond the house. One poor fellow was carried over the roof of the house, and the upper half of his body lodged on the opposite side near the window of the dining room; the limb of another was driven through a thick door over the dining room, leaving a hole in the door the shape of the foot; parts of the other bodies were carried nearly a hundred yards from the fatal spot. Of the killed were three soldiers, one citizen and three boys. Six soldiers and several citizens were wounded. The scene was heart rending. Col. Walbach exclaimed, "I have faced death in its most dreadful form—I have witnessed the desolations of war, and have mingled in all the hazards and havock of battles, but never before did I feel a pang so terrible and intolerable as this."

The persons killed were Ephraim Pickering, Esq., of Newington, (a brother of the late Joseph W. P. of this city,) James Trefethen and Joseph Mitchell, both of Newcastle; another lad named Paul, belonging to Kittery; Serj. Joseph Alberts; privates Reubish McDaniels and Theodore Whitlock.

It appeared that the 17 small cartridges, which were to have been placed in the ammunition chest on the carriage, the servant thought best to leave for a short time in the sun, as he fancied they felt damp. A spark from one of the lighted linstocks was probably driven by the wind to the exposed cartridges, as it was the occasion of the explosion.

We have before given a short record of the event made in the Fort morning report of the 5th. It appears that there were stationed at the Fort at that time, a captain, two 2d lieutenants, one surgeon's mate, 3 sergeants, 4 corporals, 4 musicians, 6 artificers, and 53 privates—in all 74.

The body of McDaniels was found near the light house below low water mark. The remains of the three soldiers were buried with the honors of war in the same grave on the 8th of July. The counter-sign given out on the 4th was "Dead shot."

Capt. Davidson, now at the Fort, is the connecting link between the days when Col. Walbach was stationed here and the present time. Through his gentlemanly attentions we are enabled to give much of the above facts as appear on the records of the Fort.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE.

As the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being thicker, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a tin style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for using the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and no shovelling up of the ashes is optional, as disposed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise. We would refer to Messrs. Geo. L. Treadwell, Oren Bragdon, J. S. Upham, C. Woodman Moses, John R. Holbrook, Geo. B. French, Frank Jones, John Stokell, James H. Pindar, James Shaw, Charles A. Hodgdon, Charles Stimpson, Kittery; Thomas J. Tarlton, Newcastle; and the host of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, most and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fine or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke pipe or flue on the top of the zone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:—

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

MATHEWS' ARNICA HAIR GLOSS

This is a new and invaluable preparation for preserving and beautifying the hair.

The wonderful virtues of Arnica in allaying and removing inflammation are universally known.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is a combination of those virtues, with other tried and excellent ingredients.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS stimulates and invigorates the hair, prevents it from falling out—restores it when lost—promotes its growth and strength—renders it proof against all diseases.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS permanently cures all irritations and eruptions of the scalp, and makes it healthy and fertile. For the removal of dandruff it has no equal. Its operations in this particular are magical and permanent.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is unequalled as a hair-dressing compound. It not only cleanses the scalp and invigorates the hair, but it renders the latter charmingly soft and lustrous. Its odor is particularly delicate and fragrant—the proprietor, having taken special pains to secure this result.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS is the very best preparation for the hair ever discovered.

ARNICA HAIR GLOSS, notwithstanding its surpassing merits—is sold at only Twenty-five cents a bottle, by all Druggists.

Local.

☞ The Chronicle is turned wrong side out and upside down, again, this morning. We must confess that we don't admire the monstrosities of advertising, and we have generally kept our columns free from them; but in this case, Messrs. Jones & Bolles employed the only argument which can persuade us in such cases. Still, though the show bill is a good one, we can't say we like it in the paper—"A man convinced against his will, is of the same opinion still." But the monster only takes the place of other advertisements, that's all—for we give our usual amount of reading matter this morning, tho' in different locations than common.

☞ Not long ago, the officer in command of the Marine force at Portsmouth Navy Yard, advertised three deserters. We understand that Police Officer Johnson, of this city, caught all three, in different distant places. Also that of eight deserting sailors from the ship Cuyler, Mr. Johnson tracked seven to their hiding places, here and elsewhere. All this required much travel, trouble and expense, as well as sagacity.—Officer Johnson is winning considerable fame as a detective, and is a prompt and attentive officer.

☞ Dr. Batchelder, "the Epping secessionist," recently released from Fort Constitution, returned to his home on Saturday, in a barouche drawn by four horses—accompanied by a couple of friends. We are told by a gentleman who chanced to be there, that a procession (of his friends and sympathisers probably), with a "military band," came out to meet him; besides a very large number of ladies and gentlemen as spectators. Speeches of welcome were made, and the redoubtable Dr. replied.

☞ We have already stated that counterfeit three dollar bills on the Mechanics and Traders Bank, of this city, are in circulation. The spurious bill is entirely unlike the genuine. In the centre of the counterfeit bill is a large figure 3, and on each side of the figure is a female in a circular die; on the left lower corner—Washington on horseback.

☞ There was an unusual number of coasters and other vessels at our wharves last week,—more it is is stated, than at any previous time during the present season. And there were on Saturday ten schooners lying at the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

Major General Sumner is over seventy years of age. He is so near-sighted that he cannot see distinctly a distance of a hundred yards.—Cincinnati Commercial.

That is the reason why he always gets within charging distance of the rebels. He likes to have them where he can "see the whites of their eyes."—Gloucester Tel.

☞ The young man who was surprised one night this week, while stealing grapes from the garden of Mr. B. T. Bicknell, can recover one skirt of his coat and handkerchief, on application to Mr. B.—[Bath Times.

☞ The Canadian courts have lately decided that a note or bill with the words "with current rate or exchange," on New York or other place within the United States, is not a bill or note that can be sued on as such.

We have heard of timber thieves on the Penobscot, so adroit that they would slip a log from under the owner and leave him sitting on the bark.

☞ Willard's Hotel in Washington is making a profit of $1000 per day. The present proprietors bought the property for $75,000.

☞ The Mobile News has accounts of terrible political riots in New York, which had been going on for six days.

☞ Gen Hooker has thrown away his crutches—a pretty good sign that he actually is getting well.

A club of hen-pecked husbands met once a week—that being their only day of enjoyment and rest. When they adjourned they called it the rising of the tied.

☞ The N. Y. Leader charges that a regular system of electioneering is carried on in that city in officers' commissions.

☞ A young and rather pretty Jewess named Charlotte Weeden, is suing one Jacob Samuel, in the Supreme Court of New York, for $10,000 damage for a breach of promise of marriage. The court room is crowded to excess. The lady herself was on the witness stand, and told the story of her "wrongs" with considerable pathos. The defendent denies having promised the lovelorn Charlotte his hand.

☞ The members of the Old South Church, Boston, have unanimously granted to Rev. Mr. Manning leave of absence for nine months, that he may go as Chaplain of the 43d regiment, and the vote was unanimously ratified by the pew proprietors. Rev. Dr. Blagden, the senior pastor, has sent three sons to the war, and Mr. Manning goes himself.

☞ It is annouced from Washington that there is great need of additional Acting Assistant Surgeons in the Navy. Applicants should be capable of passing an ordinary examination, and not over thirty years of age. Applications should be addressed either to the Chief of the Bureau of Surgery, or to the Secretary of the Navy.

☞ The N. Y. Times' dispatch says that Stuart's rebel raid caused a special Cabinet meeting on Saturday. Gen. Halleck was present. The result is unknown, but it is said a dispatch was sent to Gen. Hooker requesting his presence at the adjourned meeting.

DEATHS.

McGREGOR'S PATENT

AIR-WARMING AND VENTILATING

FURNACES.

The subscriber would invite the attention of any person in want of a Furnace, to this celebrated heating apparatus, the most perfect in use;—simple, powerful and durable.

The advantages which this Furnace possesses over all others, are:

1st. The perfect consumption of coal No clinkers are made, and no ashes need be sifted.

2d. A continuous fire may be kept through the entire season.

3d. No red hot iron comes in contact with the air to be warmed, and ample accommodation is offered for the evaporation of water, so that the atmosphere of the rooms is that of a soft Italian summer, without any of the dry, oppressive air often felt in furnace heated rooms.

4th. No gas can escape from the fire chamber into the rooms above

5th. More heat is generated from the coal than by any other method of heating; consequently it is THE MOST ECONOMICAL.

The patterns of this Furnace have been very greatly improved recently, and several sizes added, making in all twelve sizes of Brick and Portable Furnaces, adapted for all sizes of buildings.

This Furnace is more used than any other in first class dwelling houses and public buildings—and volumes of testimonials can be shown in its favor.

We might refer to the following persons who are using the McGregor in this city:

Rev. Chas. Burroughs, D. D.; Messrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mark H. Wentworth, George Wentworth, J. P. Bartlett, Com. John Pope, Wm. L. Dwight, Mrs. Levi Woodbury. Also to Rev. Danl. Austin, Kittery; Capt. Chas. H. Salter, Greenland, and many others.

REGISTERS, SOAP-STONES, &c.,

THE MAGEE

rangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up the ashes is entirely dispensed with. We venture to assert that no new stove ever introduced to the public has given such universal and unbounded satisfaction as the MAGEE COOK.

The above cut represents the MAGEE COOKING STOVE with the Extension top, Hot Water Reservoir and Warming Closet attached. This Stove possesses many advantages over every other yet invented, being heavier, having a larger oven, bakes quicker and requires "one-third less coal" than any other stove in the market. The fire may be kept day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense and trouble of re-kindling every day. For economy, convenience and perfection in baking it cannot be excelled.

These Stoves operate on the same principle as the Parlor Stove—are made either high or low, and are made expressly for Stores or Halls. We recommend them as the most economical Stove in use. They can be so regulated as to give any amount of heat required.

THE MAGEE PARLOR STOVE.

This Stove having been before the public for the last three or four years, and so extensively used in this city and vicinity, is too well known to need any recommendation. They have been somewhat improved and are made with and without ovens. Every Stove warranted, or no sale.

Who has Used them?

We would refer to some families who are using the Magee Cook, in this city:

J. Woodman Moses,	John R. Holbrook,
Geo. L. Treadwell,	Henry L. Richards,
Frank Jones,	Geo. B. French,
George Bilbrook,	James H. Pindar,
James Shaw,	Joseph B. Upham,
John Teague,	Wm. R. Martin,
Wm. Cartledge,	Benj. F. Martin,
Mrs. John Lake,	James Bowles,
Tobias Ham,	Ira Dixon,
Wm. H. Laws,	Thomas Hones,
Chas. A. Hodgdon,	Wm. Critchley,
Samuel Gookin,	Oren Bragdon,
Marcellus Eldredge,	Martin L. Twombley,
John H. Piper,	John W. White.

Also to Isaac Joy, South Berwick; Benj. G. Parker and Chas. W. Parker, Kittery; Solomon Brooks and Alonzo Lane, York; Thomas J. Tarlton, Howard Curtis and Thos. E. O. Marvin, Newcastle; and many others.

THE MAGEE FURNACE,

Which, for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal, producing a current of warm air moist and agreeable, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated. The Furnaces consume all the coal and gas, making no clinkers. The sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 60 per cent. of fuel over common furnaces.

The above, and many other kinds of Stoves, and a general assortment of House Furnishing Goods, are offered at the lowest possible prices, at No. 61 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1862.

THE REBELLION.

Stuart's cavalry, on Saturday night, escaped into Virginia. They carried away 800 or 1000 horses. They re-crossed near the mouth of the Monocacy, having marched 90 miles in 24 hours. Gen. McClellan sent troops to intercept them, but they were too late, Gen. Pleasanton having arrived at the crossing just as they had gone over. His force marched 75 miles in 24 hours. The rebels moved through the country together, and seemed perfectly acquainted with the disposition of our troops. They hoped to seize the Government property at Frederick and Monocacy Junction, consisting of 12 heavy engines, 200 loaded cars, and great quantities of hospital and army stores and wagons,—and to destroy the bridge, but our troops had been so stationed as to afford ample protection to these. Stuart, therefore, started off in an easterly direction, although the movement required a wider detour to reach the Potomac. The loss of the Cumberland Valley R. R. is said to be about $40,000, including four second-hand engines. All the other engines were saved. Two warehouses, containing State military stores, were among the property destroyed.

Kirby Smith, with his whole command, effected a junction with Bragg on Friday. Private dispatches state that a great battle was fought on Friday, between Harrodsburg and Danville, heavier than that of Wednesday and that we took 100 wagons and 1000 rebel prisoners. The rebels are retreating to camp Dick Robinson.

Further accounts from Corinth represent our victory as very complete. Gen. Rosecrans was recalled from the pursuit of the rebels on the 9th, and reports the enemy dispersed, demoralized, and incapable of any further mischief. The enemy spiked and abandoned 11 guns. Three caissons were destroyed and most of their ammunition and baggage trains were captured.—We have 2000 prisoners, including nearly 100 officers, besides the wounded. About 1000 rebels were killed. Our loss was 350 killed and 1200 wounded.

Gen. Schofield reports that the rebels have been driven out of Perryville, Mo., into Arkansas, and that there are now no rebel forces in that part of Missouri.

The Times Washington dispatch says another reconnoissance in front of Washington to Aldie and Middlebury, discovered that the enemy had encamped within a mile of the latter place, to the number of 10,000—artillery, cavalry and infantry.—A movement of the enemy towards Centerville is anticipated and provided for.

A Harper's Ferry letter to the Frederick, Md., Examiner asserts that peremptory orders have been received for one of the largest and most important movements of the war.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says the government came into possession of a letter from Beauregard to Bragg, containing a full criticism of the campaign and a careful survey of rebel resources and prospects, with an explanation of their programme. It clearly indicates that the rebel armies are much larger than the Federal authorities hitherto believed.

Pennsylvania was again agitated on Monday, by a dispatch from the "reliable gentlemen" to Gov. Curtin, that there were 30,000 rebels in Franklin county, but the rumor was subsequently denied.

The Grenada Appeal makes the result of the Corinth battle even more disastrous to the rebels than our own accounts.

☞ An order has been issued from the rebel War Department, directing field officers to dismount in time of action whenever they can do so without interference with the proper discharge of their duties; and officers of all grades are reminded that unnecessary exposures in time of battle on the part of commissioned officers, is not only unsoldierlike, but productive of great injury to the army and infinite peril to the country.

☞ During Pres. Buchanan's term of office, many jokes were made at his expense because he was a bachelor; and yet it may not be the worst thing possible for a President to be without a wife. At any rate, "Cæsar's wife should be above suspicion."

Artemas Ward, in speaking of the newspaper of his village, says that "the advertisements are well written, and the deaths and marriages are conducted with signal ability."

The war has drawn from the State a large proportion of the young men who have hitherto spent the winter months in teaching the common schools in the country. The deficiency of male teachers, the coming winter, will impose upon many districts the necessity of employing females.—Manchester American.

We apprehend that a larger number of College students and graduates, have enlisted for the war, than is generally supposed. Such young men, most frequently heretofore, have taught during the winter. Of one College class, with which we are acquainted, which, two years ago, graduated 55 young men, two are at the South, one has died, and twenty-two are now in the army, occupying positions from Adjutant to private, but most of them holding commissions. The war has also reduced the number of students in the Colleges, and the ladies have therefore a still better prospect of obtaining situations. Perhaps neither the districts nor the ladies will have occasion to regret the necessity, provided the School Agents do not seek to reduce the salaries too much.

☞ The Maine 7th regiment passed through this city, on Monday, on its way home, to recruit its strength and numbers. Its record is a glorious one. It has participated in all but one of the hard fought battles in which the Army of the Potomac has been engaged, and has ever done its work bravely and worthily. Their numbers are sadly reduced now;—only 132 enlisted men passed through here, and two captains and five lieutenants are the only line officers with the regiment. One of the absent captains, whom we knew well, we wish might have been with the regiment on its sad, yet glorious return home, but he now lies dangerously wounded at Chambersburg, Pa. And one of its lieutenants, who fell at Antietam, was worthy to receive, living, the honor which is now heaped upon his freshmade grave. The Major is a very young man and has passed unharmed through all the contests in which the regiment has been engaged. He led the regiment at the battle of Antietam, and we have been pleased to learn that to Maj. Hyde the people of Maine have not reluctantly nor sparingly given his due meed of praise.

☞ A recent balloon ascension was made in England to more than six miles from the earth, when the two men lost the use of their limbs; one of them became absolutely insensible and the other had only power to pull the string opening the valves, with his teeth, thus allowing the gas to escape and the balloon to descend. They declare that five miles from the earth is the limit of human existence, and no attempt should be made to pass that boundary.

AN INCIDENT.—The Gazette says one of the most efficient members of the Boston Police not only wears the finest pair of black whiskers to be seen round town, but his complexion is so dark that he would scarcely be safe south of Mason and Dixon's Line. He was standing on Tremont street, when a couple of colored men halted before him, took a good look at him, and one of them exclaimed: "God bress Abraham Lincoln; called man on de Police so soon."

FOREIGN.—We have European advices to Oct. 3d. The English papers,—even the London Times,—compliment Gen. McClellan for energy and rapidity of movement in the late contests in Maryland, but they can see nothing but temporary success in our recent victories. The U. S. steam frigate St. Louis left Lisbon, Oct. 1, in pursuit of the rebel steamer "290," which was last seen near the island of Flores, Sept. 30. An address to President Lincoln, in favor of a truce with the South preliminary to negotiations, has been signed at Brussels, by eminent men of almost every European nation, assembled at the Social Science Convention.

☞ Asa Turner of Brooklyn, Me., and John L. Hunter, an attorney of Gardiner, are in Portland jail, accused of disloyalty. Turner was arrested after much resistance, for preventing his sons who had been drafted, from entering the service. Hunter is accused of going to the camp at Augusta and attempting to get up a mutiny among the soldiers. Both are charged with high crimes: if guilty, the first may be fined, imprisoned; and the other may be hung, under the U. S. army law.

☞ Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson, of New York, says:—

It is easy to indulge in rhapsodies over or to sentimentalize on the beauties of the common law, and such efforts appear well enough in juvenile law schools, or with beginners at the bar; but when invoked as a means of conquering such a rebellion, they are as ridiculous as would be a homily on moonshine to arrest an earthquake, an apostrophe to the dews of evening amid a hurricane, or a prescription of Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup for the Asiatic cholera.

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette calculates that the surplus produce that will be exported from Ohio this year will exceed in value the interest on a thousand million of dollars—the whole value of property in the State.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——A Concord correspondent of the Boston Journal, states that detachments for the Sixteenth regiment will come in soon. Tents for the men are now being put up on the field lately occupied by the Thirteenth. Albert H. Drown, of Fisherville, has been appointed Quartermaster. He is a brother of the late Capt. Drown of the Second.—No other officers have been appointed.—The leading candidates for the Colonelcies of this and the Seventeenth are Henry O. Kent of Lancaster, and Hon. Mason W. Tappan of Bradford. The Seventeenth regiment will complete our quotas under all the calls of the President.

——The Manchester American states that the Sixteenth Regiment, it is understood, will be raised in that Congressional District, and the officers selected from that section. Col. Mason W. Tappan of Bradford, will doubtless receive the appointment of Colonel, and it is quite probable that the Lieut. Colonel and Major will be selected from Hillsborough county. For these places Isaac W. Farmer of Manchester, Geo. W. Riddle, of Bedford, Bainbridge Wadleigh of Milford, and Francis H. Morgan of Francestown, are mentioned.

——One evening last week, a woman, grossly intoxicated, passed down the sidewalk in front of the Merchants' Exchange, Concord, reeling and muttering incoherent and disconnected sentences. By her side tottered along a little fellow, her own, just tall enough to grasp her elbow. He was piloting her homeward.

——George D. Blodgett, pastor of the Congregational Church and Society in Newmarket, was, by a council of neighboring clergymen, held on Wednesday last, dismissed, for conduct which rendered it utterly unfit he should hold the pastoral office.

——An organized gang of boys have recently stolen various articles of merchandise from shops and other places in Manchester, and some of them have been arrested for stealing a quantity of grain—a few quarts or pecks at a time—from the storehouse of Kidder & Co.

——The Portsmouth Light Guard have a companion company in Manchester, numbering 38, from 12 to 15 years old. They bear the name of the Manchester Cadets, Capt. Straw, and for some time past have been under a rigid drill. The company is uniformed in a red shirt and cap, with a belt about the waist, and armed with wooden guns. Frank Clarke, son of Hon. Daniel Clarke, is 2d Lieut.

——A son of Stephen Kimball of Harrisville, 9 years of age, fell from a cherry tree, a distance of thirty feet, on Sunday afternoon, the 8th inst., striking his head upon a rock, fracturing his skull. He died on Monday afternoon.

——There have been quite a number of cases of typhoid fever in the 9th regiment, and the following three have died: H. B. Dearborn, Co. G; Abbott D. Holt, Co. ; and L. Foote, Co. F.

☞ D. W. Clark, of Bennington, Vt. has invented a material for facing the common red brick which gives the appearance of polished marble or pure porcelain. The brick is dipped in the preparation and then burned for six hours, when the preparation becomes attached to the brick, as if it were a part of the original, making the brick much stronger and exceedingly beautiful in appearance.

☞ The young ladies of Saukville, Wis., have bound themselves one to the other, that they will not receive the attentions as suitors or otherwise of any young man capable of bearing arms, who is not or shall not become, a volunteer in the Union cause under the present call for volunteers.

☞ The movement started several weeks since to raise a fund among the Charlestown Navy Yard workmen for the benefit of the families of volunteers, does not seem to prosper. The watch department has seceded, and the ship carpenters will not join. The latter have, however, agreed to give one day's pay, amounting to $1300. About $1200 has been collected, but if the society pays each soldier $10 per month this will not be sufficient to meet the first month's due.—[Post.

☞ The Commercial mentions only a fair amount of business in the N. Y. dry goods trade. Domestic cottons are firm, heavy brown unchanged and bleached goods variable.

☞ The annual Autumnal Convention of the Unitarian body throughout the United States will be holden this year in Brooklyn, N. Y., on the 14th, 15th and 16th insts.

☞ The rebel Gen. Hardee, who commands a division of Bragg's army, is in the last stages of consumption. He has been greatly opposed to Bragg's retreating policy.

☞ Elections take place to-day (Tuesday) in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, and Minnesota, in all of which Congressmen are to be chosen.

☞ The commission of internal revenue decides that milkmen, purchasing milk to sell again, are pedlers and must have licences.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1848. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum has been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no doubt but that the cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have recommended the preparations to acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENKINS."

"About seventeen years ago I discovered a bunch growing in my breast, which continued with slow but cutting pain, and when about as large as a hen's egg it broke out, and proved to be a Cancer of the most dangerous character. And from the abundant evidence I had of the good effect of Mr. Swett's Panacea in many such cases, I was encouraged to the hope of upon it for a cure in this case, and by keeping my stomach pure by emetics, which he prepared, and taking twelve bottles of Panacea, my cure was fully carried out, and I enjoyed health, and have had no trouble from it since. CAROLINE H. SWETT.

This statement of my wife is correct.
SIMON SWETT.
Portsmouth, N. H., April 18, 1851.

I have been greatly afflicted with a Humor called by the doctors Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, causing many outbreaks and sores on my seven bottles of Dr. Swett's Panacea I believe have effected a radical cure, as I have had no sign of the complaint since. I believe this medicine to be the most sure remedy in the world for Humors.
HANNAH ROWE.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dyspepsia in my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give my relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which only cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of those complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. HOWD.

Exeter, Feb. 24, 1858. Dr. Swett:—Sir, for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I have been with a humor, I will cheerfully inform you that I am well and day. I would say, that your PANACEA has effected a radical cure on me, and would add—that by the use of your Humor Wash, I greatly improved; therefore, I cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other medicine I ever used for humors and consumptive complaints.
WM. F. LAVITT.

From Cohen I. Chesley, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT:—Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but contributed to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine as of the best that can be found for the disease above named. ISAAC CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Examiner of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (see the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street.
BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, during which time he has secured Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal, or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished, by remitting One Dollar. A large assortment recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not unequalled by any other agency in the world, as can be either at home or abroad. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would say that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions, which are of great value to him.

These, beside his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them as early and favorable action as the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unanimity is owing to my great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.
